At the Forty-fourth Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, held in Exeter Hall, Strand, on Tuesday, April the 30th, 1844—

The Right Hon. the EARL of CHICHESTER, President, in the Chair,

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE HAVING BEEN READ BY ONE OF THE CLERICAL SECRETARIES AND THE REV. JOHN VENN, PREBENDARY OF HEREFORD—

On the Motion of the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Chester, seconded by the Rev. James Scholefield, M.A., Regius Professor of Greek, and Perpetual Curate of St. Michael's, Cambridge,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Report, of which an Abstract has now been read, be received, and printed under the direction of the Committee; that the thanks of this Meeting be given to the Right Hon. and Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of London, for his Sermon before the Society last evening; to his Grace the Vice-Patron; to the Right Hon. the President and the Vice-Presidents; and to all those friends who, during the past year, have exerted themselves in its behalf; and that the following Gentlemen be appointed the Committee for the ensuing year, with power to fill up vacancies: (See LIST, p. iv.)

On the Motion of the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Ripon, seconded by the Rev. John William Cunningham, M.A., Vicar of Harrow,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That while this Meeting gratefully records its deep sense of the Divine Favour manifested to the Society in the last year—not less in the work of grace in the Missions than in the prosperous state of the finances,—it would earnestly impress on the Members the obligation to cultivate a spirit of humility and watchfulness, faith and prayer, in the continued prosecution of the great work in which the Society is engaged.

On the Motion of Sir Robert Harry Inglis, Bart. M.P., seconded by the Rev. William Marsh, D.D., Incumbent of St. Mary, Leamington,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Meeting regards with deep interest the fact, that one who was formerly rescued from Slavery by a British Cruiser, is now an Ordained Minister of the Church of England, and employed as a Missionary of the Society in his native land; and that they look forward with renovated hope to the entrance of the Gospel into the interior of West Africa, by the instrumentality of Liberated Africans trained in the Society's Mission at Sierra Leone.

On the Motion of John Pemberton Plumptre, Esq. M.P., seconded by the Rev. Hugh Stowell, M.A., Minister of Christ Church, Salford, Manchester,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That while the Meeting rejoices with humble thankfulness in the evidence of the power of the Gospel of the grace of God in the Missions in Tinnevelly and New Zealand, they desire to give Him glory for all that He has wrought; and to stir up their Christian friends to continue instant in prayer for an increased outpouring of the Holy Spirit on all the operations of the Society, at home and abroad.

At a Meeting of the Society, held in Exeter Hall, on Tuesday Evening, April 30, 1844.

The Most Hon. the MARQUESS of CHOLMONDELEY, Vice-President, in the Chair,

On the Motion of the Rev. Thomas Vores, M.A., Perpetual Curate of St. Mary's, Hastings, seconded by the Rev. Albert Ostertag, Tutor of the Missionary Institution, Bâsle,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting desires to record its cordial sympathy with the Missionaries of the Society in heathen lands, in all their trials, disappointments, and arduous contests with the powers of darkness; and to recognise the duty incumbent upon Christians at home of continual prayer on their behalf; that, like their blessed Master, they may not fail nor be discouraged till the Lord bring forth judgment under victory.

On the Motion of the Rev. George Smith, Missionary to China, seconded by Francis Pym, Esq., of the Hasells, Bedford,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting rejoices at the commencement, by the Society, of a Mission to China; and expresses the hope, that such a spirit of sympathy and liberality will be manifested by its friends throughout the kingdom, as will both encourage and enable the Committee to enlarge the Mission to a scale in some measure corresponding to the vastness of its object.

On the Motion of the Hon. and Rev. Baptist Wriothesley Noel, M.A., Minister of St. John's Chapel, Bedford Row, and Chaplain in Ordinary to the Queen, seconded by Pascoe St. Leger Grenfell, Esq.,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting contemplates the establishment and growth of the infant Churches in the Society's Missions with sentiments of lively joy and affectionate regard; as being an accession of fresh Members into that family and household of faith, to belong to which is their own highest and dearest privilege; and as being an increase of the Government and Peace of Him, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named.

XVIII. The General Committee shall meet on the Second Monday in every Month, and oftener if needful; the other Committees as often, and at such places, as shall be by them agreed on: their Meetings to be always opened with reading a Form of Prayer composed for that purpose, or one or more suitable Prayers selected from the Liturgy. Five Members shall be necessary to compose a General Committee; and Three, each of the others. In case of equality of votes, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

XIX. The Patrons, Vice-Patron, and President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Secretaries, shall be considered, ex officio, Members of all Committees.

XX. Governors, being Members of the Established Church, shall be entitled to attend and vote at all Meetings of the General Committee.

XXI. All payments on account of the Society shall be signed by Three of the General Committee, in Committee, and the Lay Secretary.

XXII. The Committee shall have power to appoint such Officers and Assistants as they shall deem necessary for the well-conducting of the affairs of the Society, subject to the approbation of the next Annual Meeting.

XXIII. Five Auditors shall be appointed by the Committee, annually, for the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Society; of whom, Three shall be chosen from the General Body. Three shall be a Quorum.

XXIV. The Life Subscriptions, or a sufficient part thereof, to be equal to the Subscriptions of the existing Members for Life, shall be placed in the Public Funds, in the names of Four of the General Committee; who, on their acceptance of the trust, shall sign a declaration of the nature of it, and that they will relinquish the same whenever called upon for that purpose by the General Committee.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXV. In the appointment of Candidates for the Missionary Office, the following course shall be pursued: The Committee of Correspondence having found a person supposed to be suitable, shall determine by ballot to nominate him to the General Committee. Previous to the day of nomination, each Member of the General Committee shall receive notice of such nomination. On the day of nomination, a report shall be made, by some Member of the Committee of Correspondence, of his qualifications; and the General Committee shall then proceed to ballot for him, unless any Member shall declare that he wishes for further information; in which case the ballot shall be deferred till the next Meeting of the General Committee. In the ballot of either Committee, the agreement of at least Three-fourths of the Members present shall be necessary to his election.

XXVI. A Candidate thus chosen shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for his future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVII. If, during such preparation, any Two Members of the General Committee should see cause to disapprove of his principles or conduct, they may submit the subject to a Special Meeting of the Committee; and, if deemed proper, the Committee may appoint another ballot, to determine whether he shall be continued as a Candidate; of which, special notice shall be given to each Member.

XXVIII. Each Candidate shall consider himself as engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time, which the Committee shall choose: respect, however, being had to his personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by him with the Society. As soon as he quits England, he shall keep a regular Journal of his studies and proceedings; a copy of which he shall send, as often as opportunity shall serve, to the Secretaries.

XXIX. Each Candidate, after due preparation, shall, if not admitted to Holy Orders, be appointed by the Committee to act as a Catechist. If admitted to Holy Orders, he shall be appointed a Missionary.*

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the General Committee: and after having laboured in the cause of the Society, to the satisfaction of the Committee, at the Stations committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, suitable provision shall be made to render their remaining days comfortable. The General Committee shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent Relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. That all questions relating to matters of Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, respecting which a difference shall arise between any Colonial Bishop and any Committee of the Society, shall be referred to the Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

XXXIII. That the object of the preceding Law being only to provide a mode of settling questions relating to Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, as to which no provision has yet been made by the Society, it is not to be so construed, as, in any other respect, to alter the principles and practice of the Society, as they are contained in its Laws and Regulations, and explained in Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Report.

The proposed reference shall be made, through His Grace the Primate, by the Committee, accompanied by such explanations and statements as the Committee may deem advisable; and the Committee will be bound so to refer all questions, falling within the scope of the Rule so understood as aforesaid, which the Colonial Bishop shall require them to refer.

While all decisions of the Bench of Bishops on questions so referred will be considered by the Committee as binding on them and their agents or representatives, the Colonial Bishops or other Ecclesiastical Authorities, unless concurring in the reference, cannot properly be considered as so bound.

XXXIV. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon its designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He "prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help," we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

* The following passage, from Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Annual Report, illustrates the practice of the Society in reference to this Rule:—

"The Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth [ecclesiastically speaking] our Missionaries—these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad, in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same Colony. The Services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and discipline of the Church."

APPENDIX II. TO THE THIRTY-NINTH REPORT.

REFERRED TO IN THE NOTE TO LAW XXIX.

REMARKS ON THE CONSTITUTION AND PRACTICE OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY, WITH REFERENCE TO ITS ECCLESIASTICAL RELATIONS.

IT is the object of the following Remarks, to show that the constitution and practice of the Church Missionary Society are in strict conformity with Ecclesiastical principles, as they are recognised in the constitution and practice of the Church of England.

Throughout the system of the Church of England there is a recognised co-operation of temporal and spiritual functions IN MATTERS ECCLESIASTICAL; that is, the Laity and Clergy have not only their separate and distinct provinces, but, in many important respects, they unite their agency for the accomplishing of Ecclesiastical acts.

For instance, in supplying a vacant church, a Lay-Patron selects and presents "his Clerk" —as the Clergyman is technically called—to the Bishop; who thereupon invests him with authority to minister in that Church. So, also, there are certain Lay-officers appointed to every church—the Churchwardens or Sidesmen —whose duty it is, not only to guard, in conjunction with the Minister, the temporalities of the Church, but also to watch over the due performance of Divine Service, the morals of the parishioners, and the conduct of the Minister; and to report, from time to time, on each of these matters, to the Ecclesiastical Authorities. The duty of these officers is implied in the old appellation, "Sidesmen," or "Synodsmen"— men summoned to attend and give information at Synods and Visitations.

The distinction and co-operation of lay and spiritual functions in the Church of England might be further illustrated in the case of Ecclesiastical Courts, and various relations which arise out of the principle that the Sovereign is the Supreme Ruler of the Church.

Keeping the foregoing distinction in view, the Church Missionary Society may be regarded as an Institution for discharging the temporal and lay offices necessary for the preaching of the Gospel among the Heathen. It is strictly a Lay Institution: it exercises, as a Society, no spiritual functions whatsoever.

Such being the constitution of the Society in theory—are its proceedings conducted in conformity with this theory, and with the Ecclesiastical principles of the Church of England?

In order to review these proceedings, they may be conveniently arranged under the FOUR following Heads:—

I. THE COLLECTION OF THE HOME REVENUE, and THE DISBURSEMENT OF IT ABROAD.

These acts are altogether within the province of Laymen.

II. THE SELECTING AND EDUCATING CANDIDATES FOR MISSIONARY EMPLOYMENT.

In this department there is no necessary encroachments upon spiritual functions. The Colleges in our Universities are Lay-Corporations, and may, in many cases, be administered and presided over by Laymen.

Yet it may be urged, that in this department there is an approach to the peculiar province of Clergymen; because, spiritual persons seem the more proper judges of a Candidate's fitness for Missionary employment: and it is generally admitted, that a Bishop may exercise a controul over the education and training of Candidates to be advanced by himself to Holy Orders. Now, in both these particulars the Church Missionary Society has carefully guarded its proceedings. The examination of Missionary Candidates is referred to a Clerical Sub-Committee; and the General Committee consult and act upon the report of this Clerical trial and judgment. In respect of the other point, the education and training of Candidates for Holy Orders, the Church Missionary College at Islington has the sanction and approbation of the Bishop of London; who, in this country, admits to Holy Orders all the Society's Candidates: and his Lordship has repeatedly expressed his satisfaction at the results of the system of instruction, as they have been manifested in his examinations for Holy Orders.

III. The Third general head of the Society's proceedings is, THE SENDING FORTH, TO PARTICULAR STATIONS, THE MISSIONARIES THUS ORDAINED, OR OTHER CLERGYMEN WHO HAVE BEEN PREVIOUSLY ORDAINED.

Now, here an objection against the Society has been founded on the use of the term "sending forth:"—it sounds like an exercise of Ecclesiastical power. But, Ecclesiastically speaking, the Bishop of London "sends forth" every Missionary ordained by him. The Law of the land has sanctioned the Two Archbishops, and the Bishop of London, in ordaining persons to officiate abroad. The Secretary of the Church Missionary Society requests, by Letter, the Bishop of London to ordain, in conformity with the provisions of the Act of Parliament, such and such persons, whom the Society is willing to support in some Foreign Station. The Bishop, by the imposition of hands, gives them authority to preach the Gospel, with a view to their foreign location.— In the case of persons already in Holy Orders, who may join the Society, they may be said to go forth by their own voluntary act; but their Letters of Orders, given by a Bishop of our Church, are their mission and commission, Ecclesiastically speaking.

Hence, to call the acts of the Church Missionary Society—in selecting the station, paying the passage-money, and agreeing to provide the Missionary's salary—to call these acts a SENDING FORTH of Preachers, in an Ecclesiastical sense, is to confound names with things, and to lose sight of all true Church principles.

IV. The Fourth general head under which the proceedings of the Church Missionary Society may be arranged, is, THE SUPERINTENDENCE OF MISSIONARIES IN THEIR LABOURS AMONG THE HEATHEN.

Here a distinction must be made between the case of those Foreign Stations which lie within the jurisdiction of a Colonial Bishop, and other stations, which are not so situated, and may therefore be termed Extra-diocesan.

In the first case, the Church Missionary Society has expressly determined, that all its ordained Missionaries shall be submitted for licence to the Bishop of the diocese in which they may be stationed; and that no Missionary shall exercise his spiritual functions in such diocese without a licence. The Society has further recognised the uncontrolled discretion of the Bishop to grant or withhold his licence, and the propriety of specifying in such licence a particular district as the field of labour; so that a Missionary cannot be removed from one district to another without the sanction of the Bishop.

These principles were stated in a Letter from the Society to the Bishop of Calcutta, signed by the Right Honourable the President —December 17, 1835—in a manner so satisfactory to the Bishop, that he embodied them in the four following Rules, expressed for the most part in the words of the Society's Letter: which were, at the Bishop's request, entered upon the minutes of the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, as the recognised Rules of their practice:—

"1. The Bishop expresses—by granting or withholding his licence, in which the sphere of the Missionary's labour is mentioned—his approbation or otherwise, of that location.

"2. The Bishop superintends the Missionaries afterward, as the other Clergy, in the discharge of their Ecclesiastical duties.

"3. The Bishop receives from those—the Committee and Secretary—who still stand in the relation of Lay-Patrons to the Missionary, such communications respecting his Ecclesiastical duties as may enable the Bishop to discharge that paternal superintendence to the best advantage.—The Archdeacon of Calcutta or Bombay acting under the Bishop's immediate directions, when he happens to be absent.

"4. If the Bishop* or Archdeacon fills, at the request of the Society, the offices of Patron, President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, &c., he receives, further, all such confidential information, on all topics, as the Bishops officially neither could wish nor properly ask [to receive]."

* The Three Bishops of India, and the Bishop of Australia, are the Presidents of the Corresponding Committees in their respective dioceses.

The Bishop also wrote to the Parent Society in the following terms:—"You seem to me to lay down the principle most correctly. . . . . This is to me perfectly satisfactory; as I shall instantly inform the Archbishop of Canterbury, to whom I report all the proceedings of the diocese."—9th June, 1836.

It will be perceived, that the Missionaries, thus licensed, stand toward the Bishop in the relation rather of Stipendiary Curates, than of Beneficed Clergymen. For a Bishop in England cannot refuse a licence or institution to a benefice, without assigning a reason which will bear investigation before a Court of Common Law; nor can he deprive a Clergyman of his benefice without a judicial process. But no law has provided any such check in the case of Missionaries: the Bishop has the power of withholding a licence, or of withdrawing it, at his sole discretion, without assigning any cause, as in the case of Stipendiary Curates in this country.

If it be asked, What are the checks and safeguards against the undue exercise of this discretionary power of the Bishop?—it may be replied, in the words of the Bishop of Calcutta, in a Letter to the Parent Society, April 12, 1837:—

"We are not to take for granted that discretionary power will be abused; but, on the contrary, to provide, by a cheerful and friendly spirit and conduct, against the likelihood of such an occurrence. If the event of arbitrary conduct should arise, or be supposed to arise, the remedies are—public opinion—an appeal to the Archbishop—and the Society's refusing to make other appointments and locations than those unreasonably objected to. Nothing is the least likely — and probability is the guide of life — to arise to impede or cramp the Committee, since they unquestionably and avowedly possess, The choice of men — The appointment of spheres of labour—The temporal power, including pecuniary support."

But though the Bishop's licence is at once the pledge and proof that the Society's Missionaries are under Episcopal superintendence and jurisdiction, and that the spiritual oversight rests altogether with the Bishop; yet the Society may seem, to some persons, to keep up a kind of spiritual jurisdiction and oversight, by requiring accounts from the Missionaries of all their proceedings, and by giving them directions, from time to time, which may bear upon their spiritual duties. But it must be remembered, that the Society stands toward its Missionaries in the relation of Trustees of the fund out of which their salaries are paid. In the case of a beneficed Clergyman in this country, the Minister is the guardian and possessor of the temporalities of the benefice, because the benefice is an endowment; and the Patron has no further connexion with the Minister whom he has once presented to the Bishop. In our case, the office of Patron is in a sense perpetuated by the payment of the salary, and the possession of all the temporalities of the Mission.

This matter has been well explained by the Bishop of Calcutta, in a Letter to the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, May 26, 1837:—"The Missionary Committees," says his Lordship, "have a far greater latitude in India than any Lay-Patrons at home. Upon presenting his Clerk to the Bishop, the Patron at home is functus officio. The Clergyman is removed, on being once instituted and licensed, totally and for ever from the Patron, and is transferred to the superintendency of the Bishop. The Patron has nothing whatever more to do with him. But in India, the Committee is (1) the continued paymaster of the Missionary, after he is duly licensed;—for institution and induction there are none. (2) They correspond with him. (3) They supply him with Catechists. (4) They report his chief proceedings home. (5) They propose removals and changes of station to the Bishop. (6) They exercise, unavoidably, an influence which does not belong to the mere Lay-Patron; and are aiding, in a variety of ways, to the comfortable and honourable discharge of the Missionary's most exalted and most spiritual duties."

It remains to consider the case of those Stations which are Extra-diocesan; i.e. where there is no Colonial Bishop of the Church of England having jurisdiction over them.

In these cases, the Society has endeavoured to procure for such stations the benefits of the Episcopal office from the nearest Bishop of the Church of England. Application was made by the Committee both to the late and to the present Bishop of Madras, to extend, as far as circumstances would admit, these benefits to the Mission in Travancore; which, as an independent state, not forming a part of the British Dominions, was not included in the diocese of Madras. A similar application was made on behalf of the New-Zealand Mission, to the Bishop of Australia; who at once acceded to the request, and kindly promised to visit New Zealand as soon as his other duties would permit; stating, in a Letter to the Society's representatives at Sydney, "It is highly satisfactory to me, that our friends at home are taking a view of these things, which proves them to belong, not only to a MISSIONARY, but also to a CHURCH Society." (See Annual Report, 1838.)

Such is a General View of the Constitution and Proceedings of the Church Missionary Society.

It is not intended to assert, that errors are not sometimes committed in the application of these principles to matters of detail. It must be remembered, that Missionary operations are, alas! new and anomalous in the system of the Church of England; and that it is not always easy to draw a definite line between the two provinces which belong respectively to the Bishop and the Committee. It has been observed by the Bishop of Calcutta—Letter, May 26, 1837: "The boundaries of the power of Committees, as they approach to those of the Bishop, can be ascertained, in many points, only by time and observation." Perplexities have consequently occurred; and, unhappily, misunderstandings have sometimes arisen between the Representatives of the Society abroad and Ecclesiastical Authorities. But these are the principles by which the Home Committee have endeavoured to guide the proceedings of the Society: and they confidently respond to a sentiment expressed by the Bishop of Calcutta—"The principles of our new relations are now fully recognised: the details will soon find their level."—Letter, 9th June 1836.

In reviewing the Ecclesiastical relations of the Church Missionary Society, there are two or three points which it seems very important to notice.

1. Missionary operations, as they are conducted by the Church Missionary Society, though apparently anomalous in the system of the Church of England, are yet in strict conformity with its constitution and principles: they are analogous to many other instances of voluntary exertion for the extension of true religion within the Church, in which Ecclesiastical authority and Lay co-operation unite for the accomplishment of the same end: so that these operations may be regarded as the acts of the Church of England, putting forth its energy for the Conversion of the Heathen World. For it has been shown, that the Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth our Missionaries—that these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad, in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same colony. The Services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and dicipline of the Church. Even in the few cases in which Lutheran Clergymen are employed, this rule is observed; and all the congregations which are gathered into the fold of Christ are trained up as Members of the Church established in this land.

And here it may be observed, that nothing less than the sanction of a duly-assembled Convocation can more fully identify the acts of any Missionary Society, within the Church of England, with the Church.* Without such sanction, all associations of Churchmen must stand in the same position. Still further, not to notice the present abeyance of Convocations, it may be asserted, that even if the Church were to assemble in her provincial Convocations, and to decree and to regulate Missionary operations, such proceedings could not essentially add to, or alter, those important particulars which, under present circumstances, entitle the operations of the Church Missionary Society to be regarded as Missionary operations of the United Church of England and Ireland.

2. It must be ever borne in mind, that Missionary operations are, in their very nature, temporary and preparative;—that they are to be gradually but eventually superseded by a different order of things, when the Heathen Nations shall have become Christianized. In some cases, as in the West Indies, this change is further advanced than in others. Now, it must be expected, that, in proportion as this change advances, difficulties and perplexities will arise in our Ecclesiastical relations, peculiar to this TRANSITION STATE—from Missionary operations, to that happy consummation when there shall be an endowed and established system of Christian Instruction, and a territorial division of Ministerial labour. This consummation the Church Missionary Society has ever kept in view, and devoutly desired; and, as far as possible, has prepared for its approach. In an interview with the Bishop of Barbados—April 1835—this point was expressly alluded to; and it was stated by the Committee to his Lordship, "that whenever a district should be brought into the state of an organized Christian community, it should assume entirely the Parochial form, and cease to be occupied as a Missionary Station.—The Bishop entirely acquiesced in this view; and only expressed his anxiety that it should not be so acted upon as prematurely to deprive a district of the Missionary's services." (Extracts from Committee's Minute.)

3. Lastly, it must be evident, from a review of the whole subject, that our Ecclesiastical relations depend, in many important respects, upon a mutual confidence and good understanding between the Committee and its representatives, and the Ecclesiastical Authorities both at home and abroad. This must be the case, to argue upon no higher grounds, while those relations are governed by Ecclesiastical laws and canons made without reference to Missionary operations, for an Established Church in a Christian country; and where so much is also necessarily left to the discretion of both parties. If we look to our Home operations, the Committee places confidence in the Bishop of London, that he will continue to ordain the Missionary Candidates introduced to his Lordship by the Society, according to the provisions of the Act: and the Lord Bishop of London relies upon the Committee's using every means to select, train, and duly qualify proper candidates to be thus introduced to him.

So also, in its Foreign operations, the Society places confidence in the Colonial Bishops—as it has been already shown, in a quotation from the Letter of Bishop Wilson—that they will not exercise an unreasonable or arbitrary discretion, in withholding or withdrawing licences from our Missionaries, or in refusing ordination to our Candidates. And the Bishops, by granting licences and ordination to the Missionaries of a voluntary Society, whose income is liable to fluctuations, and whose agents are constantly changing, manifestly place confidence in the Committees, that they will use every endeavour to keep up the Missions once established; and that they will not, on their part, act in an unreasonable or arbitrary manner, or withdraw the salary from a licensed Missionary, without reason sufficient to prove to the licensing Bishop the necessity of the proceeding.

It seems impossible to supersede this conventional understanding—as it may be termed—till Missions are supported by endowments, or till a code of Missionary canons be established by competent authority.

This mutual confidence and good understanding now exists, it may be thankfully asserted, between the Committee of the Society and the Ecclesiastical Authorities of every Colonial Diocese in which Missionaries are labouring. And may He, who is the God, not of confusion, but of peace, and "the great Shepherd and Bishop of Souls," unite together the hearts and hands of those who are labouring in this Holy Cause—"that all and every of these may, IN THEIR SEVERAL CALLINGS, serve truly and painfully, to the glory of His name!"

Suggested Order of Proceedings at a Meeting preparatory to the Formation of an Association in aid of the Church Missionary Society.

1.—Mr. will move, and Mr. will second, a Resolution, "That be requested to take the Chair."

2.—The Chairman will briefly state the object for which the Meeting is assembled, and then call on the Rev. to offer up the usual Prayer to Almighty God, for a blessing on the proceedings of the day.

3.—After prayer, the Chairman will make such further observations as he may deem necessary, and then call on Mr. to move the First Resolution.

FIRST RESOLUTION.—Moved by

Seconded by

That this Meeting fully recognises the duty incumbent on Christians to employ all suitable means for the propagation of the Gospel throughout the world; and hails, with thankfulness to the Great Head of the Church, the labours of the CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY in its various Stations in Heathen Lands, and among decayed Christian Churches.

SECOND RESOLUTION.—Moved by

Seconded by

That an Association be now formed, and entitled, "The Church Missionary Association;" and that the following be its Officers and Rules.

PRESIDENT. VICE-PRESIDENTS.

TREASURER. SECRETARY.

COMMITTEE:

with power to add to their number.

RULES.

I. Annual Members of this Association shall be all persons subscribing annually One Guinea or upward; or if Clergymen, Half a Guinea; and also such persons as shall collect in its behalf One Shilling or upward per week.

II. Life Members shall be Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upward; or if Clergymen, such as shall contribute Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas; and Executors paying bequests of Fifty Pounds.

III. Annual Governors shall be Subscribers of Five Guineas per annum.

IV. Life Governors shall be Benefactors of Fifty Pounds.

V. Members will be entitled to receive the Annual Reports of the Parent Society, and to vote at its General Meetings. Collectors of One Shilling and upward per week will receive a copy of each Monthly Number of the "Church Missionary Record"; of Sixpence a-week and upward, of each Monthly Number of the "Church Missionary Gleaner"; and Juvenile Collectors of One Shilling a-month, a copy of each Monthly Number of the "Church Missonary Juvenile Instructor." Governors will be entitled to receive the Reports; and, if Members of the Established Church, to vote at Committee and General Meetings of both the Association and the Parent Society. Clergymen will have the same privilege as Governors. Contributors of 1*d.* a week and upward will be entitled to receive the Parent Society's "Quarterly Paper."

VI. The objects of this Association shall be, to call forth the zeal of well-disposed persons, and particularly those of the Established Church, in support of the Church Missionary Society—to recommend proper persons who may offer themselves as Missionaries to the Parent Society—to disperse as widely as possible Missionary information—to promote the formation of Branch Associations—and to procure Collections and other Contributions.

VII. The whole of the funds so obtained, after deducting incidental expenses only, shall be remitted to the Church Missionary Society, in aid of its designs.

VIII. A General Meeting shall be held annually, on such day as shall be fixed by the Committee; when a Report of the Proceedings of the Association shall be read, and an account of its receipts and disbursements presented, duly audited.

THIRD RESOLUTION.—Moved by

Seconded by

That the success which, under the Divine Blessing, has attended the Church Missionary Society, in its efforts to make known the Gospel of Christ among the Heathen, is a loud and providential call for increased exertions, for devout thanksgiving to Almighty God, and for continual prayer for a more abundant outpouring of the Holy Spirit, to render the means employed successful.

FOURTH RESOLUTION.—Moved by

Seconded by

That the new and enlarged openings for Missionary exertion, in different quarters, demand our best energies to make known the blessed Gospel of Christ to Heathen and Mahomedan Nations.

PREACHED AT ST. BRIDE'S CHURCH,

FLEET STREET,

ON MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 29, 1844,

BEFORE THE

Church Missionary Society,

BY THE

CHARLES JAMES,

LORD BISHOP OF LONDON.

A

SERMON,

&c. &c.

ISAIAH liv. 2, 3.

ENLARGE THE PLACE OF THY TENT, AND LET THEM STRETCH FORTH THE CURTAINS OF THINE HABITATIONS: SPARE NOT, LENGTHEN THY CORDS, AND STRENGTHEN THY STAKES; FOR THOU SHALT BREAK FORTH ON THE RIGHT HAND AND ON THE LEFT; AND THY SEED SHALL INHERIT THE GENTILES, AND MAKE THE DESOLATE CITIES TO BE INHABITED.

THIS encouraging promise may perhaps have been intended, in the first instance, for the Jewish Nation, with reference to the increase of their numbers, and the advancement of their power, after their return from captivity. Jerusalem, which had so long lain desolate and barren, might well be exhorted to break forth into singing at the prospect of her temple rebuilt, her walls restored, and her inhabitants more numerous than they had been in that happy time which is signified by the image of the married state; when the Lord, as the Prophet says, was a husband to His people:—Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the Lord. And then follows the exhortation in the text, to make provision for the reception, within her domestic sanctuary, not of those only who should be of her own blood and kindred, but of the Gentiles also, who should be joined to them, and so become, as it were, their portion, or inheritance. But the Jewish Nation, after its return from captivity, never attained so remarkable a degree of prosperity and power as fully to answer all the terms of this prophecy. It is true that they became a very numerous people; so that from forty-two thousand, the number of those that went out of Babylon, they had increased to nearly three millions at the time of our Saviour's death; but they can hardly be said, in respect of territorial limits, to have broken forth on the right hand and on the left, nor to have inherited the Gentiles. We must therefore look for another interpretation of the prophecy; and we can be in no doubt as to its application to the Church of God; for St. Paul, in the fourth chapter of his Epistle to the Galatians[1], expressly refers the prophecy of Isaiah, of which this is a part, to that Jerusalem which is above, which is the mother of us all. To this interpretation we are also naturally led, by observing the place which the promise occupies in the prophetical roll. It follows immediately upon a most affecting description of the humiliation and sufferings of the Messiah, concluding with a wonderful prediction of His office as an Atoner and Intercessor. The death of Christ being the life of His Church, it is natural that this melancholy picture of the one should be succeeded by a cheering intimation of the other: the seeming extinction of the light introduces the dawn of a more glorious day. He shall see of the travail of His soul, and shall be satisfied, are words of comfort, interposed amidst forebodings of suffering and woe; and the mode of their accomplishment is more clearly pointed out by an image drawn from the habits of pastoral life, familiar to the people of eastern countries, where the nomad chief, as his family, and cattle, and goods increase, finds it necessary to enlarge the place of his tent, and to stretch forth the curtains of his habitation. Under this image is represented the gradual increase of the Church, from the moment when, to human eyes, it appeared to have been crushed by the disgrace and death of its Founder, to the time when the fulness of the Gentiles shall have come in, and God's ancient people shall be brought back to the same fold with them, and all the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdoms of the Lord, and of His Christ.

No person, probably, has been engaged, of late years at least, in the work of Christian Missions, to whom this prophecy has not frequently recurred, as affording matter both of encouragement and painful anxiety. The certainty of its ultimate fulfilment encourages him in his labour; a comparison of it with the actual state of the world fills him with anxiety and sorrow. He is sure, that what the Lord has spoken He will perform; yet he can hardly refrain from inquiring with the Prophet, Lord, how long?[1] A consideration of this difficulty, which, while it furnishes the unbeliever with an objection to the truth of God's Word, perplexes the reason, although it does not shake the faith, even of His faithful servants, may, under the Divine blessing, suggest some profitable thoughts on the present occasion, when we are met together to attest with thankfulness the past triumphs of the Gospel, and to pray that a more abundant effusion of His Holy Spirit, and a larger measure of success, may be vouchsafed to those who are engaged in the work of extending the boundaries of Christ's kingdom upon earth.

Our blessed Lord compared that kingdom to a grain of mustard-seed, which, being the smallest of seeds, grows up into a great tree, and the fowls of the air lodge in its branches. As He died for the sins, not only of the Apostles and first believers, but of the whole world, it was decreed that His Gospel should be preached to all nations; and therefore His Church, by which it is to be preached, and wherein are contained the means of applying the benefits of His death to the salvation of individual sinners, must be essentially expansive in its nature. It was not intended to be, like the Temple at Jerusalem, a local shrine of Deity, one place of sacrifice for a single nation, and of prayer for all; but it must break forth on the right hand and on the left: it must carry forth its boundaries in all directions, enclosing family after family, and nation after nation, till all the Gentiles become its inheritance, and all the desolate places are inhabited by the children and servants of the Most High.

[1] Isaiah vi. 11.

This expansive character of the Church was abundantly conspicuous in its beginning; when the Apostles went forth with a commission to disciple and baptize all nations; and with a special anointing from the Holy Spirit, qualifying them for the execution of their task. The principle of growth and enlargement, which was essentially inherent in the Church, was put in motion, and made effective, by the direct impulse of the Spirit of God; and the results were proportionably wonderful. Each miracle, wrought in the name of Jesus, and impressing the stamp of heavenly authority upon the teaching of him who wrought it, was followed by additions to the Church: By the hands of the Apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people.... and believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.... So mightily grew the Word of God, and prevailed.[1]

We may form some estimate of the power of that preaching of the Apostles, from the effect which it produced on one occasion, in causing those who used curious arts—a part only of the numbers who were converted—to bring their books together and burn them; and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.[2] And so it went on for many years; the power of God being visibly interposed to carry forward on every side the boundaries of His Church. The Gospel broke forth, like the breaking forth of waters[3], on the right hand and on the left. Its sound went into all the earth, and its words unto the ends of the world[4]. The heavenly vine sent out her boughs unto the sea, and her branches unto the river[5]; until the whole known world was planted with Churches, constituted according to the apostolic model. Within little more than a century from the Ascension of our Lord, we find it thus written by one of the earliest Fathers:—"There is no race of men, whether of barbarians or of Greeks, or bearing any other name, either because they live in waggons without fixed habitations, or in tents leading a pastoral life, among whom prayers and thanksgivings are not offered to the Father and Maker of the universe, through the name of the crucified Jesus.[1]" Within fifty years after that period, we find our own nation enumerated among those which had received the Gospel, in parts inaccessible to the Roman arms; and it is asserted, that in those countries where it had been preached, the Christians formed nearly the greater part of the population. Down to that time, then, the prophecy in the text, and others which speak more plainly still of the universal prevalence of Christianity, and the corresponding extension of the Church, were visibly receiving their fulfilment. The place of God's tabernacle on earth had been wonderfully enlarged, and its curtains stretched forth; its cords had been lengthened—those cords of Divine love, by which the Holy Spirit draws men within the sphere of His influence, and adds to the Church daily such as may be saved therein; its stakes were strengthened; numbers were added to the ministry, the pillars of the Church, as the Apostles and Prophets are its foundations, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief corner stone.

But before many ages had passed away the scene was sadly changed. The efforts of Satan to regain a portion at least of the dominion, which had been won from him by the noble army of martyrs and confessors, were but too successful. Heresy and schism weakened the stakes of the tabernacle; superstition removed them, and substituted for them false and unsubstantial supports; and then its cords were slackened, and its curtains were shaken and torn by the blast; and many cities were reduced to spiritual desolation; and the awful warning, which the Spirit had sent to the Churches, began to receive its fulfilment; and the witnesses were slain; and the Church herself was driven into the wilderness; and it was no longer a question whether she should enlarge the place of her habitation, but whether she should have any earthly habitation at all, except in name and shadowy form. Then might she have taken up the complaint of Jeremiah: My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains. For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the Lord: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.[1] And since the time when some portion of the Church's ancient glory returned, and in those regions where her light has shone with somewhat of its early purity and brightness, how little apparent cause has she had for responding to the prophetic call, Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud; seeing how little has been done, by those who have dwelt in her sanctuary, to enlarge its place, and to stretch forth the curtains of her habitation. How dark and painful is the contrast, of the glorious and rapid march of Christianity during the first two centuries, not only with the extinction of its light in some Churches, and its obscuration and dimness in others, but with the efforts, made by those who have been charged with the duty of maintaining and propagating the faith, to recover the territories which once belonged to Christ's kingdom, and to achieve fresh conquests over the powers of darkness in regions hitherto unblessed with Gospel light!

While the warfare was waged by a few despised and persecuted men, the Church was everywhere triumphant, as far as its visible extension denoted triumph; but when the whole empire was comprised within its pale, and entire nations professed the faith, its expansive energy began to wax faint, and even its self-preserving principle was at times scarcely kept alive; and now, when vast regions of the earth are waiting for the evangelist, how few labourers are sent forth by that portion of the Universal Church, which is rich in spiritual treasure and worldly means, to put the sickle into the great harvest of souls! And it is accounted a great thing, if a few idolaters or unbelievers—a single family, or perhaps a village—are reported to have embraced the truth as it is in Jesus.

Indeed, it is a palpable objection, and is urged as such, against the truth of those prophecies, which pourtray in such glowing imagery the state of the world under the reign of the Messiah, that the reality by no means corresponds with the description; that more than three-fourths of the human race are now, after the lapse of eighteen centuries, outcasts and aliens from the Christian Covenant; and that there are no symptoms of the arrival, within any determinable time, of that blessed state of things which shall prevail, when all men shall know the Lord, from the least of them unto the greatest.[1]

Undoubtedly this apparent retrocession in the fulfilment of God's purposes of mercy is a trial of our faith, as it is probably a punishment for the want of it. Those purposes are thwarted and hindered by the perverseness of man, who is not only the object of them, but is made to be instrumental in their fulfilment: and because, in consequence, the Almighty appears to be slack, as some men count slackness, in the accomplishment of His designs, this is urged as an argument against the truth of those predictions by which He has prepared mankind for the fuller development of His counsels. It is also urged as a reason for our leaving the work of evangelization altogether in the hands of God, and desisting from that labour which has produced so little apparent fruit. Indeed, the scantiness of the harvest would give us but slender encouragement to persevere in sowing beside all waters, did we not remember that the duty has been laid upon us by Him, who knows our insufficiency, and will supply it as He sees fit. The work is clearly OURS; the increase will be given by HIM, in such proportions, and at such times, as infinite wisdom and goodness may determine.

The dispensation of Gospel Truth, and the building up, though perhaps by slow and painful increments, the Church of Christ, is the work committed to our hands; and though its progress may be scarcely perceptible, there may be in connexion, or at least simultaneous therewith, a secret underworking of God's providence, which will manifest itself in due time, and prove that our labour is not in vain in the Lord. And although this state of things ought to teach us our own weakness, and the impotence of all human efforts, as compared with the energy of that Almighty Spirit who moves up and down in the world, and is the life of the universe and of the Church, it should prevent us from yielding to disappointment and despondency; and drive us, not to a relaxation of our efforts, but to more persevering prayer, and to a more entire resignation, as to the issue of our labours, to Him for whose glory they are designed. To those who lose sight of this principle, motives to despondency and inaction present themselves, not only in the seeming inefficacy of all human efforts to convert the Heathen World, but in the state of things which exists in Christendom itself—in the very bosom of the Reformed Church—in the midst of this land of light and privileges. Are there not in our crowded cities and towns whole classes of people whose occupations and habits ENTIRELY cut them off from all the opportunities of spiritual improvement; who are wholly inaccessible to the Church's ministration and pastoral care; whom the utmost ingenuity of charity cannot devise the means of bringing within the scope of Christian teaching and spiritual influence? We cannot traverse the streets of this vast metropolis, without seeing enough to make our heart faint within us, and almost despair of our Church and country, were it not for an immovable persuasion, built upon the sure promises of God, that the prospect, now so dark and cheerless, will, in His own good time, be illumined with the brightness of hope, and at length shine more and more unto the perfect day.

The effects which were actually produced by the first preaching of the Gospel are a sufficient pledge and earnest of the complete and literal fulfilment of prophecy in God's fore-appointed time: and the actual results, which have followed the proclamation of Divine Truth, even in later ages, have been such as may assure us, that although the extraordinary gifts of the Spirit may no longer reside in the Church, the blessing of God will not be withholden, in due proportion and degree, from those who in faith and singleness of heart set themselves to the work of conversion.

Let no man object, that all OUR endeavours to effect any considerable enlargement of the Saviour's Kingdom will, and must, be vain and fruitless; that the fulness of time is not yet come; that God will do His own work when it shall seem Him good. The exact time of the restitution of all things is, we may well believe, purposely left uncertain, to our apprehension, in order that we may not grow careless, nor relax in our endeavours to establish our Master's kingdom.

Whatsoever is wrought by the direct and special agency of God Himself is certain in its operation and results. That which is left to the agency of man, availing himself, or not, of the ordinary gifts of the Spirit, is partial and fluctuating, although it may have a sure, yet unforeseen tendency to a fixed and predetermined end.

Almighty God, in His moral government, works by instruments and means: and we cannot know in what degree those instruments may be permitted to accelerate or retard the accomplishment of His designs. But it is easy to believe, that if the existing Church of Christ were what it once was, and what it ought ever to be, ONE in spirit and in action, as it is in essence; if all who profess one Lord, one faith, one baptism, were also united in one holy bond of love, the love of Christ and of their brethren; if all were to betake themselves, with one heart and one voice, in fervent, persevering supplication to the God and Father of all, for a more abundant outpouring of His Spirit, and for the speedy coming of His Kingdom; and if all would devote themselves to bring about the fulfilment of that prayer, according to their opportunities and means, casting into the Church's treasury, as their contribution to that work, a due proportion of their worldly substance; it is easy, I say, to believe, that such desire, such earnestness, could not fail of producing a wonderful effect, in extending the limits of Christ's Church, and in hastening the triumph of His Gospel. If such a glorious spectacle could be presented to the observation of an unbelieving world, the work of conversion would no doubt proceed far more rapidly than it now does; men would become Christians by tribes and nations; and the fulness of the Gentiles might be expected to come in. But, alas! how different from such a state of things is the actual condition of the Church! Can it excite surprise that the progress of the Gospel in the enlightening of the Heathen world is slow, and uncertain, and almost disheartening, in our days, when among those who have embraced it there is so much dissension; so much forgetfulness of their duties, as members of that one mystical body which has Christ for its head; so much jealousy of the interference of His spiritual kingdom with the policy of civil government; so much inconsistency between the preaching of the Christian Missionary and the lives of his own countrymen, who profess to believe the truths which he proclaims, but utterly neglect the duty of adorning and recommending them by a visible display of their efficacy; unconscious, or forgetful, of the solemn truth, that every Christian, dwelling in the midst of unbelievers, is charged with the office of a Missionary, and is bound to preach to them, either by his doctrine or his life?

We do not wonder that some zealous and fervid minds, struck by the fearful contrast between the actual state of the Christian World in this respect, and that which ought to characterize the Lord's people, should have been led to expect some special interposition of Divine power, some extraordinary operation of the Holy Spirit, to counteract the effect of man's apathy and sinfulness, and to hasten the coming of the Lord's kingdom. And it would be presumptuous to deny that this, after all, may be the method, to which God will resort for the completion of His designs of mercy. It may be, that if the ordinary influences of the Holy Spirit in the Church are unimproved and neglected by His servants, the Lord Himself shall come, and all the Saints with Him; and by fire and by sword will the Lord plead with all flesh[1]; He will make bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.[2]

But the possibility of such a consummation is no reason why we should slacken our exertions to carry forward the Church's work; the progress of which may depend, in what degree we know not, upon those exertions, put forth in undoubting reliance upon the Spirit who helpeth all our infirmities, and crowned by Him with such a measure of success as may seem good to Him: not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts.[3]

An entire trust in the power of that Holy Spirit to accomplish His own purposes by no means excludes the necessity, nor exempts us from the duty, of using all the instrumental means which He has provided in His Church. The neglect or misuse of them, if they are of Divine appointment, cannot be consistent with His will, even if it could by possibility hasten the display of His power in the conversion of the world. But let us never forget that they are ONLY instrumental: and that in the faithful use of them we shall be most likely to succeed, when we place our dependence, not upon them, nor upon any subordinate agency, but upon the blessed and only Potentate, whose we are, and in whose might alone we can triumph. It deserves our serious consideration, whether, in the fervour of a newly-kindled zeal for the cause of Christ, and under the excitement of new undertakings, having in view such unspeakably-interesting objects, we have not been insensibly led to think too much of the grandeur and efficacy of the means employed by us; and to magnify the instruments, instead of looking humbly and hopefully to the hand which alone can wield them with success. We think and speak so much of the machinery which we set to work—our apparatus of Societies and Missionaries, and Churches, and Schools—that we are apt to ascribe to them an efficacy not their own; and to forget how utterly worthless and inefficient they are, without the direct intervention of God Himself. Let us rest assured, that the more humbly we think of ourselves, and of our exertions and labours, even in the holiest cause, the more surely we may calculate upon success, and the less will be our disappointment, if success should be withholden from us.

I have already observed, that the possibility, which cannot be denied, of God's having reserved the complete establishment of His kingdom upon earth for a special and manifest interposition of His own power, is not a sufficient reason why we should relax our endeavours to hasten that blessed consummation. But of one thing we should be thoroughly persuaded—that if those endeavours are to be in any measure successful, it can only be by the direct and continued influences of His Holy Spirit. No power but HIS can take away the veil from the hearts of those benighted millions, who are blinded, not only by the delusions of a polytheism, which throws the charm of voluptuousness over the dark intricacies of superstition, but by the deceitful perplexities of a subtle and refined philosophy. I allude more particularly to that vast field of Missionary labour which is opened to us in our Eastern Empire. With some of the less civilized of the heathen tribes the Missionary's task may seem to be more promising. The simplicity of the Gospel may be more likely to find access to their untutored, and, in one sense, unperverted minds; but neither in THEIR case will any thing effectual be done in the way of conversion, without the unceasing aid of the Holy Spirit, nor, consequently, without a strong and lively faith in the certainty of that aid, leading to earnest prayer, that the Lord will accomplish the number of His elect, and hasten His kingdom.

But singleness of purpose, and earnestness in prayer, indispensable as they are to the success of every effort to extend the limits of the Redeemer's kingdom, must be accompanied by the faithful use of those instruments and means which He Himself has appointed for the conversion of the world. The sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God, must be taken from the Church's armoury, and wielded by those who are specially ordained to that work. If, as St. Paul declares, while speaking of his mission to preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, it is God's intention that not only unto THEM, but unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places, might be known[1] by the Church the manifold wisdom of God[2], it is clearly our duty to work in and by the Church, in our endeavour to communicate the blessedness of that knowledge to the Heathen: and as the Church's office of teaching is specially committed to the Ministry, we must employ that ministry in its completeness and integrity, as we believe it to have been constituted by the Apostles, for the perfecting of the saints—for the edifying of the body of Christ. It can hardly be questioned, that the slow and uncertain progress of evangelization in some parts of the world, the failure and abandonment of Missions, have been, in some measure, occasioned by the individual and desultory nature of those Missionary enterprises, which have had no connexion with what we believe to be a divinely-appointed order of Church government, and have wanted its authority, its restraints, its sympathies, and its supports. We are warranted in this supposition, not only by the consideration, that if there be an order of Church government having the stamp of Apostolical authority, its absence MUST be an impediment to the preaching of the Gospel to the Heathen; but by the increased measure of success in that work, which has followed the establishment of Bishoprics in the East and West Indies, and, we may now thankfully add, in that remote Colony of New Zealand, where this Society, having been the honoured instrument of displaying the light of the Gospel to those who were in darkness and the shadow of death, has now been mainly instrumental in placing that light upon the Church's golden candlestick, in its Apostolical completeness. We trust that a similar blessing will, ere long, be vouchsafed to that branch of the Church in Africa which has long been fostered by the Society's maternal care, under circumstances of great difficulty and trial. If there be any part of the Heathen World which in an especial degree deserves our sympathy, and to which we are pre-eminently bound to impart the privileges of the Gospel and the Church, it is surely that country, of whose children we were so long the guilty oppressors. What cause for thanksgiving to Him, who hath made of one blood all nations of men, is to be found in the thought, that He has not only blessed the labours of this Society, by bringing many of those neglected and persecuted people to the knowledge of a Saviour; but that, from among a race who were despised as incapable of intellectual exertion and acquirement, He has raised up men, well qualified, even in point of knowledge, to communicate to others the saving truths which they themselves have embraced, and to become preachers of the Gospel to their brethren according to the flesh.

I speak this the more feelingly, as having been myself privileged to admit to the holy order of priesthood, after due examination, more than one native of Africa; and to send them forth into the Lord's vineyard, strong in the faith of Christ, armed with the knowledge of His Word, and animated by all the sympathies of brotherhood toward the objects of their Missionary labours.

In these events, as also in the open exertion of our influence, as a nation, for the protection of Christians from the cruelty of unbelieving persecutors; in the gradual loosening of the great fabric of Mahomedan superstition; in the spirit of inquiry which has been awakened among God's ancient people; in the sudden growth of the Church in some districts of our Indian Empire; in the opening made for the Gospel by our recent alliance with the vast Empire of China; we discern enough to excite our hopes, and to encourage us to perseverance—streaks of light in the horizon of that darkness which still shrouds so large a portion of the world; harbingers, we humbly trust, of a coming, though perhaps distant day, when the glory of the Lord shall be seen upon the people; and the Gentiles shall come to his light, and kings to the brightness of his rising.[1] Let us hold the faith in the unity of the Spirit and in the bond of peace, and seek to impart it to others, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God, by methods of His own appointment, and we cannot altogether fail of success. If we labour as though all depended upon ourselves, and yet with a consciousness of our own insufficiency, with much self-mistrust, and with earnest prayer, leaving the issue to Him whose glory we desire to promote, we shall not be wholly disappointed; our labour will not be in vain in the Lord. We shall have hastened, though by degrees to us perhaps imperceptible, the coming of that time of light and blessedness, which may be delayed for a season by the negligence or perverseness of a sinful world, but must finally dawn upon it; when the borders of the Church's tabernacle shall be commensurate with the limits of the habitable globe; and the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it; and the kings of the earth shall bring their glory and honour into it;[2] and its gates shall be open continually: they shall not be shut day nor night: and men shall call its walls Salvation, and its gates Praise.[3]

REPORT.

REPORT,

&c. &c.

INTRODUCTION.

THE ascription of praise and thanksgiving to the Giver of all good, with which the Committee opened their Report last year, cannot but be renewed by them on this occasion.

At the Anniversary, two years ago, the Committee met their friends under financial embarrassments of a very formidable kind. At the last Anniversary the Society had been lifted out of its difficulties; but this year it has been advanced to a position eminently satisfactory in respect of its finances.

When the Committee further state, that this position has been obtained without any serious contraction of the Missions—except in the case of Jamaica—or any diminution in the number of its Missionaries, they are persuaded that their friends will join with them in adoring the goodness of the Lord.

But there are yet higher grounds on which the Committee would urge this tribute of praise: they are enabled to speak of the last year as one of much blessing upon their Missionary operations. There has not, indeed, been any large and striking instance of success; but there have been no adverse occurrences or peculiar trials; while there has been manifested a sure, though gradual growth in the Infant Churches which are cradled in South India, New Zealand, and West Africa—a growth of such a sound and scriptural character, as to afford abundant evidence that they are receiving vital influences from Him which is the Head, even Christ: from whom the whole body, fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in Love.

PATRONAGE.

During the year, the names of the following Noblemen have been added to the List of Vice-Presidents of the Society:—His Grace the Duke of Manchester; Lord Lurgan; The Viscount Sandon, M.P.

The following Clergymen have been appointed Honorary Governors for Life:—Ven. Archdeacon Lear; Hon and Rev. J. T. Pelham; Rev. Francis Close; Rev. Hugh Stowell.

DECEASE OF MISSIONARIES.

In the course of the past year it has pleased God to remove from their labours, by death, the following individuals:—Mrs. Thomson, wife of Mr. William Cooper Thomson, in October last, at Sierra Leone, after a protracted illness—Mr. William Cooper Thomson, on the 26th of November, at Darah, near Teembo, after four days' illness—the Rev. William Bowley, suddenly, on the 10th of October, at Chunar—the Rev. John J. Müller, on the 18th of March 1843, at Madras, a few days after his arrival at that place from Palamcottah, with the view of embarking for England, having for some time been suffering in his health—Mrs. Elouis, wife of the Rev. J. J. H. Elouis, on the 9th of October, at Madras, of cholera—the Rev. John Mason, on the 5th of January 1843, who was drowned in crossing the river Turakina, New Zealand—Mrs. Fairburn, wife of Mr. W. T. Fairburn, of Maraetai, New Zealand, on the 2d of September, after a long and painful affliction—the Rev. James Baumann, on the 26th of August, in London, of consumption.

RETURN HOME OF MISSIONARIES.

West-Africa Mission.—Mr. James Beal and Mrs. Beal left Sierra Leone on the 30th of April 1843 upon a visit home; and landed at Plymouth on the 1st of July. Mr. Henry Townsend and Mrs. Townsend left the same place on the 22d of October, on a visit home; and landed at Deal on the 6th of December.

Malta Mission.—The Rev. Samuel Gobat and Mrs. Gobat left Malta in May last; and, in consequence of ill health, proceeded to Bâsle.

Calcutta and North-India Mission.—The Rev. Timothy Sandys and Mrs. Sandys left Calcutta on the 15th of January, on account of ill health; and arrived in London on the 8th of May last.

The Rev. James Baumann, with Mrs. Baumann, left Launceston, Van Diemen's Land, on the 15th of January 1843; and arrived in London on the 10th of May last. Mr. Baumann had left Calcutta, in consequence of failure of health, and was on his way to the New-Zealand Mission; but on his arrival at Launceston his health had become so precarious that it was deemed advisable that he should return home.

British-Guiana Mission.—The Rev. James Pollitt, with Mrs. Pollitt, left Demerara on the 12th of October, in consequence of the failure of his health; and landed at Liverpool on the 22d of November.

North-West-America Mission.—Mr. John Roberts left Red River on the 11th of August last, upon his return home; and arrived in London on the 7th of November.

DEPARTURES AND ARRIVALS OF MISSIONARIES.

West-Africa Mission. — The Rev. J. F. Schön and Mrs. Schön, and the Misses Morris, Phillips, and Diettrich, arrived at Sierra Leone on the 31st of May last. The Rev. Frederick Bültmann, with Mrs. Bültmann, embarked at Gravesend for Sierra Leone, on his return thither, on the 18th of September; and arrived there on the 3d of November. The Rev. Christian Ehemann, and the Rev. Samuel Crowther, on his return to Sierra Leone, sailed from Gravesend for that place on the 23d of October; but were obliged to put back to the Isle of Wight on the 28th, in consequence of bad weather; sailed from that place on the 1st of November; and arrived at Sierra Leone on the 2d of December. The Rev. Nathaniel Denton, with Mrs. Denton, sailed from Gravesend for Sierra Leone, on his return thither, on the 15th of December; and arrived there on the 28th of January.

Egypt Mission.—The Rev. W. Krusé, with Mrs. Krusé, left Bâsle for Marseilles, on his return to Caïro, on the 17th of October; and arrived there on the 14th of November.

East-Africa Mission.—The Rev. Messrs. Isenberg, Krapf, and Mühleisen, finding that there was no probability of their re-entering Shoa from Tadjurra or Zeila, Messrs. Isenberg and Mühleisen resolved on proceeding to Massowah, to attempt an entrance into Abyssinia from thence; and Dr. Krapf on returning to Aden, with the view of attempting to reach the Galla Tribes of South-East Africa from the Indian Ocean.

Messrs. Isenberg and Mühleisen reached Massowah on the 4th of April, and started for Tigrè on the 18th of that month. They, however, were foiled in their attempts to re-enter Shoa, and were obliged to quit the country, and return to Massowah, where they arrived on the 22d of July. They left that place on the 29th of July, for Egypt, and reached Caïro on the 11th of October.

Dr. Krapf, with Mrs. Krapf, arrived at Aden on the 17th of August. They afterward embarked for Zanzibar; but, having suffered shipwreck, were obliged to return to Aden. They however re-embarked for the voyage a few days afterward.

Calcutta and North-India Mission.—The Rev. Edmund Johnson and Mrs. Johnson sailed from Portsmouth, on the 16th of July, for Calcutta; and arrived there on the 4th of November. The Rev. Paul Louis Sandberg and Mrs. Sandberg sailed from Portsmouth, on the 9th of January, also for Calcutta.

Madras and South-India Mission.—The Rev. Henry Baker, jun., Mrs. Baker, and Miss Blake, embarked at Gravesend, on the 27th of July, for Cottayam; landed at Cochin on the 17th of November, and reached Cottayam on the 20th of that month.

Bombay and Western-India Mission.—The Rev. Henry Mellon and Mrs. Mellon embarked at Gravesend, on the 27th of July, for Bombay; and arrived there on the 28th of November.

NUMBER OF MISSIONARY LABOURERS.

In the course of the past year, Nine Ordained Missionaries have been sent forth to the several Missions of the Society, including four who have returned to their Stations; three of whom had visited England with the view of obtaining Holy Orders. Seven of the Missionaries being married, the total number of individuals sent out is Sixteen.

The number of Labourers at present engaged in the service of the Society as Ordained Missionaries, Catechists, and other Teachers, is One hundred and Sixty-three, exclusive of One thousand and Eighteen Native Teachers, and the Wives of the Married Labourers.

ORDINATION OF STUDENTS.

Twenty-four of the Society's Candidates have been admitted to Holy Orders during the year—five to Priests' Orders, four both to Deacons' and Priests' Orders, and seven to Deacons' Orders, by the Bishop of London; one to Priests' Orders, by the Bishop of Ripon, on Letters Dimissory from the Bishop of London; three to Priests' Orders, by the Bishop of Madras; one to Priests' Orders, and two to Deacons' Orders, by the Bishop of New Zealand; and one both to Deacons' and Priests' Orders, by the Bishop of Gibraltar.

INSTITUTION.

The Committee are thankful to be permitted to record the following testimony to the favourable state of the Society's Institution, extracted from the Principal's Annual Report:—

On a careful review of the last twelve months, the Principal feels fully warranted in reporting favourably of the general state of the Institution. As regards the important heads of discipline, temper, and outward consistency, there is no room for hesitation in the testimony which he has to bear. In the great majority of instances, the diligence of the Students has been most exemplary, verging, in some, to excess; and their progress proportionably satisfactory.

The truth of the Gospel, it is confidently believed, has been maintained in uncorruptness and sincerity; and, so far as visible fruits are a test, the spirit of the Gospel has pervaded the body at large. At the same time, every member of the body would be ready to acknowledge the need there is for a deeper-toned piety, for more earnest, single-minded, self-denying zeal: in a word, for more of the mind which was in Christ Jesus.

The Committee have to regret a decrease in the number of Students in the Institution, and that at a time when the call of the Missions for able Missionaries to carry forward the work begun, and which is prosperously advancing under the Divine blessing, is loud and urgent. On this subject the Principal remarks—

If the Agents and numerous friends of the Society would make it their special concern to seek out recruits, to give to such as were eligible the information requisite to put them in immediate communication with the Society, and to concert means for securing, in promising cases, a measure of preliminary training for some who were less advanced, the want adverted to might soon be remedied, and this, the most important of all supplies, provided.

The Principal concludes his Report by reiterating his earnest request that the Members of the Society will remember the Institution in their daily intercessions. He writes—

Indeed, he would gladly persuade himself, that when the friends of this great cause call to remembrance the peculiar dangers of the present day, and the increasing necessity there is that men who are to occupy posts of considerable delicacy and difficulty, of much temptation and danger, should be wise as serpents, harmless as doves, they will be instant in prayer that all who are trained as Evangelists in this Seminary may approve themselves men of God, throughly furnished unto all good works.

The Committee have to deplore the loss, during the year, of the Rev. Augustus T. Lehmann. He was received into connexion with the Society from Berlin, had passed through the Islington Institution, and been admitted to Deacons' Orders by the Bishop of London. He was subsequently attacked by consumption, and died at Bâsle, whither he had gone for the benefit of his health, on the 17th of February 1844. The Society were thus deprived of the services of one who had indicated eminent qualifications for Missionary usefulness.

ASSOCIATIONS.

In the course of the year, Fifty-four new General Associations have been formed, and Eighteen additional Juvenile ones.

The Committee gratefully renew the expression of their thanks to those Clerical and Lay friends who have kindly acted as Deputations to Associations in the past year. In proportion as it pleases God to enlarge the Home Operations of the Society, in the same proportion is this assistance needed, in order adequately to draw forth the Contributions of the friends of Missions in our Church. This is so important an element in the organization of the Society, that the Committee earnestly entreat the continuance of this important aid. They would, especially, again press on the attention of their Clerical friends the great importance of rendering this assistance to the Society systematically, by forming a District, where practicable, in their own locality—of larger or smaller extent, as their other engagements may permit—and of charging themselves with the interests of the Society, with regard to Meetings and Sermons, within the Districts thus formed.

MISSIONS.

WEST-AFRICA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1804.

Mission Establishment:

15 European Missionaries.
1 Country-born Missionary.
1 Native Missionary.
5 European Catechists.
1 European Female Teacher.
35 Native Teachers of all classes.
4 Native Schoolmistresses.

General View.

THE Committee thankfully report that the Divine blessing continues largely to rest on this earliest scene of the Society's labours. Though still suffering affliction, as it has been wont, the sphere of its operations is enlarged, and those fruits of Missionary labour which are to the glory of God, and which cheer and animate the Missionary in his painful course, continue to abound.

SIERRA LEONE.

State of the Christian Institution.

The Christian Institution, the primary object of which is to train hopeful Native Youths for Religious Teachers, continues steadily, though slowly, to advance. The number of Students, on the 31st of December last, was 26. Four Youths have been appointed from it, during the year, to different departments of labour in the Mission. Reporting on the Institution at Midsummer last, the Rev. E. Jones remarks—"The state of the Christian Institution, in regard to study and general conduct, continues satisfactory." With reference to the Half-yearly Examination of the Institution, on the 18th of April, he says—"I think that the improvement of the Students was more apparent than on any former occasion."

Mr. Jones having been called upon to take a journey into the interior, the Rev. S. Crowther was placed in charge of the Institution during his absence.

Enlarged Plans for the Educational Training of Natives.

The attention of the Committee has been strongly drawn to the necessity of rendering the educational department of the Mission increasingly efficient. With this view they have determined on the establishment, at Sierra Leone, of a Grammar School, as an intermediate step between the Village Schools and the Christian Institution. In this School it is intended to give a sound religious and general education to Boys and Youths who have received some previous training in the lower Schools. Those who, after being trained in the Grammar School, give proof of suitable dispositions and qualifications, will be transferred to the Christian Institution, to receive there such farther training as may fit them for Native Teachers. Others, educated in the Grammar School, will, it may be hoped, pass into different stations of life, fitted, by the instructions which they shall have received, to work a salutary influence in the social circles with which they may become connected.

A Committee formed in London, designated "The African Native-Agency Committee," and which proposes to reach its objects through the instrumentality of existing Societies, have placed at the disposal of the Committee the sum of 150*l.* per annum for three years, for the education of four Native Youths, either at the Grammar School or the Christian Institution. These Youths are to be selected by the Church Missionary Committee, and will be subjected to precisely the same training as those more immediately connected with the Society.

Buildings for the Christian Institution and Grammar School.

The opening of a Special Fund for the erection of buildings for the Christian Institution, Fourah Bay—the old ones being in a very dilapidated and dangerous state—was referred to in the last Report. The erection of these buildings, including residences for the Masters, and those which will be requisite for the Grammar School, will probably occasion an outlay of from 5000*l.* to 6000*l.* The amount already contributed to the Special Fund is little more than 1500*l.* The Committee therefore earnestly recommend this Fund to the kind consideration of their friends.

As the immediate completion of the above-mentioned buildings is regarded by the Committee as essential to the carrying out of their educational measures for preparing Native Teachers, they have availed themselves of the present favourable financial position of the Society to make an advance, on loan, of 2000*l.* out of the surplus of the last year's income, for the erection of the School and Institution buildings.

Native Agency.

The Members of the Society are fully alive to the necessity, under God, of a well-prepared Native Agency for the extensive propagation of the Gospel in Western Africa. Toward this point the operations of the Society in Sierra Leone have long been steadily directed; and never was the prospect of reaching it so encouraging as at present. Not only is the number of Native Teachers employed in the Mission increased, but their qualifications for usefulness are increased also. Some are found qualified to go forth to distant Stations in the interior, with the entire confidence of the Missionaries in their prudence and steadiness, as well as in their piety and Christian devotedness. But there is one circumstance in the proceedings of the last year which, beyond all others, marks the hopeful progress of the Mission in this respect. The name of Samuel Crowther has long been familiar to the Members of the Society. Torn from his country and kindred in early life, and consigned to the hold of a Portuguese Slaver, he was providentially rescued by a British Cruiser, and carried into Sierra Leone. Here he received Christian training, first in a Village School, and afterward in the Fourah-Bay Institution. His progress was satisfactory—his course consistent. Evidencing qualifications for the Ministry, and devotedness to its work, he was called to London by the Committee, and his education completed in the Islington Institution. He was then presented to the Bishop of London as a Candidate for admission to Holy Orders. By the Bishop he was received and treated with marked kindness and cordiality, and admitted, by his Lordship, to Deacons' Orders on the 11th of June last, and to Priests' Orders on the 1st of October. He reached Sierra Leone on the 2d of December. His Station, for the present, is Freetown; but with the intention of his being hereafter employed as a Missionary in the Yoruba Country, of which he is a Native. He has been instructed by the Committee to establish a Service on the Lord's Day in Freetown, in his native tongue, for the special advantage of those Liberated Africans to whom that language is vernacular. This he was preparing to do. "My countrymen," he says, "are very anxiously waiting for this novel introduction."

On the 3d of December Mr. Crowther preached, in English, his first Sermon in Africa, in the Mission Church, Freetown, from the words, Lord, it is done as Thou hast commanded, and yet there is room. He remarks, in his Journal—

The novelty of seeing a Native Clergyman performing Divine Service excited a very great interest among all who were present. But the question, Who maketh thee to differ? filled me with shame and confusion of face.

He adds—

After Service I assisted the Rev. E. Jones to administer the Lord's Supper. It was a very solemn season. The Lord was with us.

A Mahomedan Headman in Sierra Leone, a Yoruban, sought an interview with his countryman, Mr. Crowther, of which Mr. C. writes, Dec. 17, 1843—

I told him, and his people who were present, in the Yoruba language, of the blessings of Christianity on the people of England; referred them to the proceedings of the friends of Africa in the late Niger Expedition; that it was the Religion of Christ which taught them to love all men, and do what they can to do them good; and told them the importance of surrendering to the Religion of the White Man's Bible, because it leads the sure way to happiness.

He adds—

I never raised any objections against, nor attacked, their faith; but endeavoured to show them the great blessings which Christianity bestows on mankind wherever it is embraced. To my great surprise, they gloried in having their countryman to be the first Clergyman of the Church of England among the Liberated Africans in the Colony of Sierra Leone. They promised to pay me a visit as soon as I should have removed to Freetown.

Native Languages.

The study of the most considerable languages of Western Africa is now systematically prosecuted by different Members of the Mission. The Rev. Messrs. Schlenker and Schmid, stationed at Port Lokkoh, are engaged in the Timmanee. The Rev. Messrs. Schön and Crowther are diligently employed in perfecting their knowledge—the one of the Haussa, and the other of the Yoruba, and in making translations into them respectively. To the Rev. J. U. Graf has been assigned the study of the Susoo, extensively spoken in the countries north-east of Sierra Leone.

Administration of Baptism.

The communications from the Missionaries contain interesting details respecting the administration of Baptism to adult Africans. The Rev. C. A. Gollmer writes, on the 19th of February 1843—

This being the day appointed for the admission of several adults into the Church of Christ by holy Baptism, our Church at Bathurst exhibited no common, but a peculiarly pleasing appearance this morning. An unusual number assembled in the House of the Lord. The Candidates for Baptism were fifteen—four men and eleven women; of which number there were three men with their wives: they were seated in front of the congregation, all neatly dressed in white, and very clean. Although this delightful appearance cheered my heart not a little, I was still more gratified by the assurance of their sincerity and humble reliance on Christ our Lord, which I had had many an opportunity of ascertaining while preparing them for this sacred rite, and examining them individually.

The Rev. J. W. Weeks, on the 12th of February, records in his Journal—

This morning, after the Second Lesson, I baptized ten men and eighteen women. All came to church dressed in white; and were arranged around the communion-rail, their witnesses being behind them. It was truly an interesting occasion. Most of these persons have been four or five years under regular weekly instruction; and for some time past I have met them twice a-week. Scarcely ever was one absent, except through sickness. It may be interesting to know that the baptized persons are of eight different tribes. I humbly hope that they are the Children of God, and that they will prove their faith to be sincere by their holy and godly lives. These are fruits of our Missionary labours, which God graciously vouchsafes to us, the gathering-in of which occasions real and heartfelt joy.

Hopeful Death of a Native Assistant.

The Rev. E. Jones thus relates, in his Report for the Quarter ending March 25, 1843, the circumstances connected with the death of William David, an Assistant Schoolmaster, who was removed by death soon after he had left the Institution:—

Early in January last, William David, the Assistant, was appointed Schoolmaster at Gloucester. His health had long been declining; and it was hoped, as he had derived some benefit from a short stay at Gloucester, that his removal to that Station would prove favourable to him. His loss to the Institution was, as all know, great indeed. Apart from his qualifications as an Instructor, his Christian deportment was so exemplary, and he exhibited so much of the mind of Christ in his daily walk, as to have exerted a most salutary influence upon all around. Nevertheless, it seemed to be the will of God that he should leave us; and we parted from him sorrowing, yet little thinking that we were soon to see his face no more.

After stating that on the 25th of February W. David broke a blood-vessel, Mr. Jones thus proceeds with his narrative—

It was now that God was glorified in the dying hours of His faithful servant. It was no unwelcome message to him to be told that his days were numbered: he was prepared for the issue, and had taken refuge in Him who had deprived death of its sting. About ten days before his death he told me that there was a passage of St. Paul which troubled his mind: "Sir, I have read in Hebrews, that whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom He receiveth. I have never been scourged: I have never had any trouble: I have been very comfortable. Do you think, Sir, I can be a true child of God?" I endeavoured to explain the passage to him; and told him, also, that he should look at his long-continued illness as a chastening from the hand of his Heavenly Father. This seemed to afford him much comfort, and I heard no more of doubts disturbing his few remaining days. He was much in prayer, and did not like many visitors, as it hindered him from this delightful privilege.

He died on the 10th of March. Mr. Jones thus concludes his narration—

On the morning of the 11th I followed his remains to the grave. I had loved him as a brother. I had formed great hopes of his future usefulness. I deeply felt his loss; and, as I turned away in sadness from the scene, I thought on the Prophet's words, and was comforted: The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come. He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness.

Hopeful Death of a Little Girl.

Mr. Weeks, in his Journal, Jan. 23, 1843, thus details, from a Native, the circumstances connected with the death of a little Girl—

"Last night, after you gave me the Letter for the Doctor at Kissey, I went to inform the girl I had got men and a hammock ready to take her to the hospital very early in the morning, before the sun was strong. The girl told me, 'I shall be gone before the morning. I do not want the men. I am going home to Jesus. I have been a great sinner; but I hope Jesus Christ will forgive me all. He said, Suffer little children to come unto me. I want to go to Him.' She then requested me to get a hymn-book, and to read two verses from the hymn, 'Not all the blood of beasts,' &c.; and the hymn, ''Tis religion that can give' &c." Here the man produced the hymn-book, with the leaves turned down to mark the two hymns; and said, "We first thought whether the girl's head was crazy; but when she spoke so confidently of dying that night, and so much about heaven, we sat up all night; and at two o'clock she died."

Mr. Weeks remarks—

Thus died a little African Girl, only nine years of age.

Female Education.

This important branch of Missionary labour is diligently prosecuted by the wives of the Missionaries, and by the Ladies who went out with Mr. and Mrs. Schön last year—

Miss Morris and Miss Phillips. Miss Morris was placed in Mr. Weeks' family, and Miss Phillips in that of Mr. Schön. Miss Phillips was married to the Rev. C. A. Gollmer on the 30th of November.

Testimony to the beneficial Results of Missionary Labours in Sierra Leone.

The following striking testimony to the beneficial results of the labours of the Society's Missionaries in Sierra Leone is extracted from Papers lately laid before the House of Commons.* It is contained in a Letter from the Rev. J. F. Sessing to Lord Elgin, Governor of Jamaica. Mr. Sessing was formerly connected with the Society, first in Sierra Leone, and afterward in Jamaica; and is now an Island Curate in that Island, at the Society's late Station at Chichester. Mr. Sessing's Letter relates to some Liberated Africans, who had gone thither from Sierra Leone. Having spoken of their conduct, on the Property where they are employed, as "exemplary," Mr. Sessing asks, "What had made these people to differ from others?" He replies—

I declare it with gratitude and joy, it is a religious principle implanted deeply in their hearts, and diligently inculcated by the long and indefatigable labours of the Missionaries of the Church Missionary Society in that Colony.

Mr. Sessing proceeds—

Many of them are my spiritual children, having been instructed in the Schools under my charge when I was labouring in that Colony as a Missionary of the same Society. Their finding me here very naturally fixed their abode in my neighbourhood. They have joined my Congregation, love me as their spiritual father, and are most regular in their attendance on all the Means of Grace. They can read and write, both males and females. They work nine hours a-day, and are most conscientious in the discharge of their duties. Nor do they observe Friday and Saturday as our Negroes do; but in order to find time for the cultivation of their own grounds, they commence their labour at 5 A.M., and, drawing off at 3 P.M., they proceed to their own grounds. Early as they go to work, they never leave home without first, collectively, singing a hymn, and offering up a prayer for protection and guidance during the day; and never retire in the evening without doing the same, according to the example given them by their Missionaries. In a word, My Lord, their praise is in all the parish.

Trials of the Missionaries.

While, however, there has been so much to gladden the hearts of the Missionaries in Sierra Leone, and to cheer them in their arduous labours, there have been instances of painful misconduct in some of the Native Teachers, which have caused them deep affliction. In reference to these occurrences, the Missionaries write, Sept. 7, 1843—

* Correspondence relative to Emigration of Labourers to the West Indies and the Mauritius, from the West Coast of Africa, the East Indies, and China. Session 1844.

> While you, dear Sirs, mourn over these painful circumstances, we trust that you will not forget our affliction, nor cease to pray for us that our faith may not fail under these repeated trials.

TIMMANEE MISSION.

The Timmanee Mission has continued under the charge of the Rev. Messrs. C. F. Schlenker and D. H. Schmid, together with two Native Schoolmasters. The progress of the Mission has been impeded by various difficulties which it has encountered in the course of the last year. The absence of Mr. Thomson from the Mission for the entire period, and of Mr. Schlenker at Sierra Leone for some time, on account of Mrs. Schlenker's health, has delayed the progress of the Missionaries in their work. They have, however, completed the translation of the Gospel of St. Luke into the Timmanee Language, and are carrying forward their Timmanee Dictionary.

MISSION OF MR. W. C. THOMSON TO TEEMBO, AND HIS DEATH.

The Mission of Mr. Thomson to Teembo was noticed in the last Report. This Mission was undertaken at the instance of the Merchants of Sierra Leone, for the purpose of opening a commercial intercourse with the interior. The expense of the Mission was borne partly by the Merchants and partly by the Colonial Government. Mr. Thomson, whose services were engaged for the undertaking, with the concurrence of the Local Committee, while directing his attention to the attainment of the object specially confided to him, was instructed by the Missionaries to collect information bearing on the extension of the Society's operations into that part of Africa which he was about to visit. Mr. Thomson's qualifications for the business entrusted to him were of a high order. His sojourn in Sierra Leone had made him well acquainted with the African character; and, as stated in former Reports, he had made considerable proficiency in the Timmanee Language: he was, moreover, possessed of considerable attainments and energy of mind. Above all, he was himself a partaker of the grace of the Gospel, and zealously devoted to the extension of its influence in Africa. After encountering many difficulties, privations, and perils, he succeeded in reaching Teembo, the residence of the Imaum or Head of the Foulahs, about 400 miles north-east from Sierra Leone. On his journey, Mr. Thomson succeeded in forming Treaties with the Chiefs through whose districts he passed, intended to secure a permanent commercial intercourse between Sierra Leone and those parts of Africa. Mr. Thomson met with a favourable reception from Abubeker, the then Imaum. His further progress, however, was arrested by dissensions among the Foulah Chiefs and the disturbed state of the country. These dissensions terminated in the deposition of Abubeker, and the substitution of a Chief named Omar, as Imaum of Foutah. Though Omar treated Mr. Thomson with respect, and promised his services to forward Mr. Thomson's views, both at Teembo and in the interior, new difficulties arose to prevent his moving forward. Throughout the harassing trials to which Mr. Thomson was thus subjected, his faith, patience, fortitude, and perseverance were conspicuously displayed. His health at length yielded to the combined effects of the climate, and the vexation arising out of the delay and difficulties which he encountered; and he terminated his earthly course at Darah, near Teembo, on the 26th of November last. Deeply afflicting as this event is, the Committee encourage the hope, that permanent advantage may be gained to Africa by Mr. Thomson's journey, by opening the Foulah Country to commerce and the Gospel.

Visit of the Shereef Hamidi Falah to Sierra Leone.

At Teembo Mr. Thomson became acquainted with the Shereef Hamidi Falah, a Moorish Merchant of high rank and extensive influence in the countries on the Niger. In consequence of his intercourse with Mr. Thomson he visited Sierra Leone in May last, as a sort of pioneer for the Moorish Merchants in the interior. During his stay he visited the Fourah-Bay Institution, to receive an Arabic Bible which had been promised him by Mr. Thomson. The circumstances connected with his visit, which took place on the 15th of May, are thus related by Mr. Jones, in his Journal:—

He was dressed in Moorish costume, having the lower part of his face concealed by his dress. On entering the school-room, an exclamation of surprise burst from him: and when I related the objects contemplated in congregating so many Youths together, he expressed his gratification that such pains were taken to instruct those who were to be the teachers of others.

After several hymns had been sung by the Students, he addressed them in a very forcible manner upon the pleasures of serving God, and exhorted them to continue in His service. He became so affected, that at times he could not bring out a word, but would silently look up to Heaven. He was much pleased with his present of a Bible; and, upon leaving us, desired every blessing upon the Youths and myself. This intelligent stranger, who has come here solely to observe our ways, will carry back with him the remembrance of all he has seen and heard. He is entirely free from that bigotry which one expects to see in a Mahomedan; and repeatedly assured me that I might live in his country with perfect safety, and that nothing would please him more than to see Missionaries there. Mr. Thomson seems to have impressed him with the most favourable views of the Missionary character.

MISSION OF MR. H. TOWNSEND TO BADAGRY.

In the last Report, also, the Mission of Mr. Henry Townsend to Badagry, in the Bight of Benin, was mentioned. His object was, to acquire information preparatory to supplying religious instruction for the large numbers of Liberated Africans who are returning from Sierra Leone to the Yoruba Country, whence they were carried into slavery. The Committee have received Mr. Townsend's Report of his journey. The prospect which it opens of the extension of Missionary operations to that country is very encouraging. This movement of the Yorubans toward their native land still continues, and has already led to the establishment of a commercial intercourse between Sierra Leone and Badagry, the point of entrance to the Yoruba Country from the sea.

Account of his Visit to Abbeokuta.

Mr. Townsend embarked at Freetown on the 14th of November 1842, and landed at Badagry on the 19th of December. Here he met with a friendly reception from the Chiefs on the coast. He started for Abbeokuta on the 29th of December, and reached that place on the 4th of January 1843. This is a large town, computed to contain 30,000 inhabitants: it lies about 100 miles inland, north or a little north-east of Badagry. From Sodeke, the Chief, Mr. Townsend received a friendly reception. In an interview with him on the 5th of January, he stated that it was his earnest desire that many White Men should come and dwell with him. On the 7th of January Sodeke sent for Mr. Townsend, to request him to write a Letter to the Governor of Sierra Leone. The tenour of this Letter was to express Sodeke's thankfulness to the British Government for what it had done for his people, and his own convictions that they were seeking the happiness and welfare of the African Race: also, that he had determined to suppress all slave trade in his own country and in the neighbouring parts, so far as his influence extends: further, his desire for the return of his people, and that White Men, both Missionaries and Merchants, might settle in his country. In reply to Mr. Townsend's question, whether he would give Missionaries children to teach, his reply was, "Yes, more than you would be able to manage." To another question, whether he would receive a Native as a Teacher, the reply was, "Yes, and I would help him to build his house."

Mr. Townsend found many Liberated Africans, from Sierra Leone, at Abbeokuta. He relates several affecting instances of recognition of their relations by Liberated Africans. On the 7th of January, he writes—

I was much gratified this morning by one of my fellow-passengers bringing to me a female, saying, with great joy, " I done find my wife!" He has been in Sierra Leone only two years.

A. Wilhelm has discovered many near relatives. He has been from his country twenty years: he was but a youth when he left.

John M'Cormack, who was sent with me by the Hastings People, and at their expense, left his country after he had become a father. He also has found a large number of relations. The joy felt and expressed at meeting them again may be imagined. He has come to me several times, with deep emotion, to tell me of some relative whom he had seen. He discovered his sister at the market through which we passed on our way hither. He went to purchase something of her; and fancying he knew her, he ventured to call her by his sister's name. She immediately replied; an explanation ensued; and she proved to be his sister.

Mr. Townsend adds—

John M'Cormack is, I believe, a sincere Christian: he has, he tells me, told his relatives here about God and the Christian Religion; and they have promised him that they will become Christians too, if Missionaries will come and teach them.

Mr. Townsend's description of the character and conduct of Sodeke is very interesting—

Sodeke has ever shown the greatest attention to the Sierra-Leone People, and has given them greater access to his person than any others of the same rank. The liberality of his disposition is shown, in a very prominent manner, by the fact, that he requires no greater act of homage from them than they were accustomed to pay to their superiors in Sierra Leone. It is the custom of the Akus, when they come into the presence of their Chief, to prostrate themselves before him—none omit this act of homage; but Sodeke, hearing that White People never rendered so great an act of homage to any but God, forbade them to do so to himself. I have often heard of Sodeke in Sierra Leone, and was prepared to see in him a Chief of superior character and ability; and my intercourse with him during the past week has increased this good impression.

Mr. Townsend remarks—

These things indicate, on his part, a liberal mind; and, on the part of Providence, an opening for the spread of the Gospel.

Mr. Townsend then asks—

Can it be, that this Chief, whose country is open and easy of access, shall express his desire for the instruction of his children and people, and for the abolition of slavery, and British Christians not respond to his desire, after the evidence they have given of their anxiety for the welfare of Africa, by sparing no expense, and by fearing no danger, in order to accomplish their benevolent purposes? I feel it must not be doubted, that, as soon as the desires of this Chief shall be known, his wishes will be readily fulfilled.

Mr. Townsend describes the country as salubrious and fruitful. The Niger is computed to be distant from Abbeokuta nine days' journey northward; and the country appears to be open for the advance of Missionaries to Katunga and Rabbah.

Movement of the Liberated Africans toward their own Country.

The desire of the Yorubans to return to their own country is noticed above. This desire, as might be expected, was greatly increased on the return of Mr. Townsend from Abbeokuta, by the favourable accounts which he brought of the kind treatment which the Liberated Africans, who had returned to the Yoruba Country, experienced at the hands of Sodeke, the King, and the hopeful prospect which his visit presented of a commencement of Missionary operations in that part of Africa.

The Rev. J. U. Graf writes, April 18, 1843—

In consequence of the favourable news from the Yoruba Country, there are hundreds making preparations for leaving the Colony at the end of this year.

On the 4th of November the inhabitants of Hastings addressed a Letter to Mr. Graf, in which they state—

A number of us are ready to go to the land of our birth within a few weeks, if it please God. It has long been in our minds to supplicate the favour of our Society for a person whom they might think suitable to go along with us as our teacher and guide; but often we are discouraged when we think of the great disappointments and difficulties which the Society has met with often, especially this year.

They add—

Shall we despair and be frightened because of the present difficulty and obstacles in our ways, and not ask our Society for a person, if not two, to go with us? Past favours, and the good intentions of the Society, teach us that the Society is at all times ready to do the best for us. Please to present our wants before the Society, if this our desire be agreeable to your mind, that a person from here may go with us to our country, to guide us and those who have gone before us.

This appeal was responded to by the appointment of Andrew Wilhelm, a Native Teacher of established character, to accompany the Missionary party.

On the 13th of November Mr. Graf writes—

We had this day a farewell Meeting previous to our people leaving for their country, at which I gave them some parting advice, and commended them to the prayers of those who remained here. William Marsh, the Assistant Native Teacher, gave them a suitable short address respecting their duty toward their children when in their heathen land. Andrew Wilhelm, the Visitor, and William Goodwill, hitherto one of the pillars of my Church, then addressed the Meeting in the name and on the behalf of those who were leaving them. Their addresses were plain, but affecting. At the close of the Meeting I proposed a Collection for our parting friends, to enable them at once to form, on their arrival, a "Church-Relief Company," which would be another means of preventing them from being too much scattered among, and mixed with, their heathen country-people.

The party sailed for Badagry on the 30th of November, in the WILBERFORCE. The Missionaries remark, Dec. 11, 1843—

In these passing events we would acknowledge the providence of God in keeping these persons long enough in the Colony to obtain a knowledge of the English Language, to become acquainted with the nature of the Christian Religion, and in some cases, we doubt not, to feel its power, until we are, in a measure, prepared with Native and European agency to meet the exigency.

Of one of the emigrants from Hastings Mr. Graf writes, November 17, 1843—

He had been, from my first visit to Hastings in 1837, not only a steady, upright, and consistent member of our Church, but had proved to me, in Church matters, a most welcome help. On taking leave, he took out of a handkerchief a handful of pence and halfpence, amounting to 4*s*., as a benefaction for our next Missionary Meeting; at which I was the more surprised, as he has a large family, and had been obliged to spend his little all in passage-money and provisions for himself, wife, and children.

Of the Native Teacher, Andrew Wilhelm, Mr. Graf thus speaks, Nov. 27, 1843—

Devoted to God with his whole heart; active and zealous in the promotion of His glory; fearless and undaunted by the persecutions of his heathen country-people; he was a man of great usefulness, although of limited natural abilities. A few days before he left he wished to testify, in some way or other, his gratitude to the Church Missionary Society, not only for the benefits which he had derived from them while in the Colony, but also for their promise to send Missionaries to his native land. Upon consulting with his wife, they both agreed, that instead of selling their house, as was intended, they would give it to the Society, with the lot of land on which it stands. The house is not of much value, though it is rather superior to the generality of native houses; but the sacrifice, which, for a Native, is great, shows the sincerity of his heart.

The Nufi People also are earnestly looking toward their fatherland. The prospect of access to it is encouraging on the line of Badagry, Abbeokuta, and Katunga, to Rabbah. The Nufi Country, of which Rabbah is the capital, lies on the left bank of the Niger, nearly due north from Badagry.

On the 19th of September last, the Nufi People thus addressed the Missionary Committee in Sierra Leone—

It afforded us no small cause for thankfulness to see the return from the Niger Expedition of the Rev. J. F. Schön and Brother

Samuel Crowther, whose lives God has graciously spared. We of the Nufi People, whom God, by His providence and goodness, has brought to this Colony, where the Gospel of rich grace is heard, which we hope will be a saving of our immortal souls, having read the Journals of the Rev. J. F. Schön and our Brother Samuel Crowther, it gives us a great interest to see, from the above-mentioned Journal by the Rev. J. F. Schön, that "if it were in the power of the Committee immediately to send Missionaries to Rabbah." This town we consider to be the capital of our country. We are moved again by the same Journal, which says, "There is one of the Nufi Nation, Joseph Bartholomew, employed by our Society as Schoolmaster at Sierra Leone: might not he become a Missionary to his own country-people?" This communication and anticipation we trust, by God's assistance, will, sooner or later, be accomplished. In consequence, we of the Nufi Nation have made a subscription of a small sum of money of 10*l.*, as a benefaction to the Church Missionary Society, accompanied with our earnest request, that the Church Missionary Society will, when able to do so, send a Missionary to Rabbah, to instruct our country-people in the Gospel of peace. So we hope, by the blessing of God, that in future an entrance may be opened for us into our own country. Please that the sum offered is so little, the Committee will take into consideration that the number of the Nufi Nation is very small in this Colony. The Bible tells us that the poor widow's two mites, which make a farthing, was not forgotten by our Lord Jesus Chris[illegible]

We humbly, therefore, conclude, with our imperfect prayer before the throne of God, with our ardent wish for the success of your labours.

Should it please God to prosper the intended Mission at Abbeokuta, it promises to open the way for the safe return of the Nufi People to their own country, and the introduction of the Gospel into Central Africa.

Intended Mission to Abbeokuta.

Under the circumstances detailed by Mr. Townsend, the Committee decided on occupying Abbeokuta as a Missionary Station. Preparatory to doing so, Mr. Townsend was called home for the purpose of being presented to the Bishop of London, as a Candidate for admission to Holy Orders. On his case and future sphere of labour being explained to the Bishop, his Lordship at once admitted him as a Candidate. Mr. Crowther, himself a Yoruban, has also been appointed to Abbeokuta. He only remains in Sierra Leone until the return of Mr. Townsend, when he will accompany him to that place. Contemporaneously with these proceedings of the Parent Committee, the Local Committee have, as stated above, sent a steady Native Teacher to Abbeokuta, and have provisionally set apart the Rev. C. A. Gollmer for the same destination. They also recommend that four additional Native Teachers should accompany the Missionaries.

The Committee regard this hiving-off of the Liberated Africans from Sierra Leone to the countries whence they have been carried away captive as full of promise for Africa. They regard it, also, as proving the important bearing of the Colony of Sierra Leone on the evangelization and civilization of that desolated and deeply-injured country. The formation, in the interior of Africa, of communities of Natives from Sierra Leone—already benefitted more or less by Christian instruction and education—sensible of the advantages which they have thus acquired—carried forward in the paths of truth and righteousness by competent Native Teachers, themselves superintended and directed by a European Missionary—presents a prospect of good to Africa of deep interest and animating anticipation. May the blessing of the Lord be vouchsafed! The Committee earnestly recommend this important movement to the sympathy and prayers of their Christian friends.

General View of the Mission.

The following general views relative to the state of the West-Africa Mission are extracted from the Report of the Sierra-Leone Auxiliary Church Missionary Society for the year 1842—

The cause of education, among both adults and children, is steadily advancing, and more valued each succeeding year.

By God's blessing on the means used, the moral aspect of this Colony is being completely changed.

Your Committee have the pleasure of stating that this Auxiliary has forwarded to the Parent Committee, during the past year, the sum of 141*l.* 5*s.* 2*d.*, nearly double the amount of what was contributed the previous year; of which sum more than 70*l.* was contributed by Africans.

Within the last four years there have been erected four stone Churches; and the fifth, at Waterloo, is now in the course of erection, and far advanced toward completion, and which will accommodate not fewer than 900 or 1000.

The progress of Missionary labours in all the older Stations is steady, and affords abundant encouragement to your Committee to go forward in sowing the seed of eternal life.

In the Colony there are now upward of seventy individuals, European and Native, engaged in imparting instruction, and more than 6000 persons who statedly attend Divine Worship; besides 5287 children and adults attending our Sunday and Day Schools.

Dispersed throughout the Colony are twelve principal Stations, 1300 Communicants of our Church, and as many Candidates for the Sacrament of Baptism. This large number of persons are brought daily under the hallowing influence of Divine Truth; are gradually casting off the trammels of superstition; and are being raised from the state of barbarism in which they are found when landed from the slave-ships, to moral and social habits, as the prosperous and peaceable state of our villages most indisputably show. The susceptibility of the Africans for receiving instruction, and the power of the Gospel both to civilize and Christianize a people, may here be seen by the most casual observer of our villages, Schools, and Congregations.

Not only, however, is the outward condition of our people improved, but they have been also spiritually blessed by having received the Gospel: they are enabled to put away their former lusts, and to live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world; are soothed under affliction; while others have been supported and cheered in the hour of death. Many instances have been brought under the notice of your Committee of joyful triumph over the last enemy, death, in those who have departed in the faith of Christ. One, on her dying bed, said—and the sentiment is that of many in this Colony—"I thank God, and the Church Missionary Society, that ever Missionary came to teach me how I might be saved from my sins!" And when near her end, she said to those around her, "You no must cry for me: I am going to Jesus: I am going to a happy place."*

Interest taken by the Enfranchised Population of the West Indies in the Evangelization of Africa.

The Committee have received very gratifying testimonies of the interest taken by the Liberated Africans in the West Indies in the propagation of Christianity in West Africa. In a Letter dated April 6, 1843, the Venerable Archdeacon Holberton, Antigua, advised the Committee of a Contribution of 10*l.*, from Members of his Congregation toward the Fourah-Bay Institution Buildings' Fund. On the 23d of October, a further Contribution of 10*l.* from his people was advised by the Archdeacon; when he remarked that the interest taken by them in the prosperity of the Fourah-Bay Institution was great. He continues—

I have long been of opinion—and the reading of Mr. Schön's Journal and remarks has now quite confirmed me in it—that any Coloured or Black Agency from this side of the Atlantic will prove a failure, as well as great expense; but that a Native AFRICAN Agency, consisting of those who know the different languages, are inured to the climate, and especially who can, from their own experience, testify of the horrors of the Slave Trade, and the blessings of Christian liberty which they have received at the hands of the British at Sierra Leone—that this is the agency for the evangelization of Africa: and the Church Missionary Society having already had its Institution for training such agency in operation for many years, ought now to be sustained and strengthened at that point by all who desire the good of Africa.

ASIA-MINOR MISSION.

COMMENCED 1830.

Mission Establishment:

1 European Missionary.

THE Rev. J. T. Wolters has continued to prosecute his labours in Turkey. He has met with little to encourage him in his attempts to impart Christian instruction to the Turks.

During the course of the year, Mr. Wolters visited Salonica, with a view to ascertain whether it would be practicable advantageously to itinerate in Macedonia: he reached Salonica on the 23d of May. The population is estimated at 59,000: Turks, 20,000; Jews, 25,000; Greeks, 13,000; Franks, 1000.

Distribution of the Scriptures.

With regard to the distribution of the Scriptures among the Turks, Mr. Wolters writes, July 17, 1843—

As to the circulation of the Scriptures and other books, I did not, nor do I, find it advisable to give any great publicity to this branch of my labours at present. I took a small supply of Turkish and Greek books with me on my journey, the greater part of which I left in the hands of a friend at Salonica, who will distribute them as circumstances may permit. I am glad, however, to state, that I have succeeded in discovering some channels by which I can send Turkish and Greek books to parts of Macedonia and Asia Minor. This quiet way of circulating books appears to me the only way practicable, at present, in Turkey; but it is a way in which a considerable number may be put into circulation.

Visit to Berea.

Mr. Wolters, having found that the state of Macedonia was such as to render it unsafe for him to travel in that country, visited Berea. From thence he wrote, on the 30th of May—

I had an interesting conversation this morning with our Albanian host, on faith in a crucified Redeemer as the only way of Salvation; on good works as necessary evidences of our faith; on reading the Scriptures, &c. The mistress of the house showed me a little book: it was the New Testament in Ancient Greek. I read and explained Acts xvii. 10, 11; and asked, at the end, "Where are now the Christians at Berea, who search the Scriptures daily, and receive the Word of God with all readiness of mind?" The man, feeling, as it seemed, in some degree the importance of my question, answered, "Oh, how shall we give an account to God?"

Mr. Wolters wrote again, on the 17th of July—

Comparing the ancient Christians of Berea with those of the present day, what a picture presents itself to our view! Alas! not a vestige has remained of the more noble than those at Thessalonica: Acts xvii. 11.

Intolerance of Mahomedanism.

The following fact transpired to Mr. Wolters during his stay at Salonica: it strikingly illustrates the intolerance of Mahomedanism, and the fearful obstacles which oppose the conversion to Christ of the followers of the false prophet—

June 6, 1843—A very interesting event was told me to-day, which, in a high degree, is illustrative of the religious fanaticism of the Turks. At Prisrend, in Albania, a Mufti (Doctor of Law) called on the Moollah, apparently melancholy and downcast. On being asked what was the matter, the Mufti said he would tell the reason at another time. He came some time afterward, and began to ask the Moollah extraordinary questions about Christ and Mahomed, comparing, as it were, the characters of the two. The Moollah was astonished at the Mufti's declarations, who continued, saying, "It is evident that we are all in darkness: Christ is the only true Prophet whom we must follow." The matter was brought before the Pasha, who declined interfering with it, saying that the Mufti might perhaps be a madman. Consequently, the event was reported to Constantinople, where sentence was passed, to the effect that the unfortunate Mufti should be publicly executed. The execution really took place, as I was told, early in the spring of the present year. It would be exceedingly interesting to learn all the particular circumstances of this extraordinary case. I could gather only the above-mentioned facts. They clearly show, however, what are the feelings of the Turks with regard to Christianity at the present time. So long as they stand as a nation, we cannot expect to do much among them for the spread of the Gospel. There is no encouragement for a Turk even to inquire into the truth of our Religion, lest he should be detected as one who doubts the truth of his own. The fear of man on the one hand, and the fear of death on the other, keep the Mussulman tied and bound in the iron chains of Islam.

This is a deeply afflicting state of things; but there is good reason to hope that an effectual restraint has at length been placed on the persecuting spirit of Mahomedans within the Turkish Empire. In August last, an Armenian Youth, of 18 or 20, who had turned Mahomedan, and afterward returned to the Christian Religion, was beheaded at Constantinople with circumstances of great barbarity. Sir Stratford Canning, the British Ambassador, exerted himself to save the youth; but in vain. The general question was earnestly and energetically taken up by him, and also by the French and Prussian Ambassadors. In the event the following "Official Declaration" was obtained, dated March 21, 1844—

It is the special and constant intention of His Highness the Sultân, that his cordial relations with the High Powers be preserved, and that a perfect reciprocal friendship be maintained and increased.

The Sublime Porte engages to take effectual measures to prevent henceforward the execution and putting to death of the Christian who is an apostate.*

At an audience which Sir Stratford Canning had of the Sultan on the 23d of March, His Highness declared—

Henceforward neither shall Christianity be insulted in my dominions, nor shall Christians be in any way persecuted for their religion.

Glory be to God, for this incalculably important concession! To the firm and decided course taken by Sir Stratford Canning in this business, in which he was cordially and effectually supported by the British Ministry, is, under God, to be ascribed the favourable issue to which it was at length brought.

Mr. Wolters' Admission to English Orders.

Mr. Wolters being of opinion that his admission to the Orders of the English Church would, in his connexion with the Church Missionary Society, be promotive of his usefulness, his wishes on this point were communicated by the Committee to the Bishop of Gibraltar; and Mr. Wolters was ordained Deacon by his Lordship, at Smyrna, on the 25th of April, and Priest, in Malta, on the 25th of January last. On his admission to Deacons' Orders, Mr. Wolters thus writes in his Journal—

A solemn and blessed day to me—the day of my being ordained Deacon in the Church of England! I am unable to express the feelings of my heart; and can only say that I have made a new surrender of my body, soul, and spirit, to the Lord and His blessed service. May He in mercy accept of so unworthy a gift as this!

The Rev. W. Krusé rejoined the Egypt Mission on the 3d of November last. The Mission, therefore, is under the charge of Mr. Krusé and the Rev. J. R. T. Lieder as formerly. The Report of the Mission for the year 1843 has not yet reached the Committee. Mr. Krusé writes, on the 4th of January, that he was preparing for a Missionary Tour to Upper Egypt, taking with him a large supply of the Scriptures and other Books and Tracts. The Coptic Patriarch received Mr. Krusé, on his return, in a very friendly manner, and promised him a Letter of introduction to the Bishop and other Ecclesiastics of Upper Egypt.

Under date of the 20th of January, Mr. Lieder states that the Coptic Institution was making "slow but steady progress;" and that there was a considerable increase of children in both the Day Schools.

EAST-AFRICA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1829.

Mission Establishment:

3 European Missionaries.

It was stated in the last Report that the Rev. Messrs. Isenberg, Krapf, and Mühleisen had encountered serious obstacles in their attempts to re-enter Shoa, either from Tadjurra or Zeila. These obstacles proved insurmountable. The King of Shoa having prohibited their return, all their efforts to induce the Dankali and Somali Chiefs, in the country lying between the sea and Abyssinia, to permit them to undertake the journey, were unavailing. Motives, partly political and partly ecclesiastical, appear to have induced the King of Shoa to adopt and persist in this course. Under these circumstances, Messrs. Isenberg and Mühleisen determined to proceed to Massowah, in order to ascertain whether it were practicable to re-enter Northern Abyssinia from that point. Should they find the country open, it was their intention to penetrate to Gondar, in the hope that they might find the Abuna disposed to favour their labours. Dr. Krapf decided on returning to Aden, with a view of attempting to reach the heathen Galla Tribes in South-Eastern Africa by the Makdusa, now called Haines' River, or by the Juba, which falls into the Indian Ocean near the Line.

Proceedings of the Rev. Messrs. Isenberg and Mühleisen.

On the 18th of March 1843 the Rev. Messrs. Isenberg and Mühleisen embarked at Tadjurra for Massowah; and after a coasting-voyage of eighteen days, reached that place on the 4th of April. They learned that Tigrè was in a disturbed state. Oubea had driven Balgadaraia from Antalow, and established himself there. They also learned that the Alaca Kiddan Mariam of Adowah—of old unfriendly to the Mission—was with Oubea. The Missionaries thus found their position a difficult one. On the whole, they judged it advisable to quit Massowah as soon as possible, taking with them little personal baggage, but a large supply of copies of the Scriptures. They quitted Massowah on the 18th of April, taking their journey to Tigrè, by Serāwe. On the 3d of May they reached Adeyehahi, a short distance from Adowah.

On their way to Adeyehahi, on the confines of Tigrè, the Missionaries addressed a Letter to Oubea, soliciting his permission to their proceeding to Gondar. In his reply, Oubea directed the Missionaries to go to Adowah, and there wait till he could fully examine into the matter. They accordingly proceeded to Adowah, which they reached on the 21st of May. The Alaca Kiddan Mariam they found as strongly opposed to them as ever. They had lengthened conferences with him, without changing his disposition or conduct; so far from it, that the Alaca excommunicated all persons who held intercourse with the Missionaries.

From Adowah the Missionaries addressed a Letter, on the 10th of June, to the Abuna at Gondar, explaining their views in coming to Abyssinia, and soliciting his countenance to their proceedings. In this Letter they state—

> It is our desire to establish an union and communion with you in Christ, our common Head and foundation-stone, and not to hate one another on account of some difference in our respective religious worship. Do not you require of us to abandon the forms and orders of our Church, as we likewise do not call on you to relinquish yours; but it is the object of our Society, and of ourselves, to be here with you on a similar footing as our Brethren, Messrs. Krusé and Lieder, are with the Copts in Egypt: for Christ, our heavenly High Priest, who offered Himself up for us, has not appointed either you or us to mutual enmity, but to mutual love and edification. In order to satisfy any person's doubts and suspicions concerning our doctrine, we hereby send you a book, which, from former times, is known to you in Arabic and in English, and is now translated into Amharic: it is the Common-Prayer Book of our Church.

They add—

> Let us then, in love, dwell together; and, grounded on the Word and Spirit of that one common Saviour, Jesus Christ, join together for mutual edification, and labour to perform His holy will.

The Abuna's answer did not reach them till the 17th of July, when they were already on their return to Massowah. It, however, was not of a character to lead them to expect support from him, even had Oubea's objections to their remaining in the country been overcome.

But after having despatched their Letter to the Abuna, Mr. Isenberg determined to go to Oubea's camp, in the hope of being able to conciliate him in a personal interview. He accordingly left Adowah for that purpose on the 20th of June; and on the 22d reached Hauzen, where Oubea was encamped. Oubea sent Mr. Isenberg a present of a sheep, bread, and hydromel; but refused to see him. In the event, he again ordered him to quit Abyssinia.

The Missionaries were thus compelled to retrace their steps to Massowah, which they reached on the 22d of July. From thence they departed, on their way to Egypt, on July 29th, and reached Caïro on the 11th of October, by Cosseir and the Nile.

Thus were the Missionaries again cast out of Northern Abyssinia. Unsuccessful, however, as their efforts were to regain a footing in the country, their labour was not in vain in the Lord; for they were enabled to dispose of more than 2000 copies of the Scriptures during their short stay there; and we know assuredly that the Word of the Lord shall not return void, but shall accomplish that whereto HE sent it.

Proceedings of the Rev. Dr. Krapf.

Dr. Krapf, still reluctant to relinquish the East-Africa Mission altogether, instead of accompanying Messrs. Isenberg and Mühleisen to Northern Abyssinia, resolved to go to Aden, in order to concert a plan for reaching the Galla Tribes in Eastern Africa from the Indian Ocean. Dr. Krapf wrote to the Committee from Aden, on the 22d of April 1843—

> By all I could learn from good authorities, I feel confident to state, that more than one entrance exists from Cape Guardafui down to Zanzibar, without running a great risk either from the climate or the Natives in those quarters. There are, indeed, many circumstances which may lead us to believe firmly that the good tidings of our Redeemer's Kingdom may be proclaimed in those hitherto closed countries.

Dr. Krapf was kindly promised by Capt. Haines, the Governor of Aden, Letters of recommendation to the Imaum of Muscat, and to the English Consul at Zanzibar. He was assured that those parts of the African Coast and Continent, to which his views were immediately directed, were healthy, and the climate excellent. He was anxious, however, to obtain the sanction of the Committee to this undertaking previously to his entering upon it.

Having ascertained that the most favourable season of the year for making the voyage from Aden to Zanzibar was October, and unwilling to remain unemployed for six months at Aden, he proceeded to Massowah, accompanied by Mrs. Krapf, for the purpose of co-operating in Tigrè, during the interval, with his former fellow-labourers, Messrs. Isenberg and Mühleisen. He and Mrs. Krapf accordingly left Aden on the 29th of April, and reached Massowah on the 14th of May. Finding, at Massowah, that Messrs. Isenberg and Mühleisen had encountered difficulties at Adowah, he thought it advisible to remain on the frontier of Tigrè, and occupy himself in the distribution of copies of the Scriptures. On his journey, a severe trial befel him. Mrs. Krapf was prematurely delivered of a child on the 26th of May. Dr. Krapf thus describes the circumstances connected with this very painful event—

In the helpless situation in which we were, we lifted up our hearts to Him from whom alone we may expect true support under all afflictions and anxieties of life, and He graciously heard our sighs and prayers. We believed firmly, that whatever we, from ignorance and want of skill, should do wrong, our invisible and almighty Friend could make right, and lead the whole matter to a safe and happy issue. About four o'clock in the morning the patient was delivered of a little daughter; who, however, as she was given too early, so she was taken from our hands too soon, according to a mysterious dispensation of God. The beloved child breathed only for an hour; and then the Heavenly Gardener transplanted her to a better world, till we shall see her again before the Throne of Grace. She lived just long enough to receive the Sacrament of Baptism; which I performed under the tears of my dear wife and myself; wherefore we called the child's name Eněba; which means, in Amharic, "Tear;" and which shall, in general, remind us of our whole tearful course of life since we left Egypt. With heartfelt pain we buried the child in the evening, under a tree in the vicinity of our tent. He, the all-wise and gracious God, gave, and He has taken again: to His Name be glory for ever and ever! As there were several Amharic people with our caffila, I used the Amharic Prayer Book in performing the Funeral Service. Rest and tranquillity would now have benefitted my dear wife; but such a thing is sought for in vain among the noisy and annoying Shoho People. After my wife's confinement, their perpetual outcry was, to move on to the next Station; and only by giving them a cow for food, and a dollar per day, could I persuade them to stay three days, until Mrs. Krapf should have got some strength to leave the Station. On the 29th we left Mashen, which place will always be an Ebenezer to us. Truly the Lord is a faithful God, who will never leave nor forsake us if we trust in Him.

During this journey Dr. Krapf distributed a large number of portions of the Scriptures. He remarks—

It is really pleasing to see the desire which the people have for obtaining books.

And he adds—

Were your eye to be opened, like that of Gehazi, and could you see the multitudes of people surrounding our house in quest of books, you would feel yourself moved in the innermost; and would say with me, Where shall we find bread that these may eat?

Dr. Krapf joined Messrs. Isenberg and Mühleisen on their way to Massowah, whence he sailed for Aden; which place he reached on the 17th of August. At Aden Dr. Krapf received a Letter from the Committee, authorising him to carry into execution the plan which he had formed for re-entering Eastern Africa. From Dr. Krapf the Committee have not received information of a later date than the 12th of October, after he had received the Committee's Letter, when he was preparing for his departure. From Mr. Mühleisen, however, in a Letter from Caïro, dated the 22d December, they have received the following tidings—

From what I have heard from Dr. and Mrs Krapf, they set out on their voyage for Zanzibar; and I am sorry to inform you that they had a heavy gale in the first few days, so that their boat leaked, and they were thus compelled to return to Aden. The danger while returning was such, that they prepared themselves for that awful step from time to eternity. But God was pleased to save their lives; and such was the providential escape, that, a few minutes after their being taken on board of another boat near Aden, their own was sinking before their eyes.

Undaunted by this calamitous occurrence, Dr. and Mrs. Krapf again embarked at Aden for Zanzibar eight days afterward.

CHINA MISSION.

Engagement of Two Missionaries.

The Committee have great pleasure in stating that they have engaged the services of two Clergymen—the Rev. T. M'Clatchie, B.A., late Curate of Midsomer Norton, and the Rev. G. Smith, M.A., well known as an able and zealous Association Secretary—to proceed this summer to China, with the view of commencing a Mission there.

The Committee trust that the liberality of their friends will enable them to support this Mission, by means of the Special Fund for China, till the Mission shall have assumed a permanent form; a hope which they are encouraged to indulge by the noble example of the Cheltenham Association, which has already raised a sum sufficient to pay the outfit and passage of the two Missionaries, without diminishing their contributions to the General Fund of the Society.

CALCUTTA AND NORTH-INDIA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1816.

Mission Establishment:

24 European Missionaries.
1 Indo-British Missionary.
1 European Catechist and Schoolmaster.
10 Indo-British Catechists and Schoolmasters.
117 Native Catechists and Teachers of all classes.
2 Indo-British Schoolmistresses.
4 Native Schoolmistresses.

CALCUTTA.

THE Missionary Establishment at Mirzapore, in Calcutta, comprises within its precincts a Church, houses of residence for the Missionaries, 3 Schools, and from 20 to 30 cottages occupied by Native Converts.

Upon the departure of the Rev. T. Sandys for England, at the commencement of last year, on account of the failure of his health, the Rev. J. F. Osborne was located at Mirzapore; and, together with the Rev. J. Long, has superintended the Mission.

General View.

Mr. Osborne ministers to the Native-Christian Congregation assembling in the Church, which numbers about 140; 50 being Communicants. The Bishop of Calcutta held a Confirmation in this Church in September last, when 59 Candidates were presented; 8 being from Mirzapore, 30 from the southern villages, and 21 from Agurparah.

Mr. Long visits the Christians in the southern villages, who amount to about 300 in number, and are under the care of Native resident Catechists. He has spent one Lord's Day in each month at the village of Thakerpooker, where the Society has a Chapel.

The Missionaries and Native Catechists likewise attend, on several days in the week, at a Chapel in the city of Calcutta, at which they address the Heathen, who generally attend to the number of 30 or 40. They also visit them at their own homes. As the fruit of these labours, only 3 Adult Converts have been added to the Church during the last year.

Hindoostanee Department.

The Hindoostanee Department of the Mission, which is directed to the Mahomedan Population, has been conducted by Native Catechists, under such superintendence as the Rev.

J. C. Thompson, a late Missionary of the Society, but now Chaplain to the Calcutta Free School, has been able to give. A Congregation of about 90 converts assemble at a chapel in Wellesley Street. Five adult converts have been baptized during the last year.

Education.

The chief branch of the educational department of labour is the English School for heathen boys, which is conducted under the constant and energetic superintendence of the Rev. J. Long, and contains 230 scholars. Mr. Long remarks—

Three years' experience in connexion with this School fully convinces me that there is no more powerful lever to upset Brahminism than Bible instruction, imparted in the English language to the unprejudiced minds of Native Youths.

This School is held in a room on the Mission Premises at Mirzapore. There are also two other Schools, on the same premises, for Native-Christian Children, boys and girls, chiefly orphans, who are boarded and clothed. Eight of the elder boys, from 16 to 19 years of age, are trained in higher branches of learning, with a view to their becoming Native Teachers. They are all Communicants, and give some promise of future usefulness.

Several Vernacular Schools for heathen boys and girls, containing about 900 scholars, are kept in the city and its neighbourhood.

AGURPARAH.

On Mr. Osborne's removal to Mirzapore, Mr. F. De Rozario, a Catechist, who had previously been labouring in the Burdwan Mission, was appointed to this Station. Mr. Osborne or Mr. Long attend once a month, when the Lord's Supper is administered.

General View—Baptism of three Converts from Heathenism.

The number of Christians in connexion with this Station is above 100, of whom 45 are Communicants. A Prayer Meeting of the Catechists and Teachers, 7 in number, is held once a month, with an especial view to supplicate success on their labours. On these occasions each Catechist gives an account of his work, his trials, and his encouragements; and Mr. De Rozario takes occasion to counsel, strengthen, and encourage them. The Gospel has been preached to the Heathen every day in the week, in some place or other around Agurpurah; and three converts from Heathenism have been added to the Church—two of them Brahmins; one of whom, Prosonoochunder Banerjea, had received a Bible while a lad at the General Assembly's Institution at Calcutta, read it by himself, and, after seven or eight years' opposition from friends, finally came to Mr. De Rozario, at Agurparah, and was baptized. He said of himself—

I read the Bible with attention, and found it, unlike the Hindoo Shasters, contained PURE words. I considered the Hindoo religion to be only a fiction invented by men; and instead of showing us the way of Salvation it teaches the way of damnation: and having found that Christianity was ordained and revealed to man by the Almighty Himself, my conduct changed, and Hindooism was no longer regarded by me.

An English School for boys at Agurparah, and a Vernacular School in a village two miles off, comprising, together, above 200 scholars, are in connexion with this Station.

BURDWAN.

The Missionary Establishment near Burdwan comprises a Church, houses of residence for the Missionaries, Schools for orphan boys and girls, an Infant School, and a village of from 15 to 20 families of Native Converts.

Trials of this Station—Hopeful Death of two Catechists—Preaching to the Heathen.

During the past year the Missionary operations in this very interesting field have been crippled by the absence of the Rev. J. J. Weitbrecht, the removal of Mr. De Rozario to Agurparah, and the illness of the only remaining European Labourer, the Rev. J. G. Linké.

It has pleased God further to afflict this Station with the fatal ravages of the small-pox. Among the victims of this disease were two very valuable and faithful Catechists, who had been employed in the Mission for a long series of years, and gave satisfactory evidence, at the last hour, of the power of their faith in Christ. No fewer than 17 deaths occurred in the course of the year.

Preaching to the Heathen in the town of Burdwan, and in the villages, has been carried on as far as circumstances would allow.

Baptism of Two Brahmins.

Two converts from Heathenism have been baptized during the last year, both of respectable Brahmin families. The previous life of one of them had been very remarkable, from the extraordinary pains which he took, from his youth, to arrive at the source of true happiness, which he supposed would be found in beholding Vishnoo. Allured, through his youthful simplicity, by the deceitful promises of Brahmin teachers, that, by certain journeys and watchings and fastings, and by the repetition, an infinite number of times, of certain forms of words, he would obtain a sight of his deity, he fulfilled, with great perseverance and sincerity, the injunctions which were laid upon him. He wandered for six or seven years throughout India, traversing the country from the Himalaya Mountains to Cape Comorin, and even as far as Ceylon, visiting every place of note among the Hindoos, and performing the appointed ceremonies, still vexed with disappointments, still deceived by lying promises. At length, in the course of his travels, on his way from Juggernaut to Calcutta, he met with a Native Christian, with whom he travelled for a few days, and who, with simplicity and great earnestness, assured him that all his pilgrimages, offerings, and repetitions, would be of no use to him, and declared to him the true way of happiness and Salvation through the knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Upon his arrival, shortly afterward, at Burdwan, he repaired to the Mission Premises, to inquire further into the Christian Religion, and received a New Testament, which he read with great diligence. His heathen companions soon persecuted him, and endeavoured to remove him from Burdwan; but he took refuge in the Mission Premises, and, after full instruction, received Christian Baptism. He resides with the Missionaries, and displays much zeal in publishing the glad tidings to his fellow-countrymen. He is acquainted with the Hinduwee, Tamul, Malabar, Telinga, and Canarese Languages.

Orphan Establishments and Schools.

The Christian Orphan Establishments on the Mission Premises contain from 50 to 60 children. There is also an Infant School. An English School for Heathen Boys, in the town of Burdwan, contains 100 Scholars; and about 250 Children are taught in several Vernacular Schools in the town and villages.

KRISHNAGHUR.

This district is divided into five Stations, in each of which there is a resident Missionary, with his Church, Schools, and Catechists, presenting the happy appearance of parochial establishments. The number of baptized persons in the whole district amounts to 3290; about 150 having being baptized during the last year. The number of Communicants is 235.

The chief time and labour of the Missionaries are devoted to the building up, in their most holy faith, those numerous converts from Heathenism, who, a few years ago, flocked into the Christian Church like doves to their windows. It has required much tenderness and forbearance and patience, on the part of the Missionaries, to reduce into order and discipline minds which had grown up in heathenish habits. The work of rearing infant Churches, which the great Apostle of the Gentiles compares to that of a nurse cherishing her children, has been advanced, the Committee have reason to hope, in each of the Missionary Districts. The Schools established in each District for the education of the children of Christians hold out the best hope that the generation thus trained from infancy in Christian habits, will exhibit a more steady and decided character than their parents.

In two of the districts there are also English and Vernacular Schools for heathen children, containing, in all, about 350 children.

General View of the Stations.

In reference to the general state of the Mission, the Rev. C. H. Blumhardt reports respecting the Sudder Station, Dec. 4, 1843—

Notwithstanding many trials and disappointments, I have great reason to rejoice over much that the Lord has done for the promotion of His Kingdom. The work in this district is, on the whole, progressing, and the Gospel is taking deeper root, though the plants seem rather to decrease than to increase in number; as some, who once made a profession, have gone back, and walk no more with us; while others continue steadfast in the faith, to the saving of their souls.

The Rev. C. T. Krauss remarks of the Kabastanga Station, Dec. 7, 1843—

Those who attend regularly at Public Worship have exhibited pleasing instances of Christian conversation, and have walked as becometh the Gospel of Christ.

The Rev. A. Alexander writes of the Solo District in more sanguine and encouraging terms—

With regard to the preaching of the Word, I do hope that some, at least, are being benefitted. Several of the older Christians, I have observed, are hungering and thirsting after more enlarged knowledge, and their constant attendance on the Means of Grace, even in the busiest seasons, proves that they desire something from Christianity, which will only be found in another and a better world than this.

Darker shades are cast over the description given of their districts by the Rev. H. C. Krückeberg, of Chupra, and the Rev. C. W. Lipp, of Rottenpore. Mr. Lipp writes, Dec. 7, 1843—

Some come from the villages to attend Divine Service on Lord's Days: others—I am grieved to say the majority—are not interested in spiritual instruction, because they do not care for the Gospel, which alone is able to make them wise unto Salvation. They want temporal relief, and, in order to obtain it, are willing to attend the Means of Grace; but if temporal relief is refused they think themselves no longer bound to listen to their Pastor.

Need of Charity in judging of this Mission.

While the Committee thus present a faithful transcript of the Reports which they have received from their Missionaries, though it be of somewhat a discouraging character, they would desire that it should be borne in mind that similar descriptions would, alas! be too often given even by many faithful Ministers in this Christian land, if they were required to report upon the spiritual condition of their parishioners generally. The present state of the Christians at Krishnaghur should also be contrasted with their late degraded state of heathenism, as well as with the higher state of spiritual improvement to which, it is trusted, they may yet be advanced by His blessing, who hath begun a good work among them, Hopeful Death of a Catechist.

Next to the encouragement afforded by striking conversions from Heathenism, is that which may be derived from the faithfulness, even to death, of those who have embraced the Truth. Indeed, such is the uncertainty of the native character, that we cannot but rejoice with trembling till the objects of our Christian solicitude have an entrance ministered unto them into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour. Such an instance of encouragement has been graciously afforded, in connexion with this Mission, during the past year, in the dying testimony of a most devoted and able Catechist. Peter Chundy was one of the first who embraced Christianity in Krishnaghur. He was sitting in a verandah, with others of his acquaintance, when two Native Catechists from Burdwan passed by. On being asked why they had visited that village, they replied, "We bring you good news." The term "good news" sank into the heart of Chundy. He had been taught the learning of the Brahmins, but had already renounced Hindooism from an undefined desire and expectation of something purer. He searched the Bible, and there found the replies to many anxious questions which had long perplexed his mind. He exclaimed, "This is indeed God's word!" He found the Gospel to be good news in very deed, and it engaged, from the beginning, all his affections and his understanding: to be a thorough Christian was his aim and his prayer. He was a man of intellectual power and abounding love. Soundness of mind was also his, of which he gave proof in a godly jealousy against too much stress being laid upon the externals of Religion: "It is the heart, my friends, and not the dress, that is to be changed," was a favourite saying. In any danger and difficulty he had recourse to the Word of God, and never failed to find information and advice therein; and he comforted both himself and others with the oft-repeated text, The Lord is at hand.

His faith was strong, and manifested itself with increasing evidence as his departure drew near. He made every preparation for his own interment, and at the last reproved the tears of a numerous circle of sorrowing friends, called upon the Lord to take him to Himself, and died, full of the hope of eternal life, at the age of 32 years.

BENARES.

The Rev. W. Smith, the Rev. G. Stolzenberg, and Mr. J. Mackay, have conducted this Mission during the last year. The Mission Premises at Sigra, a short distance from the city of Benares, comprise two Orphan Asylums and houses of residence for the Missionaries. Divine Service is performed to a Native Congregation, chiefly composed of present and late orphan pupils, and numbering upward of 200. A Church has lately been commenced within the Mission Compound.

There is another Congregation, of Christian drummers and their families, who assemble at a Chapel belonging to the Society in the military lines, which averages between 20 and 30.

Preaching to the Heathen.

There are also several Chapels and smaller buildings in the city, at which the Gospel is preached to the Heathen, and discussions are held. This department peculiarly belongs to Mr. Smith, who writes—

> I have gone, on an average, eight and nine times a-week among the people in the city, spending from two to three, and sometimes four hours at a time .... Sometimes, while preaching, I cannot help thinking, Surely the thing is done: surely they will now submit, and some of them, at least, come over. Oh, it is an arduous struggle! In this conflict, heaven and hell, Christ and Satan, through their respective agents and subjects, come into close contact. How interesting the contest, yet how difficult to be maintained by the sheep in the midst of wolves! It may easily be conceived how the Missionary's soul must often recoil from the struggle, and sink within him, or be induced to contemplate other fields of labour; but a lingering hope, sometimes amounting to the full assurance of ultimate success, rouses him, keeps him at his post, and enables him to gird himself again to the fight.

Missionary Tour into the Oude Country.

In the early part of the year 1843, Mr. Smith made an extensive tour in the Oude Territory, proceeding through Lucknow, Cawnpore, Futtehpore, &c. He availed himself of every opportunity of giving Christian Instruction, and distributed Portions of the Scriptures and Tracts. He thus concludes, in a Letter to the Rev. J. Innes, dated Benares, April 24, 1843, the account of his journey—

In respect to Oude, as it is the first time Missionaries have penetrated into the country—Mr. Bowley having visited only the city of Lucknow itself—I would make a few remarks:—

1. The country of Oude appears to me to be open to Missionary endeavours. A Missionary might travel from one end to the other without any fear. He would, I doubt not, be received with civility, and generally heard with attention, and the people would receive his books. If he had a friend in Lucknow, through whom he could have one of the King's Sootur Sawar sent him, perhaps it would be all the better. Dr. Login kindly obtained one for us.

2. As to the city of Lucknow itself, he would find it more difficult; and I question whether, at present, open preaching is allowed. The present King is very bigotted; and certainly no baptism of a Mussulman would be allowed to take place publicly. But there are numbers of Native Christians dwelling in the city, for whom the Missionary might build a Chapel in the central part; and, by his services, others might doubtless be attracted. In this way, and by making acquaintance with the Natives, through the medium of the Christian servants of the King, of whom there are many, and some very pious, I have no doubt much good, under God, might be effected. We distributed about 250 Portions of the Scriptures, and from 50 to 60 copies of the Hindostan Prize Essay, besides an untold number of Tracts.

Orphan Establishments.

The expenses of these Institutions are defrayed by local contributions, and the sale of work done by the Orphans; but they are under the care and management of the Society's Missionaries and their Wives. The great object in the instruction of the boys is to train up such as are endowed with competent abilities as Religious Teachers. The number of boys is 105. The number of girls has been doubled since the last Report, being now upward of 90. Twenty-five of the number were transferred to this Institution by Mrs. Lowther, of Allahabad, together with the very liberal benefaction of nearly 1000*l.* for their future maintenance.

Jay Narrain's School.

The Society has also to record another instance of munificence in connexion with this Mission during the last year, and that by a Heathen Rajah. A Free School, originally built and endowed by Jay Narrain, and placed under the care of the Missionaries, having become too small and inconvenient, a new, substantial, and very commodious building, in a frequented thoroughfare of the city, and in one of the best situations which could have been chosen, has been erected at the sole cost of Rajah Suttee Churn Ghosaul and his brothers, grandsons of the founder. The number of scholars is 212. The Rev. E. Johnson, B. A. Trin. Coll. Dublin, has been appointed to the care of this School, and arrived at his post at the close of last year.

CHUNAR.

Death of the Rev. W. Bowley.

This Mission has been, in the providence of God, deprived, during the last year, of the excellent and devoted Missionary, the Rev. W. Bowley; who, for twenty-five years, laboured with a simplicity of purpose and energy of character which have been rarely equalled. His translation of the Holy Scriptures into Hinduwee will long remain as a monument of his abilities, and of their consecration to the highest ends. He died in the midst of his work, by a sudden but not unprepared removal to his reward.

General View.

This Station contains a Church, School-houses, and Missionary's Residence. Mr. Bowley attended to the regular services of a Native Congregation numbering 200, superintended the Schools, and, in the cold season, itinerated through the neighbourhood.

Education.

There was a small Orphan Establishment, containing about 40 children. In the last Report presented by Mr. Bowley he states, that, since the opening of the Institution, 24 orphans have left, 13 girls have been married to Christian Converts, and 3 out of the 11 boys are employed in the Mission as Readers or Teachers. All, without exception, are earning their own livelihood and supporting their families; so that the object originally contemplated in opening these Asylums has been so far realized beyond expectation.

Upon the death of Mr. Bowley, Mr. Richards, from Buxar, took charge of the Mission. The Orphan Schools were removed to Benares; so that the Congregation has been diminished. Two Vernacular Schools, containing, in all, 100 boys, are maintained in the Bazaar and neighbouring village.

JAUNPORE.

At this Station the Society has a Church, School-house, and Missionary's Residence, which were erected by local subscriptions, and made over to the Society two years ago.

Hopeful Candidate for Baptism.

The Rev. R. Hawes is assisted at this Station by a young Catechist, Timothy, whose interesting history was given in the last year's Report, under the Chunar Station. It may, with peculiar gratification, be now stated, that the father of Timothy, described in the same Report as a rigid Idolater, opposing his son's conversion to Christianity, and persecuting him till he drove him from his home, has since become a meek and humble inquirer after the Truth, and is residing with his son at Jaunpore as a Candidate for Baptism.

Preaching.

English Service is performed on each Lord's Day for the residents, and the Gospel is preached and explained to the Heathen in the city and neighbouring villages.

Visit of the Rev. W. Bowley.

The late Rev. William Bowley visited Jaunpore in the last year; and his valuable testimony to the state of the Mission was in the following encouraging terms—

One pleasing trait in connexion with these people is, that they seem awake to religious subjects, and are consequently searching the Scriptures, though perhaps only to cavil and find objections against Christianity: yet it is palpably clear that they are reading the Word of God daily; and therefore there is hope that some, at least, will be taught by the Holy Spirit to believe and pray.

Free School.

A Free School for heathen boys, containing about 90 scholars, who are instructed in the English and Vernacular Languages, and in the principles of Christianity, is under the charge of Mr. J. Cæsar. This Institution has improved rapidly since Mr. Cæsar's arrival at the Station. He resides on the premises, and gives his whole attention to the School.

GORRUCKPORE.

At this Station the Society possesses a Church, two Houses of residence for Missionaries, a Seminary, and a School for girls. There is also a Church and Houses at Basharatpore, about four miles from the Station, at which the Society undertook to clear and cultivate the land, with a view to its occupation by Christian Natives. The difficulties in the way of accomplishing this design will probably lead to a modification of the original plan.

General View.

During the last year the Rev. J. P. Mengé has officiated in the Church at the Station, and superintended the Girls' School. His own health, and that of Mrs. Mengé, have suffered severely, and for a time he was compelled to leave his post for change of air. The Rev. J. C. Wendnagel has devoted his chief attention to the Settlement at Basharatpore, where the number of Christian cultivators is 21, with their families, and 46 orphan boys, who both receive instruction and are employed in cultivating the land. The Congregation at the Church averages about 95 persons, of whom 30 are Communicants.

AGRA.

At this important Station, which has now become the Presidency of the Upper Provinces, and contains a population of 100,000, the Society has possessed, for above thirty years, a Church, School-house, and Catechist's Residence, at the Kuttra, in the heart of the city. The Society has also a Church at Secundra, five miles from the city, where two large Orphan Establishments are supported by local funds, and a Christian village has sprung up, chiefly composed of orphans who have married from the Institutions, and are now supporting themselves. The village contains 16 families, comprising 49 souls.

The Rev. Messrs. C. T. Hœrnle, F. E. Schnieder, C. G. Pfander, and F. A. Kreiss, have laboured, during the last year, at this Station.

Congregations.

The Native Congregation assembling at the Kuttra Church comprises only 38 individuals, 18 of whom are Communicants: that at Secundra about 250, including the orphans, with 56 Communicants. With reference to this Christian Settlement, Mr. Hœrnle remarks, Dec. 15, 1843—

> The system of colonization is not easy, however useful it may be. .... There are a hundred things by which my patience, love, and faith, are often severely tried. But this is the dark side of the picture. It has also a bright side, which may be contemplated with more pleasure. A few among them walk as becomes Christians; and although they are still weak in faith, yet they are a savour of life to their neighbours. Most of them love the Word of God, and regularly attend Divine Service; and their hearty prayers offered up at the Meetings on Wednesday Evenings, for themselves and the conversion of their benighted countrymen, are often truly affecting. In April, when the crops were ripe, the agriculturists placed the first sheaves at the entrance of the Church, and called on me to offer up thanksgiving for the plenteous harvest the Lord had granted to them. When the Church was completed, and opened for Divine Worship, I told them that they ought to manifest their gratitude to God by subscribing something toward the maintenance of the Church, as faithful Christians always have done. With one accord they came forward to fulfil this duty. A subscription was opened, and each one, according to his ability, gave a monthly contribution. From the funds thus raised the expenses of Divine Worship are paid, the remainder being laid by to form a Poor Fund, in order to assist poor members of the community in cases of necessity, and thus gradually lead the people to the exercise of charity. This Poor Fund already amounts to 50 rupees. These facts, trifling as they may appear, are, notwithstanding, pleasing evidences that the leaven is in the mass, and I trust it will go on working till the whole is leavened.

Preaching to the Heathen.

The work of preaching the Gospel to the Heathen has been zealously prosecuted. The Catechists have gone out daily into the city and neighbouring villages, and the Missionaries have accompanied them three or four times a week.

Also at a Chapel in the city, opened at the beginning of last year, there has been regular preaching four times a week, at which many have attended, and heard and conversed upon the truths of Christianity; some to cavil and oppose; some to inquire further into the subject.

Missionary Journeys—Distribution of the Scriptures and Tracts—Baptisms.

Several journeys have been made to the neighbouring districts, cities, and villages, and to attend the principal Melas.

Nearly 4000 copies of parts, or the whole, of the Scriptures have been distributed, and 14,000 Tracts. Mr. Pfander writes, Dec. 5, 1843—

> Though we cannot speak of any direct result of our labours, yet we still feel encouraged to go on cheerfully, having glorious and sure promises by which to stand.

There have not been more than four or five Adults baptized, in the course of the year, at this Station.

Education.

The number of orphans supported by local funds, but under the instruction and superintendence of the Missionaries, was, at the end of last year, 115 boys and 74 girls, being a considerable reduction from the number of former years, on account of financial difficulties. Respecting the boys, Mr. Hœrnle reports, December 15, 1843—

> Most of the boys have made pleasing prōgress during the last year, and, by their work, earned a considerable portion of the expenses incurred for their support. . . . . The boys of the first English class are being trained for Teachers. Some of them are clever boys, who give me much encouragement. . . . . As to the character and conduct of the boys, much remains to be wished. Still, generally speaking, they are well behaved; and it is with humble joy that I am enabled to say that some of them are evidently under the influence of the Holy Spirit, as is manifested by their desire to converse, whenever they have an opportunity, with the Heathen and Mahomedans on religious subjects. Others, among whom are the first English class, assemble, of their own accord, for private prayer; and I have often heard and seen them at their devotions when the others had long been asleep. These evidences of a work of grace commenced in their hearts greatly encourage me in the otherwise arduous task of training so many boys. Yet my joy is mingled with fear lest the enemy of souls should creep into the garden of the Lord, and destroy these young and hopeful plants; and my daily prayer is, that the Lord Himself may establish them and keep them from the evil one.

Two Schools for heathen boys are kept in the city, in which both English and the Vernacular Languages are taught. The average attendance is 116.

MEERUT.

The Committee are sorry to report that this Station has been without a Missionary for the greater part of last year. Upon the Rev. R. Richards's removal, it was placed under the charge of the Rev. Anund Messeeh, who was shortly afterward disconnected from the Society.*

HIMALAYA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1844.

Mission Establishment:

1 European Missionary. | 1 European Catechist.

Adoption of this Mission by the Society—Re-engagement of the Rev. M. Wilkinson.

At the conclusion of the Forty-second Report it was stated that Simla, in the Himalaya Mountains, presented one of the most promising fields of Missionary labour, and that the English Residents had contributed largely toward the support of a Mission; but that the Society had been compelled to refuse their application for a Missionary on account of its pecuniary difficulties.

The Simla Committee determined, however, to go forward

* Further accounts of the Calcutta and North-India Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for May 1843, pp. 99—110; June 1843, pp. 121, 122; Oct. 1843, pp. 238—244; January 1844, pp. 3—6; March 1844, pp. 49, 50; and April 1844, pp. 72—89.

with the good work on which they had entered; and engaged, on their own responsibility, the services of a Missionary and Catechist—the Rev. J. D. Prockman and Mr. Rudolph—and commenced a Mission at Kotghur in April 1843.

In the mean time, a friend of the Society at home, a Lady, who wishes her name to remain unknown, upon reading the appeal in the Forty-second Report, generously offered to contribute 500*l.* for the outfit and passage-money of two Missionaries, and 25*l.* a-year for ten years in aid of their salary.

Thus encouraged, the Committee have determined to place two Missionaries at that Station. The Simla Committee have expressed their willingness to transfer the whole of their funds to the Church Missionary Society, and to act as a Corresponding Committee under the direction of the Parent Committee. In a Letter of the Simla Committee, dated Sept. 11 last, they write—

> From the first we were anxious to enter into the closest connexion with you. We feel, too, the importance, at the present time, of united efforts. We are anxious to secure not only the permanence and enlargement of the Mission, but the acknowledgment and continuance of decided evangelical views. We want to be clear on this subject; and desire, as far as in us lies, the prevention of any uncertain sound of the Gospel trumpet. The blessing of God has hitherto accompanied you. You have been enabled to uphold and maintain the truth as it is in Jesus, and you have the means to undertake the important work which we have pointed out to you. We are persuaded that if you would undertake the Himalaya Mission our whole object, and more than that, would be gained.

The seat of the Mission is Kotghur, situated on the extreme north-western frontier of the British territory, on the high road from the plains of India to Tartary.

The Rev. M. Wilkinson has long been solicitous to resume his Missionary labours in India; but the state of his own and Mrs. Wilkinson's health forbade their return to Gorruckpore. From the salubrity of the situation, the Committee felt warranted in proposing to him to join the Himalaya Mission. This offer Mr. Wilkinson joyfully accepted; and it is intended that he should depart for his destination in the course of July next.

Thus has the Lord been pleased to open the way of the Society into a new and promising sphere of Missionary labour.

MADRAS AND SOUTH-INDIA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1814.

Mission Establishment:

1 Clerical Secretary.
19 European Missionaries.
1 Indo-British Missionary.
3 Native Missionaries.
7 European Catechists and Schoolmasters.
1 Indo-British Catechist.
382 Native Catechists and Teachers of all Classes.

MADRAS.

THE Mission work at this Presidency has not yet recovered from the depression into which it had fallen through the various suspensions and changes which have, during the last few years, marked its history.

The Rev. J. J. H. Elouis has the management of this Station, assisted by Mr. Rodgers, a Country-born Catechist, lately appointed from the Madras Institution, 3 Native Catechists, and 2 Schoolmasters.

Congregations.

The principal Congregation is that which assembles in the Church Mission Chapel, Black Town. Mr. Elouis feelingly laments the low tone of piety which prevails among the Native Christians in Madras; but, in his last Report, trusts that this Congregation wears a more favourable aspect, the attendance at Divine Service being more regular, with a greater appearance of order than formerly.

There is another Native Congregation assembled at a Chapel called John Pereira's, belonging to the Society, in Madras; at which, during another part of the day, English Services are held by a Chaplain appointed by the Society. Mr. Elouis writes, Sept. 1, 1843—

> This Native Congregation has furnished encouraging tokens of a sincere profession of Christianity in some of its members during the last few months. I am glad to see exhibited in it much desire to be acquainted with the state of the Jews, and for the welfare of God's ancient people.

There is also a small Congregation assembling in a Church on the Mission Premises in Perambore, adjoining Madras, where Mr. Elouis resides.

The returns of the last year exhibit a decrease in the numbers of the Congregation, the Communicants, and the Scholars under instruction.

Importance of Madras as a Missionary Station.

In the communication previously quoted, Mr. Elouis writes—

Surely the present state of Madras, as regards its Native Population, ought to appeal forcibly to the sympathies of Christians. Not to speak of the thousands of Mahomedans living and dying in as gross delusion as that of the Heathen, and perishing WITHOUT ANY EFFORT BEING MADE TO INSTRUCT THEM, AS A BODY, in the Way of Life, here is a crowded city of idolaters, sunk in the grossest superstition, and in all vice, with such scanty means of instruction afforded to them, as leaves the great mass of the people untouched. And then the multitudes who resort hither for the purposes of traffic, &c., again to circulate throughout the country, seem to be lost sight of as a means of carrying the Word of Truth where the Messengers of the Gospel cannot yet reach, did they come among a population less neglected by us. It seems strange, that a principal city of India, where the way is open before us for carrying out any plans for the propagation of the Gospel on which we might ask God's blessing, if the means were afforded of adding to the handful of Labourers stationed in it, should be almost entirely overlooked, and be apparently regarded, in the eyes of the Church, as a place of little consequence.

Institution.

The Rev. J. H. Gray has furnished a satisfactory Report of the progress of his pupils during the past year.

Three Students have gone from the Institution to enter upon the duties of Catechists in Tinnevelly, Madras, and Masulipatam. A former Student, who had acted as a Catechist at Masulipatam, returned to the Institution to complete his preparation for Holy Orders. Two other Native Students remained in the Institution at the close of last year.

The Students of this Institution have the advantage of entering upon incipient Missionary labours amidst the Native Population of Madras, under the superintendence of the Principal. Respecting these labours Mr. Gray remarks, in his Report for the Quarter ending Dec. 31, 1843—

> Visiting the Heathen, and conversing with them in the highways, and streets, and lanes, has been continued and increased. The Journals of such visits are proofs sufficient of the wisdom, the judgment, the forbearance, the love, and the zeal which my pupils are acquiring and exercising. They enter upon their excursions in prayer; and in the spirit of prayer, I believe, they ordinarily conduct them, though it is not unfrequently in the face of scorn, rebuke, and insult.

TELOOGOO MISSION.

The health of the Rev. H. W. Fox has obliged him to continue on the Neilgherries absent from his Station.

Acquirement of the Language.

It was mentioned in the last Report that the Missionaries were zealously prosecuting the study of the Teloogoo Language. In September last, the Rev. R. T. Noble, Mr. P. B. Gordon, and Mr. Sharkey, Catechists at this Station, submitted themselves to the examination of experienced Teloogoo scholars at Madras. The result of the examination was highly satisfactory. Messrs. Noble and Sharkey were pronounced to be good Teloogoo scholars, and returned to Masulipatam; but Mr. Gordon will remain for a time at Madras, to perfect himself in the language, and to prepare for Holy Orders.

MAYAVERAM.

Relinquishment of this Station.

As this Station has been, during the last few years, several times deprived of the services of a Missionary, and its situation is too distant from all other Missions of the Society to allow of its receiving support from them, the Committee have determined to withdraw from it; and Mr. C. J. Taylor, the Catechist, has been removed to another field of labour.

TINNEVELLY.

Confirmatory Evidence of the Healthful State of this Mission.

The encouraging Reports which have been given, for the last few years, of the Mission work in the Province of Tinnevelly, have been presented, from time to time, in fear and trembling. The Committee were well persuaded that the Lord had opened a great door and effectual for the entrance of the Gospel; but they were also alive to the uncertainty which must ever attach to the commencement of such a work, and to the evil of raising exaggerated notions or expectations in the minds of the friends of Missions at home.

But the last year has afforded evidence of so sure and so satisfactory a kind, that the Committee are now emboldened to speak with more confidence; and to refer to this field as one which the Lord hath so blessed, that it has already yielded a harvest sufficient to repay all the cost and labour expended by the Society upon the work of Missions from its commencement to the present day.

The testimony upon which the Committee rest, in addition to the usual Reports of the Missionaries, has been given by the Bishop of Calcutta, who visited Tinnevelly in the month of January 1843, during his late Metropolitical Visitation; by the Rev. J. H. Pratt, his Lordship's Chaplain, who accompanied him in his Visitation; and by the Rev. John Tucker, the Secretary of the Society's Corresponding Committee at Madras, who returned to India two years ago, after a visit to this country, and who was requested to inspect this Mission with an especial view to the transmission of correct information to the Committee.

Visit of the Bishop of Calcutta and the Rev. J. H. Pratt.

The Bishop of Calcutta arrived in the Tinnevelly District at the close of January in last year, and spent eight days in visiting five out of the six Districts into which the Mission is divided.

In consequence of the vessel in which the Bishop sailed from Ceylon being driven out of its course, he arrived at a Station of this Society—Dohnavoor—while the Missionary was absent awaiting his Lordship's arrival at another and distant point. The Bishop's party found themselves surrounded by those who spoke a foreign language, and they were unable to converse together; but as soon as refreshment had been prepared a pleasing proof was afforded of their community in Christian feeling, by the reverent manner in which the servants, being Christians, took off their turbans and knelt down while grace was said. Speaking of the appearance of the Station, Mr. Pratt observes, Jan. 28, 1843—

> It speaks well for the Mission, that we find all in good order, when the people are thus taken by surprise in the absence of their Pastor.

The first public act of the Bishop, after his arrival at Palamcottah, was to preside at a Meeting of the Tamul Book Society—a Society which is mainly supported by the Natives themselves; the object of which is, to supply Religious Books, in Tamul, of a larger description than Tracts generally distributed. It has already published Dr. Watts's Scripture History and Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress. Mr. Pratt writes, Jan. 30—

> They find a large demand for such books among the Catechists, Schoolmasters, intelligent Converts, and inquiring Heathen. The activity and vigour of this Society speak well for the Missions.

Mr. Pratt further adds—

> Nearly 200*l.* a year is subscribed by the Native Christians throughout Tinnevelly to their different Native Benevolent and Religious Societies. We have nothing like this in Bengal; but may hope that similar results will show themselves, in due time, in Krishnaghur.

The Bishop delivered his Metropolitical Charge in the Mission Church at Palamcottah, and the Rev. G. Pettitt, Mr. Pratt writes, preached an admirable Sermon. The Catechists were assembled from all the districts to meet his Lordship, and received from him many wise, animating, and paternal addresses. It will excite the Christian sympathy of friends at home, in the perils to which our Missionary Brethren are sometimes exposed, and their gratitude to Him which holdeth our soul in life, to remark, that during six days in which they were so assembled, the cholera was carrying off many people on all sides; but not one case occurred among the Missionaries or the many hundred Catechists and Schoolmasters. They all returned to their Stations in health.

On the 5th of February, upon the departure of the Bishop from the district, an immense Congregation of Native Christians gathered from the surrounding villages to hear his last advice. A large space of ground was covered in for the occasion with canvas and palmyra leaves, the ordinary Church not being large enough to contain them. The Bishop preached, through the interpretation of the Rev. E. Sargent. The text was John xv. 1, 2, I am the true vine, &c. The Catechists and Schoolmasters took down the discourse in shorthand. Mr. Pratt writes—

In the evening the Bishop and Clergy had English Service together in the Church; and after the Sermon, the Missionaries read and presented to his Lordship an Address, glowing with affection and gratitude to him for his advice, and the pleasure and the profit which they had derived, and hoped still to derive, from his Visitation.

The general impression produced upon the mind of the Bishop was conveyed in these few but emphatic words—

I cannot but express my wonder at these blessed Missions.

And Mr. Pratt, under similar feelings, remarks—

I cannot close this account of a visit to Tinnevelly without exclaiming, What hath God wrought! This field of labour calls loudly for the earnest prayers of all Christians, that the Holy Spirit may work effectually through the instrumentality of our dear Brethren, and reward their labours by a rich harvest of believers, who shall be their crown of rejoicing when the Lord cometh with ten thousand of His saints.

Visit of the Rev. John Tucker.

Mr. Tucker visited Tinnevelly in July and August of last year. The time he spent in the Mission was forty-five days. The persons with whom he conversed were, the Missionaries, collectively and separately; the Catechists; the Headmen and others in forty-nine Congregations which he visited; the Civil and Military Officers residing in the District; and the Headmen and people of many villages, besides those actually visited, who came to pay him their respects, and gave him opportunities of conversation.

Mr. Tucker had visited Tinnevelly on four previous occasions during the last nine years. These former visits, as well as his long residence in India, enabled him to judge with accuracy; and his minute and protracted examination on this occasion furnished him with abundant facts for the formation of his judgment. His early experience, also, in a Pastoral Charge in England, no less than his academical standing at Oxford previously to his departure for India, eminently qualified him for taking a sober and enlarged view of the work he was investigating.

General View.

The result of his inquiries is briefly stated in the following sentence of his Report—

Forming my opinion on all that I saw and heard, I have no hesitation in expressing my deliberate conviction that a great and most blessed improvement has taken place in the Tinnevelly Mission during the last seven years; and that that improvement is now going on more steadily and rapidly than at any former period.

Catechists.

The Committee are unable to present more than a few extracts from this able and very valuable Report. Mr. Tucker's attention was particularly directed to the character and qualifications of the Native Catechists, who amount to the large number of 223. He states—

The opinions of the Missionaries, in regard to their own Catechists in each District, in reference to real piety, differ considerably. All agree in speaking of the great difficulty of judging respecting a Native: all say that they would dismiss a man for any act of immorality, and if they felt persuaded that he was an unconverted man.

In regard to their SPIRITUALITY, and the number of Catechists who are really taught of God, it will not be expected that I should speak from personal knowledge. At the same time I cannot but think, that where there is that measure of spiritual knowledge which I have described, and instruction constantly imparted by a faithful and praying Minister of Christ, and the Means of Grace constantly used, and vigilance exercised, we are justified in believing that the Holy Ghost is given, and true piety prevails.

In three of the districts regular instruction is given to the Catechists by the Missionary every week; in another district every fortnight; in another, monthly; and in the remaining district, on account of its size, once in six weeks.

Our next extract refers to the Congregations.

Speaking next of the Congregations, and the Mission generally, the grounds on which I have come to a decided conviction of a most decided improvement are the following:—

In every part, excepting in the Northern, or Nulloor District, I was struck with this change. When in the village before, the whole Mission appeared to me, so to speak, as a loose, unformed mass, in which Christianity was at work as leaven: now, the different Congregations are all settling down, in different states of advancement, into consolidated Christian communities, and all their habits, individually and collectively, appeared to me to be Christian habits. Perhaps I shall be best understood by saying, that everything is more PAROCHIAL: taking, perhaps, the most advanced Christian Villages— Kadatchapooram, Anbinagaram, Anugragapooram, and Pragasapooram. In the three former are Adult Sunday Schools: in the first, 60 men and women are learning to read; in the second, 30; and in the third, 60. The children are growing up under the influence of Christian ordinances, education, and other advantages; the Lord's Supper is regularly administered every month; and the Services, as far as they can be by a Layman, held twice on the Lord's Day. The people all join in the responses, as in an English village Congregation; and they have respectable buildings for Churches, to which the people have contributed liberally themselves. Generally, throughout the whole Mission, the people are making every effort to erect good and substantial Churches. Female Education, also, is much more thought of and desired than it was; and as the Catechists have generally married the girls educated in the Female Boarding Schools in each Mission, the influence of these educated women, located in each village, appears to be the most salutary. I am also disposed to think that the effect of Christianity on the people is visible in their more cleanly appearance, more industrious habits, and, the natural and legitimate consequence, more wealth, and more independence of character. The experience of one of the Missionaries has led him to think that he notices this; and though, on a matter which one had not time to investigate, I would speak very doubtfully of the result of any observations of my own, yet, as far as they went, they confirmed this opinion.

In respect to religious knowledge:—through the kindness of the Missionaries, I expounded the Scriptures to the people in almost every village; and, according to the excellent practice in Tinnevelly, I examined and questioned the people throughout, leading them from the particular passage to the chief truths of the Gospel: and I am of opinion, that, in the most cultivated districts—Satankoollam and Meignanapooram—the Congregations are generally better able to state and explain the great truths and facts of Scripture than in most Village Congregations in England.

But the inquiry will be made respecting VITAL CHRISTIANITY. I would answer, that, as in England, wherever the Gospel is faithfully preached, and the Sacraments duly administered, and labour diligently and constantly bestowed, and the fruits of it are outwardly visible in moral and mental improvement, and a due regard to ordinances in the whole Congregation, we are justified in believing that there the Holy Spirit is secretly drawing souls to Christ, and carrying on His work of sanctification. But many instances can be brought forward of the fruits of the Spirit bearing witness to His presence and power; and opportunities were presented to me of conversing with several who could speak wisely and experimentally of the things of the kingdom of God. It would occupy too much space to detail the conversations here.

Another evidence of the increasing influence of the Gospel, and the state of the people, is the largeness of their contributions to different objects—the Poor Fund, the Church-Building Societies, the Tamul Book Society, and the Catechists'-Widows' Fund.

Lastly, in every quarter I found all concurring in assuring me that Heathenism is wasting away throughout the country, and losing its hold over the people: the effect of Christianity has been to make the people ashamed of it. They are becoming indifferent to it; the Pesâchis are less feared; devil-dancing is less sought for. I am not here speaking of the Brahmins and the inhabitants of the large towns, but of the village-population, among whom the moral power of nearly 30,000,* professing Christianity, of whom nearly the whole were, twenty-five years ago, Heathen, must be very considerable. It cannot be supposed that the assembling of 2500 Christians under a pandàl, to join with Bishop Wilson in prayer and praise, and to hear the Gospel from his lips, or the presence of nearly as large a number at the laying the foundation of Meignanapooram Church, afterward sitting down together by torchlight to supper, could take place without its effect.

Causes of the Improved Character of the Mission.

The cause of this improvement in the Tinnevelly Mission, and the bright prospects of still greater advancement, is indeed but one, as primary—God's blessing upon it. But the chief cause visible to us, by which He has caused His servants' work to prosper, appears to me to have been THE DIVISION OF THE MISSION INTO DISTRICTS, AND THE RESIDENCE OF A MISSIONARY IN EACH; and then, as necessarily following from that, a more careful supervision of the Catechists—increased instruction bestowed upon them—greater care in the selection of them—more frequent visits to the Congregations—more regularity in Divine Worship—the administration of the Lord's Supper in the chief and most centrical villages—greater experience in the work, and a more sure discovery of abuses—stricter discipline—the introduction of necessary regulations, &c.

Mr. Tucker urges the importance of increasing the number of Missionaries, and of their location in separate districts; and he thus emphatically sums up the result of his observation, and the experience of the Missionaries—

The location of Missionaries in the different districts appears to me—and I believe all the Missionary Brethren concur in this opinion—the principal cause of the improvement; and the carrying out this plan, and subdividing the districts, and locating a faithful Missionary in each subdivision, is the one great human means to be used for the advancement of true Religion among those now under instruction, and—the Lord alone blessing His servants in their work—the entire and speedy conversion of the whole body of the village population of the southern part of Tinnevelly, and the gradual conversion of that of the northern part, and of the Brahmins and other inhabitants of the larger towns.

Statistical View of the Mission.

Passing from these general testimonies respecting the state of the Tinnevelly Mission to a review of the Reports furnished by the Missionaries themselves, it appears that the number of persons under Christian instruction has not been increased during the last year: they amount to about 20,000. Of these, 7336 have received Baptism; 1220 having been baptized during the last year. The number of Communicants has also been increased during the last year by more than one-third of the original number, and amounts to 1619. The Schools have also undergone some increase, especially in the department of Female Education. The number of Schools is 158, and of Scholars 4217. The number of villages in which those under Christian instruction reside is 360, being nearly 50 more than last year.

*This estimate includes 10,000 connected with the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts.

The Mission is divided into six districts. The number of Catechists under each Missionary varies according to the size and circumstances of the district: the whole number is less than in last year. The Missionaries have laboured assiduously to improve the minds of their Catechists, by assembling them, in one instance weekly, in others once a fortnight, or at longer intervals, for the purpose of inspecting their Reports and Journals, exercising them in the Scriptures, and encouraging them in their work.

Bible and Reading Classes.

A pleasing feature in the operations, reported during the last year, is the progress made by Bible Classes and Reading Classes among the adults, in some of the districts. The Rev. John Devasagayam reports, respecting the Adult Classes, January 3, 1843—

The number of adults is 383: several are from 50 to 60 years old. Having been an eye-witness in several Schools, I cannot but adore the operation of the blessed Spirit in the hard hearts of my people, in giving them delight to sit on the ground and learn their letters by a little child, unconcerned at the shame with which inconsiderate people will think upon such good practice.

Baptisms—Caution of the Missionaries in admitting to this Sacrament.

The Missionaries are very cautious in admitting Candidates to Baptism, till they are satisfied of their sincere and intelligent profession of the Christian Faith. An instance may be given, to illustrate this statement, which will also convey a pleasing testimony of the desire which sometimes exists in the minds of the Candidates.

A young woman under Christian instruction was about to be married to one of the Catechists; but it was agreed that she should previously be prepared for admission to Christian Baptism. For that purpose she became a boarder in Mr. Pettitt's School, and began to learn to read, and soon expressed her desire for Baptism. Mr. Pettitt, however, considered that he had not as yet seen enough of her, and therefore refused her for the present. He writes, in his Report for the half-year ending December 31, 1842—

It would be impossible to describe the effect of this refusal, except, perhaps, by the verse, The kingdom of Heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force; for she begged me, in the most importunate way, to admit her, promising that she would do any thing, and learn any thing, that I should tell her. On my suggesting that her earnestness might arise from a wish to leave the School earlier, she replied, "No, Sir, I have no such thought: I'll stop in the School, and be your child as long as ever you like; but don't tell me to be a Heathen child any longer. Why do you tell me to be a Heathen, when I wish to be a Christian? Have I not been a Heathen long enough? I want to be Jesus Christ's child, and you won't let me. You told us that Baptism is the door of the Church: why don't you, then, let your child in?" I must confess that I could not resist such eloquence; and I have not seen cause to repent of having yielded to it since: she has given us the greatest satisfaction.

Another instance, of more than common interest, of the power of the Truth may be added from the Journal of the same Missionary—

May 28, 1843: Lord's Day—Asirvadapooram. I examined twelve Candidates for Baptism, and selected nine of them; among whom was a young man of Santhoshapooram, named Ponnan, now baptized by the name of Job, whose conversion to Christianity took place three years ago. His father, who had been a noted devil-dancer, advised him, on his death-bed, to join the Christians, as he had found the devils unable to assist him in the time of trouble; and agreeably to this advice, the young man, and the whole of his family, except his mother, placed themselves under the Catechist, came to live in the Christian village, and gave up their instruments of devil-worship and ornamented garments. His mother afterward followed their good example. He, his wife, and child, with his sister, a young woman 16 or 17 years of age, and a younger brother, were all admitted into the Christian Church, according to their earnest desire. They seemed deeply impressed with the administration of the Sacrament at the time; and when they came afterward to take leave of me, Job seemed so overjoyed as to be scarcely able to speak, and tears stood in the eyes of his wife.

TRAVANCORE.

COTTAYAM.

At Cottayam Five Missionaries of the Society are stationed.

The Rev. Benjamin Bailey is employed in the superintendence of Translations and of the Mission Press, together with the direct Mission work of preaching in the village of Cottayam.

The Rev. Henry Baker, and his son Henry, also in Holy Orders, are labouring together in the District surrounding Cottayam. Mr. Baker, jun., is located at Pallam, a village about seven miles from Cottayam, at which his father had lately erected a commodious and handsome Church, by means of private subscriptions.

General View.

The number of baptized persons who form the Congregations, under the pastoral charge of these Missionaries, is not exactly reported; but the Communicants amount to 212. There are 12 Schools, and 483 Scholars; and 7 Readers and 18 Schoolmasters are employed in the Mission.

The Rev. J. Chapman is Principal of the Cottayam College, assisted by the Rev. J. Johnson. The number of Students is 66. The prospects of this Mission are of a more encouraging kind than at any former period. The recent opening of two new and handsome Churches at Cottayam and Pallam—the Metropolitical Visitation of the Bishop of Calcutta, who preached to crowded Congregations in each of the Mission Churches—and the Confirmations lately held by the Bishop of Madras—have tended to revive and encourage the hearts of the Missionaries and their flocks, and to make a very important impression upon the minds of the Syrians and Romanists.

Delivery of the Bishop of Calcutta's Charge—Examination of the College Students.

In the College Chapel the Bishop of Calcutta delivered a Charge to the Missionaries of Travancore, seven in number, in which he gave his full sanction and his paternal encouragement to the principles upon which the Mission is conducted, and his views of the course to be pursued, under the present circumstances of the Syrian Church.

After Service, and the administration of the Holy Communion, the College Students were examined in the Greek Testament by the Bishop and his Chaplain, and prizes distributed. Mr. Pratt reports—

> The Students acquitted themselves satisfactorily. One, in particular, did very well indeed: he has had the advantage of Mr. Chapman's instructions much longer than the rest.

Testimony of the Bishop of Calcutta to the Progress of the Missions in Travancore.

The following is the important and encouraging testimony which the Bishop of Calcutta bore to the efficiency of the Travancore Missions, in his Charge, which has been since published—

> The progress of your Mission, Reverend Brethren, during the seven or eight years since this renunciation of you by the Metran took place, fills my whole heart with gratitude to Almighty God. A large number of persons was confirmed by your Bishop at his Primary Visitation in 1841:—at Cottayam, 118; at Allepie, 125; at Mavelicare, 72; at Pallam, also, a considerable number, as well as at Cochin and Quilon. The new College, erected with the portion of property awarded by arbitration to the Church Mission, now contains about 70 pupils, some of whom are under instruction with an ultimate view to sacred offices. The Schools are multiplying on all hands:—4 at Cottayam, 5 at Trichoor, 8 at Pallam, others at Mavelicare, containing between 500 and 1000 children altogether, and many of them females. The circulation of the translated Scriptures, and the avidity with which they are read on all hands, are most encouraging. The Congregations assembled each Sunday in your several new Churches are numerous: about 600, including children, were yesterday at Cottayam Church alone. The six beautiful buildings, erected and being erected for Divine Worship at Cottayam, Mavelicare, Pallam, Allepie, Trichoor, and Collatta—especially the noble Gothic Church at this Station of Cottayam, with its roof 50 feet in height, its area 90 by 60, and its tower 75 feet from the plane of site—are full of promise. Lastly, the general movement in men's minds, as your peaceable and pious proceedings become better known, and the Bible and Christian Schools have diffused more of the truth of the Gospel amongst the people; and the contrast between all this purity and light, and the corruptions and errors of their own worship, becoming more apparent to themselves daily; may lead us to expect great things in God's good time.

MAVELICARE.

Difficulties encountered at this Station.

The success with which it has pleased God to bless the zealous and uncompromising preaching of the Truth in this Station, is most wonderful and encouraging.

The city is famous as the head-quarters of Brahminism in Travancore; the residence of a Metran, and of numerous Romanized Syrian Ecclesiastics; a place of trade, of wealth, of public resort, and of notorious immorality. The Rev. J. Peet, our Missionary, stands his ground: but writes, in a Letter to the Rev. J .Tucker, dated Aug. 31, 1843:—

> Surrounded by untiring, crafty, potent foes, without a single powerful friend in this part of India to whom I might look for advice and protection .... I sometimes think my faith would entirely fail, were it not for the support of the Gospel, and the heart-upholding assurance that I share the sympathy, and have an interest in the prayers, of them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity .... We must, if faithful, contend with the powers of darkness, the demon of error, and the blind obduracy of souls most deadly opposed to their own best interests .... We have to cast from its elevated position, and trample under feet with indignation, the blasphemous creed which exalts the creature to the Redeemer's seat. We must, in a word, preach, without compromise, that only panacea for the world's woes, the great and saving doctrine of justification by faith.

General Progress and State of the Mission.

It is five years since Mr. Peet first resided here. At the end of the first year, 30 Members had joined his Congregation. He has now four Congregations, comprising 385 who have joined the English Church, and 120 Communicants.

His constant hearers amount to between 2000 and 3000. He is assisted by a Native Clergyman and two Native Deacons. He has seven Schools, containing above 200 Scholars; and a new and substantial Gothic Church, which will hold above 800, is in the course of erection, chiefly by means of a legacy of the late Hannah More.

The Bishop of Calcutta preached in Mr. Peet's Church; and Mr. Pratt writes—

I have hardly ever seen such earnest and attentive hearers.

ALLEPIE.

General View.

The Rev. J. Hawksworth—assisted by Mr. J. Ross, a Country-born Catechist, 5 Readers, and 13 Schoolmasters—conducts this Mission, which comprises a large Church, and Congregation of 500 persons, with 61 Communicants, 8 Schools, and about 300 Children.

Mr. Hawksworth reports, in a Letter to the Rev. J. Tucker, dated Feb. 1, 1843—

The quiet progressive working of the Mission has been uninterrupted. The attendance and attention at Church, and the general conduct of the Congregation, have been increasingly satisfactory.

In another Letter, dated Oct. 27, 1843, he reports—

In addition to the peace with which we have been blessed as a Congregation, I have been privileged to witness, in one or two instances, what has appeared to be the effectual working of the Holy Spirit, producing a holy abhorrence of sin, and humble gratitude for mercies received.

Throughout this District there appears to be a very manifest weakening of the influence of the Brahminical superstition. The Scriptures are read, and a spirit of inquiry is awakened, even among the heathen children.

In a Letter dated Nov. 22, 1843, Mr. Hawksworth writes—

The children in the Mission Schools have latterly talked about their school-lessons to their parents at home, and begun to ask startling questions about the use and propriety of idol-worship; so that the parents have taken alarm, and withdrawn many from instruction: but the children have kept their books, and often talk with their old teachers.

Baptism of a Convert from Heathenism.

One instance of conversion at this Station is of a peculiarly encouraging character, as evidencing how surely, though slowly, the work of grace may be carried on, through the teaching of the Holy Spirit, even without the fostering care and superintendence of a human teacher. In the Letter of Feb. 1, Mr. Hawksworth reports—

About three weeks since I admitted into the Visible Church of Christ a Convert from Heathenism, whose case has interested me much. Some six years ago, having become altogether dissatisfied with idol-worship, in which, at one time, he was very zealous, and not being able to discover how the worship of images in the Romish Church could be right, if the worship of idols in the Temple was wrong, he came a distance of about eighty miles to see the late Rev. T. Norton, of whose fame he had heard—I use his own words. Mr. Norton gave him a New Testament; and he returned home, where he carefully read the Word of God; as his knowledge of its contents, and his ability to quote chapter and verse, very satisfactorily proves. He visited Mr. Norton a second time; and received a Common-Prayer Book, which has since been well thumbed. A third time he came to Allepie, earnestly desiring to be baptized; but Mr. Norton had been taken to his Rest a few months before. I had but just entered on the Mission; was ignorant of the language; and felt that my inexperience prevented my passing a fair opinion as to his fitness for receiving Baptism. I recommended its being deferred; and after receiving some more portions of Scripture, he returned. On his coming again, the fourth time, I carefully examined him; and having discovered no corrupt motive, and being satisfied, not merely with his knowledge of the Christian doctrines and the duties of a professed follower of Christ, but also with his acquaintance with the leading facts of Scripture, I very gladly received him as a brother in Christ, and baptized him by the name of Emmanuel. At present he is with me; as I am desirous, as far as I can, to prepare him to bear the opposition of the Heathen, and to meet the arguments of the Romanists, with which, on his return home, he is likely to be assailed.

TRICHOOR.

In January 1842 the head-quarters of the Cochin Mission were removed to Trichoor, where the Rev. H. Harley resides. He is assisted in the work of the Mission by 1 Native Priest, 4 Readers, and 5 Schoolmasters.

General View—Visit of the Bishop of Madras.

The progress, during the two years, has been most encouraging, and calls for much gratitude and praise to the Lord of the harvest.

During the first year, 100 joined the Congregation. At the close of the second year it amounted to 155, with 45 Communicants; 11 of the Heathen having been baptized, and the rest having come out from the Roman-Catholic and Syrian Churches, and made a public profession of the Protestant Faith. Mr. Harley has received applications from distant places for Christian instruction; but he wisely confines his chief labour to Trichoor itself, endeavouring to improve those who have already come under Christian instruction, that they may be more thoroughly grounded in the Word of God, and help to diffuse the light among those who sit in darkness.

The Lord Bishop of Madras visited the Station in April of last year, and confirmed 27 Candidates.

There are 6 Schools, and above 200 children under daily Christian instruction.*

BOMBAY AND WESTERN-INDIA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1820.

6 European Missionaries.
1 European Catechist and Schoolmaster.
20 Country-born and Native Schoolmasters.

It is still the day of small things with respect to Missionary labours in Bombay and Western India.

BOMBAY.

The Rev. J. S. S. Robertson has been obliged to return home for a time, on account of ill health. The Rev. Henry Mellon has joined the Mission.

General View.

The Rev. G. M. Valentine has devoted as much time as his superintendence of the Money School would allow to the work of preaching the Gospel to the Heathen. On the Lord's-Day afternoon he conducts a Mahratta Service in the school-room: the Congregation amounts to 25 or 30 adults, mostly unbaptized Heathens. The converts are very few: there are only 3 Communicants, and, at present, no Candidates for Baptism.

Reports, continue to give satisfactory evidence of their sincerity. One of them is employed by a pious European Gentleman as a Catechist and Superintendant of Schools at Mahon, and appears to be diligently labouring for the good of the surrounding Heathen: the other continues to live with Mr. Valentine, receiving instruction in Latin, in addition to his regular studies in the Money School, and gives much satisfaction by his conduct.

Efforts in behalf of the Beni Israel—Their desire for the Old-Testament Scriptures.

Mr. M. Sargon, besides the superintendence of the Schools in and around Bombay, holds weekly meetings with the Beni Israel, which are attended by many adults, and often lead to much interesting discussion. Having been himself a Jew, he is regarded with much less jealousy than the Europeans.

In a Letter dated Oct. 14, 1843, Mr. Valentine writes—

Copies of the Scriptures are circulated among the Jews far more extensively than among any other portion of the Native population. All the Missionaries in Bombay bear testimony to the frequency of their calls, and the importunity with which the old and young crave the different parts of the Old Testament, as fast as they are translated and printed. We have also the satisfaction of knowing that the books thus distributed among them are valued and carefully preserved.

Education.

The Money School continues in a favourable state. There are two departments; the UPPER, consisting of 25 or 30 Pupils, who are under the immediate instruction of the Missionary, and the LOWER, containing from 65 to 70 boys, under Monitors and an English Master.

In the Letter previously quoted, Mr. Valentine remarks—

The Farish Scholarships are producing a beneficial effect, by increasing the respectability of the Institution, the diligence of the Pupils, and their disposition to remain a longer period under our care.

NASSUCK.

General View—Missionary Tours.

No change has taken place in the Labourers or in the prospects of this Mission. The Schools, which had been suspended on account of the expense and little apparent benefit, have not been resumed. No settled Congregation of hearers has yet been gathered.

The Rev. C. P. Farrar and the Rev. C. C. Mengé have taken extensive Missionary tours from Nassuck; preaching, on every opportunity, to the Heathen. In many villages they are gladly welcomed, and listened to with attention; often from 50 to 130 form their Congregation; but none have been compelled to come in and to sit down at *the Marriage Supper.

CEYLON MISSION.

Limited visible Progress of this Mission—a probable Cause thereof.

THIS Mission has now proceeded for twenty-five years, with far fewer hindrances and interruptions, through the failure of the health of the Missionaries, or through other causes, than most of the Society's Missions; yet the progress has been small, if we judge by the ultimate fruits for which we labour—the true conversion of souls to Christ.

One hindrance to the progress of real Christianity in this field appears to arise from the large proportion of nominal Christians, who scarcely differ in moral character, or intellectual attainments, or even in respect of attendance upon idolatrous rites, from the Heathen with whom they are mingled. These are the remains of a system, pursued by the former possessors of the Island, of holding out temporal inducements to the mere reception of Christian Baptism.

Formation of an Auxiliary Church Missionary Association.

During the past year a Ceylon Auxiliary Church Missionary Association has been formed by the European residents, with a good prospect of efficiency; and the Committee would indulge the hope, that it will be the means of conferring far more important benefits than mere pecuniary assistance, by awakening a more lively interest in the minds of the European Christians to the perishing state of the Heathen among whom they sojourn, and of encouraging a spirit of prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the Missionary efforts in their immediate neighbourhood.

* Further accounts of the Bombay and Western-India Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for July 1843, pp. 147—156.

Hopeful Prospect of a Native Ministry.

The chief success in this Mission hitherto has been in the higher departments of education. By means of District Seminaries, and the Christian Institution at Cotta, many promising young men have been trained up as Missionary Labourers. Two were ordained Deacons three years ago; and having used the office of a Deacon well, and passed an examination which the Bishop states to have been "most creditable to them," they were last year admitted to Priests' Orders by the Bishop of Madras. Three other Natives, having given satisfactory evidence of their faithfulness and ability as Catechists for several years, have been deemed worthy, by the Missionaries, of being proposed as Candidates for Holy Orders.

COTTA.

At this Station there has been no change in the body of Missionary Labourers. The Rev. J. Bailey and the Rev. F. W. Taylor, together with a Native Assistant Missionary, the Rev. C. Jayesinhe, superintend the general Missionary operations. The Rev. J. F. Haslam is the Principal of the Cotta Institution.

Congregations—Communicants—Baptisms.

A Native Congregation, comprising the school-children, the youths of the Christian Institution, and from 30 to 40 adults, assembles at Cotta. There are also 23 Congregations at the Schools in the various Out-stations: the average number of attendants is 967. The number of Communicants is only 40, including the Mission families. Seven adults, who had been for some time under constant weekly instruction, were admitted to Baptism during the last year. The Missionaries remark, in their Annual Report—

> They had not only obtained a sufficient knowledge of the elementary truths of Christianity, but professed sincerely, so far as could be judged, their intention of living consistently with their Christian profession.

Institution.

There have been from 25 to 30 students in the Institution during the last year. The conduct of the youths has been, on the whole, satisfactory, and they have made good progress in their study of Latin and Greek, and Mathematics, as well as General History and Science. Nine of the youths are Communicants. In a Letter, dated Nov. 20, 1843, Mr. Haslam writes—

> I have reason to hope that there is, in some of the youths, a sincere desire to live according to the Scriptures. In the conversations which I occasionally hold with them about Religion, I am sometimes pleased with the sentiments they express; but I do not depend very much upon this: we might, by merely relating conversations, give our friends in England a much too favourable impression of the characters of some of our people, while others might not have justice done to their sincerity.

Examination by the Bishop of Madras.

The Bishop of Madras, during his Visitation of Ceylon in the months of January and February in last year, examined the Students of the Institution, and thus speaks of the result, in a Letter to the President of the Society, dated March 28, 1843—

Being anxious both to ascertain, as fully as possible, the proficiency of the pupils, and also to manifest the deep interest I take in the Institution, I conducted the Examination almost entirely myself: and while questioning them in Holy Scripture, I put them through such a course of Theology as surprised all present. One Gentleman especially, an Officer of high rank, who had lately arrived from England, and who is indeed a devout soldier, declared that he was beyond measure astonished, not only at their accurate knowledge of the Bible, but at the quickness and ease with which they understood and entered into my meaning. . . . The whole of the first class showed a very creditable knowledge of the Greek Testament, and indeed of the Greek Language, in which they have been well grounded by the Rev. J. F. Haslam; and it was highly gratifying to me to hear them give a correct explanation of some word in one of the Evangelists, the grammatical meaning of which developed some important point of Christian doctrine or discipline. They passed, also, a very creditable examination in Modern History.

Schools—Adult Classes.

An English School for boys, and a School for girls, each containing from 70 to 80 scholars, are superintended by the Missionaries at Cotta. The Out-schools have been considerably reduced in number, in order that more vigilant superintendence may be bestowed upon those which are retained.

The number is now 806 boys and 437 girls; total, 1243.

Catechetical instruction is given weekly to a class of Native Adults, by the Native Assistant Missionary; and by Mrs. Bailey, to a class of Native Women, numbering often as many as 60.

General Review.

The Missionaries at this Station thus write, in their Annual Report—

We have indeed great cause for thankfulness, when we review the mercies of God bestowed upon us during the past year. Though we cannot tell of great and striking success attending our labours, yet we have reason to hope that they are not altogether in vain; but that the seed sown does, in some instances, spring up even now, and that it may do so, hereafter, in many instances which now seem discouraging.

KANDY.

At this Station the Rev. Messrs. W. Oakley and C. Greenwood have resided during the last year.

Discouragements from increasing Worldliness.

The increase of employment, and of the means of obtaining money, through the recent introduction of coffee-plantations into the neighbourhood, have led to much worldliness, to desecration of the Lord's Day—by making it a day of purchasing their supplies for the week—and to the withdrawal of children from the Schools.

The Annual Report of the Missionaries exhibits a decrease both in the number of Communicants and Schools. They write—

Our Congregations and Schools having been thinly and irregularly attended, we do not perceive much real good resulting from either. Still we would not be discouraged; but look to the promises of our God, and endeavour, by His help, to press forward.

BADDAGAME.

The Rev. Messrs. G. C. Trimnell and H. Powell have been labouring at this Station during the past year.

Congregations—Domiciliary Visits.

The Native Congregations, both on the Lord's Day and on Wednesday mornings, have continued at about the same average as last year. In their Annual Report the Missionaries remark—

There is great apparent attention; and we cannot but hope that there are some among them who hear the Divine Word to the enlightening and saving of their souls.

The Missionaries have also been diligent in preaching at the Schools, and at the houses of such of the respectable Natives as have been willing to call their neighbours together to hear the Word of God. They have also visited from house to house, pressing the message of Salvation upon their poor deluded neighbours.

Visitation of the Bishop.

The following passage is also extracted from the Missionaries' Annual Report—

We would not conclude our Report without mentioning with thankfulness the interesting and, we trust, profitable Visitation of our Station by the Bishop of the Diocese, who passed several days with us; encouraging and directing us by his counsel, confirming the weak and young in our Congregation, and also rebuking the disorderly. Thirteen members of our Congregation were confirmed by the Bishop; one person, who had caused a devil-ceremony to be performed for his child, who had been admitted to Christian Baptism, was excommunicated [by the Bishop] for three months; and two or three other members of the Congregation, who had been guilty of heathenish practices, or were known to have been present at an heathenish festival, were publicly rebuked. We are happy to say that the excommunicated person, having expressed his sorrow for his sin, and promising not to offend in the like way again, was permitted to join the Congregation after the appointed term of expulsion had expired.

It is hoped, that, by such use of wholesome discipline, the tone of Christian practice may be gradually raised, and the fatal blight, arising from a mere nominal profession of Christianity—at least within the influence of Missionary operations—be in some measure checked.

Schools—Female Education.

It was mentioned in the last Report that most of the Schools had been suspended, in the hope that they might be placed upon a more efficient footing, and that the parents might be induced to pay something for the education of their children. These hopes have not been yet fulfilled, and some have been re-opened upon the old plan; which, though far from satisfactory, appears to be the only one which, under present circumstances, is practicable.

Respecting Female Education the following important remark occurs in the Report of the Missionaries—

We do not doubt that much good will result from this branch of our labours. Here are more than 100 girls, who will be the mothers of the next generation, who, on six days in the week, attend prayers, hear the Scriptures read and explained, are exhorted and catechized, have the folly and wickedness of idolatry pointed out to them, and the excellency and necessity of Christianity preached to them. These we cannot think will be, as they grow up, an ignorant, deluded, heathenish race, like the generation that preceded them; nor do we think that the Word and Grace of God will fail to produce converting and saving effects upon some of them.

A notice from the Report of the Cotta Girls' Schools may still further illustrate the importance of this remark—

A few of the girls have been found remonstrating with their idolatrous parents against superstitious acts common among them; and in cases of affliction, children have been found by the side of their parents, reading to them that book which they are taught to believe can alone administer that comfort and consolation, of which, in such cases, they stand in need.

General Review.

Upon a general view of the operations at this Station, the Missionaries write, in their Report—

Our prospects, if not bright, are yet hopeful: the work of the Lord is going on, though it may not be prospering according to our desire.

. . . . There is still too much appearance of that fatal apathy in which this people seem to have been so long and so deeply sunk.

And Mr. Trimnell, in a Letter dated May 4, 1843, remarks—

In every department of our labour we long to see more decided effects of the Word of God: not merely the head informed, but the heart affected, the life renewed, a hungering and thirsting after life, a concern, deep concern, for the soul.

NELLORE.

By the appointment of a Government Chaplain at Jaffna, the Rev. W. Adley has been relieved from his English duties at that place, and is thus enabled to devote himself more exclusively to Nellore itself.

In the early part of the year comprehended in the following Report, presented to the Meeting of Missionaries in September last, a considerable change took place in the duties of the Missionaries, by the addition to the Nellore Station of the Church and Congregation at St. John's, Chundicully. This Church had, for nearly half a century, been the scene of the labours of the Rev. Christian David, a pupil of Schwartz. On his superannuation it was offered by the Government to the Church Missionary Society, on condition that provision should be made to supply the spiritual wants of the Congregation. Accordingly, since September 1842, the Rev. J. T. Johnston has regularly performed its Ministerial duties. This has caused a more distinct division of labour among the Missionaries at this Station, each having his own Congregation and separate sphere of clerical duties. The Seminary, which is under the superintendence of Mr. Johnston, is close to St. John's Church, Chundicully.

We extract the following passages from the Annual Report of the Missionaries—

Preaching and Visiting.

These have occupied no small portion of our time and care. Preaching has been maintained at the two Churches and the School Bungalows with regularity and interest. In connexion with Nellore there are twelve Congregations on the Lord's Day, and eight on week days; the Services of which are performed by the Missionary, Catechists, and Assistants. The duties are so arranged, that all the Catechists and Assistants are present at three Public Services weekly, performed by the Missionary alone. We may add that three Meetings are held during the week for the instruction of Females. On Lord's-Day Afternoon the Epistle and Gospel are explained to the school-girls and servants in the Church; and in the evening a Sermon in English is read to the young men, while the girls in the Boarding School are instructed in their own language. On Monday a Meeting for social Prayer is held by the Catechists, &c., among themselves; and on Thursday Morning, previous to giving instruction to the Schoolmasters and Catechumens, an hour is passed in informing them of the state and progress of Missions. On the Friday preceding the first Lord's Day in the month a preparatory Meeting is held with the Communicants. The attendance at the several places for Public Worship has been pretty uniform throughout the year. At the Lord's-Day and Wednesday-Morning Services at Nellore, the Church, which contains about 350 persons, is usually nearly filled with the school-children, Masters, and twenty or thirty adults from the neighbourhood. At the Bungalows the attendance is from five or six to fifteen or twenty adults, besides the children of the School. In general, the hearers listen with attention; and though the visible success of the Word preached has been apparently small, yet are we fully persuaded that the leaven has begun to work, and that the mass around us must, in due time, be affected thereby.

District or Village Visitation.

This has been maintained, so far as our duties would permit. The location of Catechists in the Villages, at short distances from each other, has been entered upon; two being thus placed, with every hope of their becoming useful to the people immediately around them.

Communicants—Baptisms.

The number of Communicants at Nellore is 44; 21 having been admitted during the year. The state of the Communicants in general is, perhaps, all that we could expect under existing circumstances.

Eighteen Adults, all Converts from Heathenism, have been baptized within the year comprehended in the last Annual Returns.

Persecution of Baptized Converts.

It may be mentioned, as some proof that the Lord is carrying forward His work in this field of labour, that He has permitted a spirit of persecution to arise against the recent converts. Mr. Adley writes, in a Letter dated July 6, 1843—

Some of those who have received the Sacrament of Baptism have been so much opposed by their relations and others, formerly friendly to them, as to amount to persecution. Under all the circumstances of their case, the sacrifices which they have made are by no means inconsiderable, and afford a cheerful proof of their sincerity, they being without any conceivable motive from the prospect of earthly advantage. One of them said to me, when encouraging him to faithfulness and perseverance, that he had counted the cost, and given up all for Christ.

The urgent Need of effectual fervent Prayer.

The following Extract from a Letter written by the Rev. G. C. Trimnell, and dated November 13, 1843, will form an appropriate conclusion to the Committee's notice of the Ceylon Mission. The views embodied in it have a more particular reference to his own Station; but they well represent the feelings of the other Missionaries respecting their Stations in other parts of the Island.

There seems to be some little gradual and continual advance in the mighty work of converting this moral wilderness into a beautiful field. I doubt not we make some progress in rooting up error, superstition, and prejudice, and in sowing the seed which, in due time, shall yield a rich and abundant harvest to the praise and glory of God, and the salvation of our fellow-men. We have already gathered some of the first-fruits. A great preparatory work has been accomplished. We find among the numbers around us, in whom we see not at present any real marks of spiritual conversion, much clearer views of many important truths than formerly they had, and a much greater readiness to acknowledge the claims of God and His Gospel, and the uselessness and folly of Heathenism, than we used formerly to find. In fact, we seem only to need a gracious shower of Divine Blessing. The ground has been prepared, and the seed sown. We now want the outpouring of the Spirit, to make it live and grow. We have prophesied unto the dry bones, and we have prophesied unto the wind, and we are now waiting—not ceasing, however, either to preach or to pray—in humble hope that the Lord will breathe into them the breath of life, that they may stand up an exceeding great army. This blessing may soon be granted, or it may be long withheld. Though it tarry, yet will we wait for it, believing that sooner or later it will assuredly come. We most deeply feel our need of the Divine Blessing. Oh that all our dear friends at home—all who take an interest in our work—all the supporters of our Society, would feel it deeply too! Oh that they did but consider how feeble is our arm, how weak is our strength, how utterly insufficient, in themselves, are all our labours; and that they would, in sincerity, and in earnest, and in faith, send up their hearts in prayer for the pouring down of God's Spirit and blessing upon us, and upon our people! It may not be difficult to find many willing to plead our cause with men. Oh that we could get more, many more, earnestly to plead our cause with God!*

NEW-ZEALAND MISSION.

COMMENCED 1815.

Mission Establishment:

12 European Missionaries.	3 European Female Teachers.
17 European Catechists.	268 Native Teachers & Schoolmasters.
1 European Printer.	27 Native Schoolmistresses.

Appointment of a New Governor of the Colony.

THE good providence of God was manifested toward New Zealand in the first appointment of a Governor, over the newly-formed Colony, who had the best interests of the Natives at heart. Upon his early and lamented death, another Governor has been appointed, and has sailed during the last year — Capt. Robert FitzRoy, R.N., late M.P. for Durham; who was well acquainted, by personal intercourse, with the New Zealanders, having commanded the "Beagle" sloop of war upon the South-Sea Station. Capt. FitzRoy has manifested a very deep interest in the welfare of the Natives; and in his wise and Christian counsels the Committee will be able to repose the most entire confidence.

Communications from the Bishop.

The last Report noticed the auspicious arrival of the Bishop of New Zealand in his diocese. By subsequent accounts, it appears that his Lordship had completed a Visitation of the whole island, during which he became personally acquainted with every member of the Society's Mission, with the state of the native population, and with the details of Missionary operations in all the districts. He has favoured the Committee with several most important communications. Two Letters have been already printed and circulated: others contain the results of his observations, for the confidential use of the Committee, together with various important practical suggestions. And the Committee rejoice in the fulfilment of their anticipations of the benefit to be derived from the introduction of Episcopacy into New Zealand: anticipations which led them to declare, in their Forty-first Report, that "on principle, and from a deep conviction of the necessity of the measure for their Missionaries in that island," they had "undertaken to aid largely in providing the endowment from the lands held by the Society in the island."

The Committee are very thankful to say that the testimony of the Bishop enables them to speak of the state of the Mission in no less encouraging terms than they have employed on former occasions. His Lordship thus concludes his first Letter, dated July 29, 1842—

I hope this Letter will have put you in some degree in possession of my feelings toward the Natives, and toward the Mission. If you have gathered from it that I have imbibed the strongest regard for this native people, and a very high respect and esteem for the members of the Mission in general, you will have drawn a right conclusion from this very imperfect statement of my real feelings. I would rather that you should give me credit for feeling more than I express, than incur the danger of seeming to exaggerate beyond the facts of the case. God grant that the facts may every day more and more speak for themselves, and prove this country to be, as I believe it to be, the ground-plot of one of the most signal mercies which God has ever granted to the Missionary exertions of His Church.

In the last Letter which has been received from his Lordship, of twelve months' later date, the Committee are assured that further acquaintance with his Missionary Clergy has confirmed the favourable opinion which he had entertained of their piety, ability, and general character.

Ordinations—Death of the Rev. J. Mason.

On the 25th of September 1842, the Bishop admitted the Rev. J. Mason, a Missionary of the Society, to the order of Priesthood, at Wellington, the Ordination Service having been translated into the Native Language. Between 300 and 400 Natives were present. The Bishop writes, Nov. 3, 1842—

It was a most interesting ceremony to me, as being my first Ordination; and I was very glad that the first exercise of this function of my office should take place in the presence of a Native Congregation. After the Service, I distributed among them copies of the small edition of the Gospel of St. Matthew, printed, at my request, by the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, with a small label, containing a memorial of the day.

It pleased God, in His inscrutable providence, to remove this Labourer from his earthly career, by an early and sudden death: he was drowned in passing an estuary, on a Missiosionary tour, on the 5th of January 1843.

The Bishop, upon the request of the Committee, has regarded all the Catechists of the Society as Candidates for Deacons' Orders; and determined to dispense, in their case, with a knowledge of the original languages of Scripture, and to "consider proficiency in the native language, and the visible signs of a blessing upon their exertions among the Natives, as a qualification for Deacons' Orders." For Priests' Orders his Lordship is not prepared to relax the usual standard of qualification required in England.

On Trinity Sunday, 1843, Mr. Richard Davis, an old and very valuable Catechist of the Society, was ordained Deacon, the Service being conducted in the Native Language, in the presence of a Congregation of 400 Natives, 300 of whom afterward received the Lord's Supper with the Bishop and Clergy.

In September last Mr. S. M. Spencer, who went to New Zealand as a Catechist three years ago, was also ordained Deacon.

General Progress of the Gospel.

The Committee are enabled also to speak with increased confidence of the extent to which the Gospel has spread among the Natives of New Zealand, and the essential change which it has produced in all their moral habits.

The position of every Settlement of any considerable size in the Northern Island is now known, and to all the Message of Salvation, it is believed, has been conveyed; though, of course, great difference is to be found in the degree in which it has been received. Even in many places unvisited, as yet, by Missionaries, the Gospel is read, and Divine Service regularly performed, in buildings erected by the Natives and set apart for Divine Worship.

War has almost entirely ceased; and where it has occurred lately, it has been carried on in a very mitigated form. At Oruru, near Kaitaia, where two numerous opposing bodies of warriors were collected, and hostilities had commenced, the Bishop and the Missionaries were allowed to attempt a mediation. On the Lord's Day all warfare was suspended, by mutual consent; and one of the principal Chiefs was found by the Bishop in his Pa, on the morning of that day, reading the Service to his people.

Theft and murder are of very rare occurrence: no one, in England, would think of living in houses so unprotected as those in which every Missionary lives, without the least ground of apprehension.

Wherever full opportunities of Christian instruction and pastoral superintendence have been enjoyed, there the graces of the Spirit are often manifested as fully as in the most favoured parishes in England.

The Bishop writes, in the Letter of July 29, 1842—

Among the Christian Natives I have met with most pleasing instances of the natural expression of deep and earnest feelings of Religion. In their affectionate and childlike behaviour to their Missionaries it is impossible not to recognise their sense of incalculable benefits derived from them. The Missionary is their friend and adviser on all occasions, having gained their confidence by imparting that which they know to be the most valuable of all knowledge. I can only add, in few words, that my experience of the native character, in the highest sense, has more than equalled all my anticipations.

Northern District.

The number of Stations in this district is eight; connected with which there are 10 Churches, built with boards, and between 30 and 40 native-built rush Chapels.

General View of the Stations.

TEPUNA.

This is one of the oldest of the Society's Stations. Mr. John King reports respecting it, July 1, 1843—

A general inquiry after the Truth is kept up among the Natives throughout the Island. We do not witness any remarkable overflowing of feeling, or any thing extraordinary attending their conversion, either in individuals, or in large numbers; but the work continues to increase; and we will therefore be thankful for what God has wrought, and trust Him for future success.

Baptism of Waikato and his Family.

The Rev. H. Williams writes respecting this Station, July 19, 1843—

I yesterday returned from Tepuna, where latterly a very great change has taken place. The Chapel would not hold those who came. Your old friend Waikato*, who for many years was as hard as the nether millstone, was, with his wife and child, received into the Church by baptism; and about fifty afterward partook of the Lord's Supper. Hongi, you are aware, has been long since dead: also Tuai (Tooi). Waikato, in selecting a name for himself, observed that Mr. Pratt had been a great friend to him when in England, and he would therefore be called "Hohaia Parata" (Josiah Pratt). His wife was called after Mrs. Marsden. The day was truly gratifying to me; and the way in which it was celebrated may be equally gratifying to you.

WANGAROA.

Mr. James Shepherd reports, June 30, 1843—

The Congregations have not been so good as in times past. . . . I have visited the out-posts as heretofore, for the purpose of affording religious instruction. The members in general hail my visit with apparent pleasure: they usually have some important inquiry to make, which I answer to the best of my ability. The average number of our Congregations, including those of the out-posts, is at least 340.

I am thankful to say that our Native Teachers render us a good deal of service. Their number at present is eight.

PAIHÍA.

Administration of the Lord's Supper by the Bishop.

Respecting this Station the Bishop writes—

On Sunday, June the 26th, I administered the Lord's Supper to 150 Native Communicants at Paihía, and was much struck with their orderly and reverential demeanour. All were dressed in European clothing; and, with the exception of their colour, presented the appearance of an English Congregation. In few English Churches, however, have I heard the responses repeated in the deep and solemn tone with which every New Zealander joins in that portion of the Service.

---

* Hongi (Shunghee) and Waikato (Whykato), two New-Zealand Chiefs, visited England for a few months in the year 1820.

General Progress.

The Rev. H. Williams reports, for the year ending June 30, 1843—

We are thankful to observe that this part of the Mission has not only been enabled to stand its ground, but that it has become more consolidated and firmly based, and divine knowledge more extensively circulated. We therefore give thanks to the God of all mercies, believing that He will cause all things to work together for the good of His people, and the glory of His Holy Name.

The Press.

The Printing-press of the Mission is at this Station, and is now under the sole charge of Mr. J. Telford, Mr. W. Colenso being under preparation for Holy Orders. The chief work which has occupied the press during the last year has been the printing of a Dictionary, New Zealand and English, which had been drawn up by the Venerable Archdeacon Williams. Mr. Telford writes, May 20, 1843—

I trust that its typography, &c., will at least not lessen the lustre of the Paihían Press.

WAIMATE.

The Bishop's View of this Station.

His Lordship writes—

The first sight of the Waimate by moonlight revived all our recollections of England: the white Church: and the Mission-houses, with their neat gardens and fields, presenting an appearance of settled comfort, which is scarcely to be found in any other part of New Zealand.... I look upon the Waimate as the heart of the Mission. More than 400 Native Communicants, I am informed, sometimes assemble there at the Lord's Table. Its Church is at present the best in the Colony. The neighbourhood is chiefly occupied by the sons of Missionaries, all, as far as I could observe, showing the effects of early education, by pursuing a line of conduct far more regular than that of ordinary settlers. A great effort, I think, ought to be made to maintain and extend the influence of this Station.

The spiritual duties of the Station have been undertaken by the Bishop and his Chaplain: the Rev. W. C. Dudley has charge of the villages within five miles of the Waimate, and the Rev. Richard Davis has the charge of the more distant villages, varying from five to thirty miles.

St. John's College.

The Farm at the Waimate has been rented by the Bishop; and his Lordship has commenced a Collegiate Establishment, which he has named St. John's College, for the preparation of candidates, both English and Native, for Holy Orders. This Institution is independent of the Society, and under the sole direction of the Bishop; but the Committee trust that it is calculated, under the Divine blessing, to strengthen the Mission.

KORORARIKA.

Importance of this Station—Popery.

Of this Station the Bishop writes—

On Sunday, July the 3d, I assisted the Rev. R. Burrows at Kororarika, where I found a very respectable wooden Chapel, occupied alternately by a Native and English Congregation. His position there is very important, as that place is the head-quarters of the French Bishop; and the best proof of Mr. Burrows' usefulness is, that so little progress has been made by the French Missionaries, even in their own immediate neighbourhood. I have been unable to ascertain the slightest foundation for the Bishop's statement of many thousand Natives having joined him. His converts, as far as I can learn, are not numerous.

Respecting the activity of the Agents of Popery in this neighbourhood, the Rev. H. Williams remarks, May 16, 1843—

Thus do they hover around, seeking whom they may catch, and will baptize any who will receive it: they will almost force it upon them. I am thankful to say that I do not know one who has left us to join them, though many have left them to join us.

KAITAIA.

Impediments from the War at Ōrūru—General good conduct of the Christian Natives.

The Missionary work has been here much impeded; for it was in the neighbourhood of this Station that the fighting took place, between hostile tribes, to which allusion has already been made. The dispute arose respecting the right to a certain portion of land, and had continued for seven or eight years. A Chief, whose Christian conduct had hitherto been most satisfactory and hopeful, unhappily took an active part in the affair. Above fifteen lives were lost, and many were seriously wounded. But of the Christian Natives in general the Missionaries report that they were altogether opposed to the quarrel; that they went in obedience to the commands of the principal Chief, declaring to the Missionaries that they thought it their duty so to do. The Rev. Henry Williams states, in his Report for the year ending June 30, 1843—

I was much pleased with the disposition shown by the tribes from the Bay of Islands and Hokianga to obtain peace, though their advantage, in point of numbers, was considerable. The killed and wounded were by them treated with every respect, and restored to their friends.

Peace was ultimately restored by both parties agreeing to withdraw from the disputed territory.

Middle District.

This district comprises seven Stations. The native-built Chapels, in connexion with the several Stations, amount to nearly 100, and the Congregations to an aggregate of nearly ten thousand.

WAIKATO.

Preservation of the Christian Natives from the Snares of Colonization.

From the proximity of this Station to Auckland apprehensions were entertained that the faith and simplicity of the Native Christians would be greatly injured. On this subject the Bishop writes—

Free intercourse [with Auckland] has had the good effect of encouraging habits of industry, neatness, and cleanliness; but, on the other hand, it has taken the Natives away from the care of their Missionaries for long periods, and has introduced irregularity, especially into their Schools. Still, their habits of daily worship remain unchanged: every morning and evening they are still heard singing their hymns, in the temporary huts which they have built in the little bays near the town.

The Rev. R. Maunsell writes, Feb. 2, 1843—

Our proximity to Auckland has not at present, I am thankful to report, produced among my people, to any extent, the evils of which I was once apprehensive. At first, there was certainly a decline of interest in religious subjects; but the old tide of religious habits seems to have returned; and the Services, Schools, and Reading Meetings, are as regularly attended as ever.

Account of Putiki, in Waiheke, and its Native Teacher, William Jowett.

An Out-Station connected with Waikato, where a Congregation has been gathered and trained by a Native Teacher, will afford an interesting and encouraging example of the wonderful manner in which the Lord has carried on His work in New Zealand. The Bishop visited the place, in the first instance, on the 6th of June 1842, in company with Mr. G. Clarke; and he thus describes the scene—

On our way, we called at Waiheke, a beautiful island in the frith, where I saw the first specimen of a thoroughly native village; and I can assure you the sight filled me with joy. We were met on the beach by the Native Teacher, William [Jowett], a man of tall stature, and face deeply tattooed; but with all the mildness and courtesy of a civilized Christian. He showed us his Chapel, a large room, built, after the fashion of the country, of reeds neatly bound upon a strong framework of wood; and invited us to pass the night in a house which he was building for himself, of the same materials, but with glass windows presented to him by the Chief Justice. The house, he says, is to have four rooms; one for eating, one for sleeping, one for cooking, and one for a study—for writing has now become one of the greatest pleasures of the New Zealanders, and it is very unusual to find one who cannot both read and write.

A few weeks afterward the Bishop again visited the same spot, and thus writes—

I have been occupied in visiting the native villages in the neighbourhood of Auckland; among others, the village of Putiki, in Waiheke, already mentioned, in compliance with a well-written invitation from the Native Teacher. Wirima [the native pronunciation of William] received me in his new house with a natural politeness and good feeling which would not have disgraced an English gentleman, and provided every thing for our comfort, to the best of his ability. On this occasion I was accompanied by Mr. Maunsell. Saturday evening was spent in reading and explaining Scripture; and the Sunday in Divine Service and School. The School was conducted in the most orderly manner; grown-up men, in full English dress, standing round in classes, according to proficiency, and reading and taking places with all the docility and good humour of children. After the reading, they marched in perfect order into the Chapel; where they repeated by heart a chapter of the New Testament with great accuracy, and were afterward questioned by Mr. Maunsell. All this was the more surprising, because this village is but rarely visited by an English Missionary, since the illness of Mr. Fairburn prevented him from going about among the Natives.

A third notice of the same village occurs in a Letter, dated Feb. 27, 1843, from Mr. Maunsell—

I have just returned from a very interesting trip along the western bank of the Thames, in which I have seen a large portion of the Natives who have been here before under my ministerial care: they are indeed in a most promising condition. I found a large number of Candidates for Baptism at each Settlement; but administered that Ordinance to only a few. It was very gratifying, after a ten months' absence, to witness the cordiality and affection with which they welcomed me. It was with much gratitude to the Great Head of the Church, that I found, on inquiry, that the number of lapses had been remarkably few. On my arrival at the last Settlement, Putiki, a messenger was immediately despatched to the neighbouring cultivators; and after sunset a goodly number poured in from all quarters. I finished my tour on Lord's-Day evening, by partaking, with a little party of twenty, of the precious memorials of the death of Christ. In the morning I had examined a class of thirty Candidates for Baptism. Putiki is a Settlement on a large island about thirteen miles from hence—Auckland: its Native Teacher, Jowett, I baptized about four years ago; and he has since continued to rise rapidly, as well in Christian practice as in the attainment of the habits and manners of civilized life. The formation of the township in his neighbourhood, instead of checking, has materially stimulated his energies; and his little charge—130—with himself, form as pleasing a community of Native Christians as could be found in New Zealand. Though I took him by surprise, I found his house in good order, and exceedingly clean; and without the least scruple—which I am sorry to say is too much needed in other places—I occupied the room appropriated for the reception of his visitors.

Dispute respecting an Eel-Fishery—Influence of Christianity.

During the last year a dispute as to the title of property occurred in this district, which had nearly led to bloodshed. But the mediation of Mr. B. Ashwell, the Catechist, and of several Christian Chiefs, through the blessing of God, averted the evil. The contending parties met, to the number of 300 or 400 armed men on each side: many of them were Christian Converts. The speech of one of the mediating friends, a recent convert to Christianity, was in the following striking language—

Some of you have professed to belong to Christ for many years. What harm has He done you, that you should now forsake Him? We have just joined the believing people: presently the words of Christ will be verified, that the first shall be last and the last first. Don't throw away the Word of God.

The contending parties at length separated, and Mr. Ashwell writes, March 10, 1843—

Thus the affair has ended for a time; but it is possible it may be renewed at a future period. All said, that, but for the Gospel, much blood would have been shed. Gospel principles have prevailed. To the God of that blessed Gospel be all the glory!

Eastern District.

This district contains five Stations, viz.: Turanga, in Poverty Bay, at which Archdeacon Williams resides—Uwawa, 36 miles North of Turanga, where Mr. C. Baker has commenced a new Station—Rangitukia, near Waiapu, where another new Station has been commenced by Mr. J. Stack—Kauakaua, in Hicks' Bay, where the Rev. G. A. Kissling is stationed—and Opotiki, under the care of Mr. J. A. Wilson, which has been transferred from the Middle District, in consequence of its more immediate connexion with this district. Native Teachers have also been sent to various Stations to the South of Turanga, even as far as to the neighbourhood of Port Nicholson, so that the whole of the Eastern Coast has been brought into communication with the Missionaries of this district.

The Bishop's Visit to Kauakaua.

Previously to the location of Mr. Kissling at Kauakaua, Christian instruction was communicated by means of a Native Teacher, and such occasional visits as Archdeacon Williams could pay to an Out-station at the distance of 80 or 100 miles from his residence; yet, upon the Bishop's visiting the place, at a time and in a manner the most unexpected, the following is his Lordship's description of the scene—

Being detained by contrary winds off the East Cape, I landed on Sunday, August the 7th, in Hicks' Bay, at a village called Kauakaua, where the Natives were just assembling for Afternoon Service, under the direction of a Native Teacher sent by the Rev. W. Williams. The Chapel was crowded with a most attentive and orderly Congregation. The change in the habits of the Natives on this part of the coast, since the establishment of the Mission, is so great, that even the master of a small coasting-vessel—a class of men not usually favourable to the Mission—spoke of it as exceeding any thing that he could have believed.

Baptisms—Communicants—Fruitless Efforts of Popery.

From the Report of this district for the year ending June 1842, which has been only lately received, it appears that before the formation of the new Stations 590 Adults had, in the course of the year, received baptism; and that the Communicants amounted to 451. An attempt had been made by a Popish Priest to effect a settlement upon the East Coast at Table Cape; but an opportunity was taken for a discussion, between the Missionary and the Priest, of some of the leading points at issue between Protestants and Papists, before a large body of Natives, which was followed by a happy result; for a good number of the followers of the Priest came over to the Missionary, and became Candidates for Baptism. The Priest made a strong effort in different parts of the neighbourhood; but after nine months' trial he withdrew from the district altogether.

Future Prospects.

With respect to the future prospects of this district, Archdeacon Williams reports—

The number of Candidates for Baptism has been augmented since the baptism of this large body, showing an increased desire for admission to this Ordinance: still, it cannot be denied, that there is very much of mere profession. A powerful influence is kept up over the moral character of the community; but in many it proceeds, not from a hearty assent to that which is right, but from the inconvenience of taking a course at variance with that which is generally taken. But this fact furnishes a strong proof of the general prevalence of Christian principle. While, therefore, we may be permitted to rejoice that so little evil has yet appeared among those professing Christianity, we rejoice with trembling, knowing that offences must come as soon as a sifting-time shall arrive. We are prepared to expect a reaction; and, in the mean time, strive to build them up in the Faith, depending upon the intercession of the Great Head of the Church, who is ever praying that their faith may not fail.

Western District.

The Rev. C. L. Reay has been placed at Nelson till his ultimate position can be satisfactorily fixed. He is actively engaged among the Natives of the Middle Island, as well as exerting a beneficial influence in their favour among the Settlers at Nelson.

WAIKANAE.

Visit of the Bishop.

The Bishop visited this Station in the course of his first journey through the Island, and thus speaks of the Society's Missionary, the Rev. O. Hadfield—

Mr. Hadfield is highly respected along the whole of this coast, not only by the Natives, but even by the sailors employed in the whale-fisheries at Mana and Kapiti. His house is in the native village, a situation generally supposed to be inconvenient, but, I believe, very advantageous for the instruction of the Natives in English habits.

On the morning after my arrival, a large Congregation assembled in the Chapel; and I afterward went to the School, at which I saw 400 Natives, arranged in classes in a very orderly manner. I passed through the whole of the classes, and was much pleased with the proficiency of the people in reading and writing, and, above all, by their acquaintance with the Scriptures. In fact, there is scarcely an intelligent Native who will not readily find any passage in the New Testament which may be quoted. A new Chapel is being constructed at Waikanae, the materials for which are ready on the ground. Among the rest, I saw the ridge-piece, of one solid tree, 76 feet in length—a present from the neighbouring Tribe at Otaki; who, till Mr. Hadfield's arrival, had been at enmity with the people of Waikanai, but have now forgotten their animosities, and presented them with this appropriate peace-offering.

The following is the Report, by the Rev. O. Hadfield, for the Year ending June 30, 1843—

My chief employment, during the past year, has been ministering to the Natives resident at Waikanae, Otaki, and the immediate neighbourhood. I believe there is a steady improvement in their character and conduct, springing from an increased acquaintance with the doctrines of the Gospel.

The Schools which I have established and maintained at these places, and in the vicinity, have been very conducive to the advancement, among the Natives, of that knowledge which gives them the power of searching the Scriptures for themselves. I have baptized during the year 244 adults—187 males, and 57 females—and 75 children. All the adults, of whose conduct I have previously a good account, are strictly examined by me, in order that I may be well assured of their Christian knowledge before I admit them to this Sacrament. I administer the Lord's Supper about every two months, or sometimes at shorter intervals, at both Waikanae and Otaki. The Communicants at Waikanae average about 140, and at Otaki about 115.

I have lately had the gratification of witnessing the remnant of the heathen party living at Otaki, and in the neighbourhood, turn from their former ways, and come to the House of God, not only to seek instruction, but to bow down as the true worshippers of God. Having met with great opposition from this party for nearly four years, during which period they have diligently endeavoured to find fault with my conduct and that of the Christian Natives, it is somewhat satisfactory to find them now joining us; and professing a desire to be guided by the same principles, which alone, they now willingly confess, tend to the production of praiseworthy conduct, and to giving peace and comfort to the mind.

The Natives of Waikanae have been actively engaged, during many months, in erecting a new Place of Worship: it is now almost complete, and promises to be one of the best of its character in the country. The whole of their labour is gratuitous; and I have been surprised at their steady and regular work.

There is a considerable population in the river Manawatu who are now exhibiting increased attention to Religion. I went, in the summer, a hundred miles up the river. All the Natives there are in the habit of meeting daily for prayers, and there are Baptized Teachers among them. I frequently visit Te Rewarewa, ninety miles up the river, where the Natives have built a good Church, and are regular in their attendance at School.

WANGANUI.

Population of the District—Progress of the Gospel.

Upon the death of Mr. Mason, the Rev. R. Taylor removed from the Waimate to undertake the charge of this district. In his last Letter, dated Aug. 8, 1843, Mr. Taylor writes—

I have been about eighty miles up the river, and taken the census, which amounts to 2000; and I have also visited Taranake and taken the census there, which amounts to 3000. The entire population of my district may amount to 9000.

It is most pleasing to observe the steady progress of the Gospel in this part: perhaps a better proof cannot be given than Mrs. Mason having paid over to me 30*l.* received for native books sold; and I have already disposed of 15*l.* worth, half of which belongs to the British and Foreign Bible Society.

General Remarks upon the New-Zealand Mission.

In making so favourable a Report of the present state of Religion in New Zealand, the Committee would desire to guard against the impression that they consider this state of things as resting upon a foundation already secure. The altered state of circumstances, since the colonization of the Island, is already beginning to produce a visible effect. Ten years ago, the rising generation received the Gospel with all the zeal and eagerness natural to youth, when it was presented to them under a pure and vital profession. They are now the main support, under God, of the Native Church. But the generation now rising are leaning toward the worse side of English manners, and neglecting their religious duties. The sight of English Settlements without Churches, and of hundreds of Christian people who give no visible sign of their fear or love of God, is producing an evil effect.

To counteract these lamentable tendencies, it is evidently most important that, in all the Stations where Christianity has already gained any considerable number of converts, a fixed ministry should be introduced. The constant presence of a Resident Minister, the establishment and superintendence of Schools, the frequent recurrence of the visible ordinances of the Church, are the means to which, under God, we must look for the establishment and perfection of the work already accomplished. To this subject the Bishop is devoting the powerful energies of his mind, and the Committee will gladly co-operate, so far as their province extends, to the same end.*

BRITISH-GUIANA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1827.

Mission Establishment:

2 European Missionaries.	1 European Schoolmaster.
1 European Catechist.	1 European Female Teacher.

This Mission is under the charge of the Rev. J. H. Bernau and Mr. E. Christian. The appointment to it of the Rev. J. Pollitt, formerly a Catechist in Jamaica, was noticed in the last Report. His health, however, and that of Mrs. Pollitt, was so seriously affected by the climate, that they were obliged to quit the Mission on the 12th of October, and again return to England.

Visit to the Indians.

In October 1842 Mr. Bernau made a journey among the Indians along the Coast and the River Pomeroon. He was accompanied by Erie, a converted Carribeese Chief, and

* Further accounts of the New-Zealand Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for July 1843, pp. 145—147; August 1843, pp. 175—196; December 1843, pp. 273—275; January 1844, pp. 6—16; and February 1844, pp. 39—45.

Frederick, an Arrowack Interpreter. In this journey Mr. Bernau had many interesting conversations with the Indians. On the 20th of October they reached an encampment in the Pomeroon, and gave notice of their intention to visit the people. Mr. Bernau writes—

We proceeded thither the following morning; and to our joy about eighty Carribees collected during the day. Toward evening, Erie began addressing them on the object of our visit; and never have I witnessed a people more attentive than these. They seemed to hang upon the lips of the Preacher, who, in a glowing and simple manner, stated the love of God in having given His Son for them, that through Him they might be saved. "We have never heard this before," replied one of the Chiefs: "we could wish you lived among us, then we and our children would learn more of that good word; but there is none that careth for us."

Mr. Bernau proceeds—

Having myself retired to rest, they invited Erie to come into the house in which they had slung their hammocks, and tell them something more. He consented; and, seating himself with them around the fire, engaged their attention till four o'clock in the morning. At last they began to ask questions, till the conversation became so loud, that I awaked, and found that the sun had risen upon us. As soon as they perceived that I was stirring, they came up stairs, and, seating themselves around, desired once more to hear of God. My sympathies were awakened when I beheld this interesting people; but how to help them I knew not.

Employment of Native Agency.

Mr. Bernau has found himself able to employ Natives trained in the Mission in furtherance of the work in which he is engaged. On the 24th of March, 1843, he writes—

Seeing that it has pleased God to bless us with some Indians truly converted and able in conversation, and having observed and watched their conduct, I at last made up my mind to send them among their respective tribes as messengers of peace. From that period we have had many visits from people far and near; among whom, some have come to settle.

Translations.

Mr. Bernau has made some progress in translations into the Arrowack. On the 18th of January he writes—

I have at length succeeded in translating the Lord's Prayer into the Arrowack Language, and am now beginning with the Ten Commandments: then, if the Lord permit, I wish to translate part of the Prayer-Book, and hereafter, if strength be given, the New Testament.

Administration of Baptism.

Mr. Bernau reports, January 4, 1844, the administration of Baptism to eighteen adults on Christmas Day, 1843; and to six of their children on the following Lord's Day. He adds—

I am rather cautious and backward in administering the initiatory rite, for what does it avail to swell the ranks of professors when few are willing to be confessors? nor would I boast in the one class, if put to shame by the other. The Lord keep them unto eternal life!

State of the Schools.

In the same Letter Mr. Bernau thus writes concerning the Schools—

Our Schools are on the increase, and the children progressing; but it requires some time before they know what they are about. This is owing to their being of different tribes, and speaking languages foreign to each other. We prefer taking them when very young, knowing that little can be done with those of advanced years. These children are the flower of our Mission in British Guiana; and I humbly hope they will not wither, but bring forth their fruits in due season. The number of boarders amounts to fifty at present. The parents rejoice to see them at their work, and are not backward to contribute to their support, as much as in their power.

General View.

Reviewing the state of the Mission, in the same communition, Mr. Bernau thus remarks—

Our [Indian] population at the Grove is increasing, and, with regard to many, the Lord does not leave Himself without witness. They are progressing, though slowly, and on the whole present a pleasing picture of the transforming influence of the Gospel. They have cut large fields, and it is pleasing to observe that one family helps another in doing so; but they farm on their own system, and it is next to impossible to persuade them to adopt a better. Of the Carrabeese several families have come to settle. Although their prejudices are very strong, they yet appear to be impressed with the Truth; and since Erie's return from Warraporta, their attendance on instruction has been pretty regular.*

TRINIDAD MISSION.

COMMENCED 1836.

Mission Establishment:

2 European Missionaries.	1 European Schoolmistress.
3 European Schoolmasters.	3 Country-born Schoolmasters.

Further Measures in order to the Society's Withdrawal from Trinidad.

THE arrangements, referred to in the last Report, for discontinuing the operations of the Society in Trinidad, have now been very nearly completed. The Rev. Messrs. J. G. Mühlhauser and A. E. Eckel have been placed on the Island Establishment, each remaining as the Parochial Minister of the Station with which he was previously connected. The Bishop of Barbadoes, within whose Diocese Trinidad is situated, has cordially supported the views of the Committee in effecting this settlement of the Missionaries in their Stations as Colonial Clergymen. His Lordship having represented to the Committee that there would still be work of a Missionary nature calling for the services of Messrs. Mühlhauser and Eckel, and on that ground suggesting an addition to the salary which they receive from the Colonial Fund, the Committee have agreed to allow them, for the present, 100*l.* per annum each.

The Schools in the Mission have been hitherto kept up out of the portion of the Parliamentary Grant for Negro Education, placed at the disposal of the Committee by Her Majesty's Government.

Messrs. T. Gilbert, E. J. E. Hawkins, and R. Woodman, employed as Catechists by the Society, have been admitted to Holy Orders by the Bishop of Barbadoes, and will be employed by him in parochial districts in Trinidad. Mr. Woodman is Assistant Curate to Mr. Mühlhauser at Belmont.

Review of the Society's Labours in this Island.

Mr. Mühlhauser thus expresses, in a Letter dated Oct. 31, 1843, his views and feelings with reference to the labours of the Society in Trinidad—

> Thank God that we are all well, and that, by His blessing, we are still enabled to discharge our duties in the vineyard of the Lord which has been planted in this part of the land by your instrumentality and Christian charity, and which, I trust, will, in its own time, bring forth fruit, some thirty-fold, some sixty, and some an hundred! I cannot but believe that the Committee, with all the members of the Church Missionary Society, must derive a great satisfaction from the consideration that by their means, and their servants, the Kingdom of our blessed Redeemer has here been in some degree extended; and that they have been made instrumental to call sinners unto repentance; yea, and I sincerely hope, also, in leading some, however few they may be, back to the sheepfold of Jesus Christ, our good Shepherd.

This Mission was commenced in 1836, when the Island was in a state of deplorable destitution of Protestant Teachers. Past Reports have shown that the labours of the Society's Missionaries have not been in vain in the Lord. In closing their connexion with Trinidad it is very gratifying to the Committee to record the following testimony from the Bishop of Barbadoes to the value of Messrs. Mühlhauser and Eckel's services, contained in a Letter addressed to the Committee by his Lordship on the 17th of June last—

Though much straitened for time, I am unwilling to let the first opportunity I have had pass by without informing you that I had the satisfaction, while in Trinidad, of visiting Naparima, and consecrating the new Church of St. Paul, in the town of San Fernando. After the consecration of St. Paul's, I held a Confirmation in the Church, at which 48 persons were confirmed, partly from the Rev. J. G. Mühlhauser's Congregations, and partly from those of the Rev. A. E. Eckel. It was altogether most interesting to see the labours of your Missionaries brought to results of so gratifying, and, I trust also, so permanent a character.

JAMAICA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1826.

Mission Establishment:

3 European Missionaries. 1 European Catechist and Schoolmaster.

In the last Report it was mentioned that the Stations of Salt Savannah, Rural Hill, Chichester, and Moore Town, were still connected with the Society. These Stations are connected with it still.

SALT SAVANNAH.

Difficulties have obstructed the labours of Mr. H. Taylor at this Station. Many of the people belonging to the property having removed to a place in the neighbourhood called Portland, the transfer of Mr. Taylor's services to that place has been sanctioned. With regard to his removal to Portland, Mr. Taylor states, Oct. 28, 1843—

A respectable Black Man, from Harmony-Hall Estate, of the name of Sheldon, called to-day, to say that he would purchase an acre of land at Portland, on which to build a house, which he hoped would grow into a Chapel.

Mr. Taylor speaks of the attendance of the people at Portland as encouraging. He relates some interesting particulars respecting an aged woman from Barbadoes, one of his Portland Congregation. She is infirm as well as old; but diligent, nevertheless, in attending the Means of Grace. On the 14th of December, Mr. Taylor thus writes concerning her—

As I rode to the Meeting this evening, the first person whom I overtook was my poor old Barbadian, tottering along with the assistance of her stick, accompanied by one of her daughters and a grandchild. The evening was very stormy, with an appearance of rain, which afterward fell, accompanied by heavy thunder; but the old woman's soul was thirsty. During the Meeting the wind increased, and the lights were blown out twice. I had considerable fears for the old woman, as the wind blew rather strongly upon her; but she only answered my fears by drawing her cloak more closely about her. She could not afford to move, lest, as her hearing is not now as acute as formerly, she should not be able to hear so well. After the Meeting was over, I told her that she shamed many of the young people, who permitted any little excuse to keep them away, especially a little untoward weather. "Ah!" she said, "they are young now; but perhaps when they are as old as I am, if they should live so long, they will know the value of God's Word. I was too much like them when I was young."

RURAL HILL.

The Rev. C. A. Cooper continues in charge of this Station. The work continues steadily, though slowly, to advance.

MOORE TOWN.

This Station is under the charge of the Rev. T. Gibson. On the 23d of March, 1843, he wrote—

The very kind consideration of the Committee in continuing this Station for a time, will, it may be hoped, be followed by good results to this truly singular and secluded people.

CHICHESTER.

Concerning this Station, under the charge of the Rev. C. W. Winckler, it is reported, Dec. 31, 1843—

The work of the Lord has gone on quietly, and, I trust, progressively. Divine Service has been performed every Lord's Day without interruption, and is, on the whole, well attended. The Afternoon

Catechetical exercises are not so well attended, though so very useful and profitable to the people.

Bishop of Jamaica.

Dr. Lipscombe, the first Bishop of Jamaica, was removed by death in the last year, after having occupied the see nineteen years. His Lordship repeatedly bore testimony to the importance of the Society's operations in Jamaica, and to the character and labours of the Society's Missionaries. Bishop Lipscombe has been succeeded in the see of Jamaica by Dr. Spencer, translated from that of Newfoundland. The new Bishop entered upon his Episcopate in Jamaica in November last. In a Letter to the Hon. Secretary, dated November 20, 1843, the Bishop states that he should be happy to receive any Clergyman into his Diocese who had been recommended by the Society. In the same Letter the Bishop thus describes the painful results which had followed from the rapid relinquishment of several of the Society's Stations in Jamaica—

> It would give me great satisfaction to hear that the improved funds of the Church Missionary Society would induce that excellent Institution to resume some of their abandoned Stations in this still thirsty land. Closed Chapels, dilapidated School-houses, scattered Congregations, and thousands of Maroon wanderers, all emancipated slaves, deprived of all means of Christian worship or instruction, notwithstanding the liberal provisions of the late Clergy Act, present me with an unhappy picture on my arrival in this Colony, and show the disastrous consequences of your abandonment of a field which your Missionaries and Catechists were so well qualified to occupy.

The circumstances in which the Committee were placed at the time left them no alternative but the step which they then took. Deeply impressed with the distressing results which have followed from vacating Stations without suitable provision for keeping up in them the religious instruction of the people, the Committee have hitherto, as stated above, retained four in connexion with the Society. They have also made a proposal to the Bishop to send out a Missionary for one of those referred to in his Lordship's Letter, should there be a reasonable prospect of the Society's being relieved from the salary.*

NORTH-WEST-AMERICA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1822.

Mission Establishment:

3 European Missionaries.
2 European Catechists and Schoolmasters.
5 Country-born and Native Schoolmasters.

DURING the past year the Stations of the several Missionaries have continued as in the last Report, and the accounts of the progress of the Mission have been peculiarly satisfactory.

UPPER SETTLEMENT.

General View.

The Rev. W. Cockran thus reviews, in a Letter dated July 28, 1843, the state of this Settlement—

We see not all the good effects produced by the preaching of the Gospel which we could wish, and for which we pray .... But, after all the deductions which truth compels us to make, we have still much remaining which calls for our gratitude.

Mr. J. Roberts reports, August 14, 1842—

The Christian Indians and Half-Breeds make the Bible and Prayer Book their favourite books, and learn large portions of them by heart.

And again, July 2, 1843—

The Protestants of the Red-River Settlement are very regular in their attendance upon the Means of Grace, and ordinances of the Gospel, at every season of the year. They come to the House of the Lord through the mire and rain of spring, the heat and flies of summer, the snow and wind of autumn, and the cold and snow of winter; which indicates their deep sense of the value of the Gospel.

CUMBERLAND STATION.

General View—Need, and Appointment, of a Missionary.

This Station is under the care of the Native Catechist, Henry Budd. The 85 Indians whose baptism by the Rev. J. Smithurst was mentioned in the last Report, have continued steadfast in the faith, and manifest an increasing desire after divine things. Two of them, a man and his wife, travelled in the summer a distance of nearly 1000 miles in order to visit Mr. Smithurst to receive religious instruction, and to be admitted to the Lord's Supper.

A pleasing account of the hopeful state of mind in which one of the School Children died is given by Mr. Budd.

From his communications it appears that there are 58 Candidates for Baptism awaiting the arrival of a Missionary.

The Committee rejoice to say that a Missionary has been set apart for this Station, and will sail thither in the Company's ships in the course of a few weeks.

INDIAN SETTLEMENT.

Report, by the Rev. John Smithurst.

The Rev. J. Smithurst writes, in his Report for the year ending July 30, 1843—

In commencing my fourth Annual Report of the state of the Indian Settlement, I would express my deep and unfeigned gratitude to the Giver of all good, for the large measure of His favour which we have enjoyed during the past year. The period has been one of almost uninterrupted spiritual prosperity. Our trials, being principally connected with temporal concerns, have been of but secondary importance.

When the Indians are all at home the Church is quite full, I may say almost crowded, in the morning. There is the same seriousness and attention observable in the demeanour of the Indians that I have ever seen. I can perceive no symptoms of falling off; but, on the contrary, I trust there is still an earnest desire for instruction, and an increased thirsting after the Water of Life .... In the School-room we have a Service every evening except Saturday. At these Services I give an expository lecture. The attendance in the winter is very good, sometimes amounting to 150. In summer, many of the men are necessarily absent. I trust these Services are blessed to the people; for they now, in their own language, lift up their hearts to God, guided and assisted by the Scriptural Liturgy of our beloved Church. During the past year I have baptized 17 Saulteaux Indians and 7 Crees, converts from heathenism.

The Saulteaux Tribe was one of the most inveterate against the Gospel. The number of Communicants is 77.

MANITOBA STATION.

The Rev. A. Cowley laboured to establish Schools at this Station during the early part of the last year; and amidst privations and difficulties of the most formidable description, gained, in some measure, the confidence of the Indians; but being obliged to remove to the Red River to assist Mr. Cockran, the Manitoba Station is placed under the charge of a Native Schoolmaster, and will be visited by Mr. Cowley as often as opportunity admits.

FORT-ELLICE STATION.

Reasons for the Occupation of this Station.

This new Station is situated in the Great Plain north of the Missouri, about 300 miles from the Red-River Settlement. It is a very important locality, from the number of Indians of different tribes to which the Missionary may find access. It is stated that five thousand Indians visited the Hudson's-Bay-Company's Establishment at this place in the year before last. The principal tribes are the Sioux, the Assiniboines, the Mandines, the Crees, and the Chippeways.

In the year 1842 the Chief of Beaver Creek, near Fort Ellice, visited the Red River with a view to obtain a Teacher. His earnest solicitations, together with the importance of the place as a Missionary Station, induced the Missionaries to appoint a Native Schoolmaster, who commenced preparatory labours there in September of that year.*

STATE OF THE FINANCES.

In reviewing the state of the Finances, the Committee find abundant occasion to thank God and take courage. The Receipts of the year stand as follows:—

General Fund, out of which the Establishments of the Society at home and abroad are provided for				£	97,791	2 3
Special Funds: China Fund	£	1556	16 1
Capital Fund		2648	1 6
Fourah-Bay Institution Buildings' Fund		1181	17 0
Disabled Missionaries' Fund		1145	19 0
					6532	13 7
Making a Total, from all sources, of				£	104,323	15 10

The Expenditure of the year amounted to 93,472*l.* 7*s.* 3*d.*

The Committee are thus enabled to report an excess of Income over Expenditure in the past year of 4318*l.* 15*s.*, exclusive of the Receipts on account of Special Funds.

In deliberating on the appropriation of the Surplus thus placed at their disposal, there were two objects which appeared to the Committee to claim special attention.

1. The first was to make provision for the erection of the necessary buildings in Sierra Leone for carrying out their plans for the education of Native Youths. The Committee, therefore, have advanced, on loan, 2000*l.* of the Surplus to secure the immediate completion of those buildings.

2. The Committee are more and more deeply impressed with the obligation to raise a Fund of the nature of a Capital, to preserve the financial operations of the Society from derangement by temporary fluctuations of Income; and especially to relieve the Committee from the necessity of borrowing money for current expenses in those parts of the year when the Receipts do not equal the Expenditure. The balance of the Surplus—about 1800*l.*—has therefore, this year, been transferred to the Capital Fund.

The Committee seeing no reason to doubt that the Income of the Society, on account of the General Fund, will, in the present year, equal that of the last, judged it right to consider the expediency of sanctioning some extension of Missionary operations. The restrictions which have been imposed on the Society in this respect, for the last two years—though necessary in its then financial situation—have been not less painfully felt by the Members at large, than by the Missionaries abroad. Signally favoured as the Society has been in the large amount of its last year's Income, the Committee came to the conclusion that they should administer the trust confided to them in the manner most satisfactory to the Members by providing for some enlargement of operations in the Missions. They have, therefore, raised the maximum of Expenditure from 85,000*l.* to 87,000*l.* This sum is exclusive of the sums contributed in the several Missions, and which, last year, raised the Receipts on account of the General Fund, as stated above, to 97,791*l.* 2*s.* 3*d.*

Eminently favoured as the Society has been by the Divine goodness in the improvement of its financial situation, the Committee earnestly desire to give glory to God for the abundance vouchsafed to them. Not less earnestly do they desire to give glory to Him, by the increase of humility and watchfulness, faith and prayer, in all their future course, and by steadfast adherence to His truth.

CONCLUSION.

THE Committee desire to remember and to renew the pledges which they gave to their supporters in the hour of their embarrassment.

The Committee hold themselves pledged to the strictest economy in the disbursement of the large sum committed to their disposal: as well as to a due adjustment of the Expenditure of the Society with its Income, so that they may not be again involved in the same perils from which they have now been mercifully extricated. They trust that arrangements have been made effectually to accomplish these ends.

They conceive themselves to be no less pledged to a firm and faithful adherence to those Protestant and Evangelical principles by which the Society has been distinguished from its formation. Upon these principles the Committee took their stand in a season of jeopardy: upon these principles they made their appeal for special assistance: and to these principles, under God, they owe their present prosperity. Therefore they regard themselves and their successors in office as bound, by new and most cogent obligations, to guard, with the utmost vigilance, against all surrender or compromise of principle throughout the various ramifications of their widely-extended agency: that, as far as human means can provide, the Gospel preached through the agency of this Society may not be another Gospel, but the very Gospel of the grace of God, published in and by the open volume of inspiration; such as the Reforming Fathers of our own beloved Church exhibited in their lives, illustrated in their writings, and testified with their blood.

The Committee have also presented their Report under a lively but humble sense of the great responsibility of the position in which they are placed. They are the chief almoners of the Church of this country, in her efforts to evangelize the Heathen world, and the medium of communication, also, between these two parties. They are placed in a post of special observation for catching the first accents of the mystical voice, Come over and help us; for watching the incipient movements of the Spirit of God upon the face of the deep. They are the Depository of the hopes and fears, the joys and sorrows, the restrospective experience and the prospective suggestions, of those devoted men who are sustaining the hard conflict between light and darkness. They have not fulfilled their responsibility on this occasion if they have failed to convey to the minds of their supporters the fact that the Lord is carrying on a wonderful work in the midst of the Heathen world—chiefly, indeed, a work of preparation, but one which bespeaks some coming change. The power of Heathenism is failing—the native mind of Africa and the East is awakening—the Agents of infidelity and of apostate Christianity are gathering around to seize upon the minds detached from their ancient superstition—and the preachers of the Gospel are animated by fresh hopes. In all the Missions which have acquired any degree of establishment there is a sure though gradual progress. Even respecting North India, where the results have been on a less scale than in South India, New Zealand, or West Africa, Bishop Wilson has declared, in his late Charge—

> During the last four years there has been, I rejoice to say, a rapid augmentation in the number of Converts and Inquirers after the Gospel, both in the Missions of the Venerable Propagation Society at Barrypore and Janjera, and of the Church Missionary Society at and about Krisnaghur. In the other Stations there has been a steady increase of good; but chiefly among Schools, and in the way of preparation: but showers of blessings, to use the language of the Prophet, have descended on those I have mentioned.

Under the impression of these feelings, the Committee would, with the most solemn earnestness, urge upon the Church of Christ at home the importance of rising to the occasion of helping forward the sacred cause by contributions adequate to the greatness of the demand—of strengthening the hands and encouraging the hearts of the noble band of Labourers by continual prayer on their behalf—of exercising the mighty influence of Intercessory Prayer on behalf of the rising Churches in some of our Missions, and the feeble infancy of many a Christian community in others, which seem, like sparks upon the ocean, ready to be extinguished, unless kept alive by a miracle of Divine grace.

But, above all, they would solemnly urge upon those whose hearts are touched by the constraining love of Christ, and whose education has made them fit for the Master's use in the Missionary field, to come forward and offer themselves as Labourers for this work. The Society has many posts in which men of enlargement of mind, of habits of intellectual observation and power, are needed, to give direction to, and to take full advantage of, the rising energies of the Church abroad. A Missionary at Calcutta writes—

> Would that I could make my voice heard among the Students of Oxford and Cambridge on this point! Will Clergymen in England continue to limit their views to some petty Curacy, with its minor interests, while the subjugation of the mind of India to the love of the Redeemer is here presented as a prize? I again repeat, what we want for India is, the consecration of sanctified intellect to the Lord.

But long experience, and not unfrequent disappointments of rising hopes, compel the Committee to press this appeal upon others, as well as upon such individuals themselves; namely, upon their friends—their parents;—here is often the real obstacle. Sometimes, also, that very humility, which is one of the choicest qualifications, withholds those who seem providentially directed toward the work from offering themselves. It was the wise and pious Professor Franke, who was making inquiries for new Missionaries to India, who first proposed to Schwartz to engage in this sacred and important work, upon observing his diligence in acquiring the Tamul language, merely with a view to acting as a corrector of the press at home. It was the father of Schwartz who seconded the proposal of Franke, and, after three days' deliberation and prayer, "came down from his chamber and, in the presence of a reluctant family, gave him his blessing, and bade him depart in God's Name; charging him to forget his native country and his father's house, and go and win many souls to Christ." It was the venerable John Newton who made the first direct proposal to Claudius Buchanan to go to the East. It was Charles Simeon who first suggested to Henry Martyn that glorious career in which he jeoparded his life even unto the death.

Where, it is often asked, is the spirit of Schwartz, of Buchanan, of Martyn? Where, it may be replied, is the spirit of the father or of the Christian friend, to kindle, in the prepared but diffident soul, the latent zeal of the future Missionary, and to fix and to consecrate his wavering purpose, by effectual fervent prayer, and by the animating example of the sacrifice of a parent's fondest affection, or friendship's closest bonds, to the constraining LOVE OF CHRIST.

 Some misapprehension having arisen with regard to the Association Balance Sheets appended to the Society's Report, the Committee beg to state that there is no connexion between those Balance Sheets and the Balance Sheet of the Parent Committee. The Association Accounts are, for the most part, made up to the period of their respective Anniversary Meetings, and thus necessarily vary from the Parent Committee's Balance Sheet, which includes the actual payments made at the Society's House between April 1st and March 31st in each year; and is, therefore, quite irrespective of the periods at which, for local convenience, Association Accounts are made up and balanced. An Account Current is kept at the Society's Office with each Association, by which the actual transmission of its receipts to the Parent Committee is shown. The appending to the Society's Report of the Balance Sheets of the Associations may be regarded as a universal acknowledgment to the Local Contributors that their Contributions have been received by the Parent Committee; though the varying periods at which, as above stated, those Accounts are made up, render it impossible that their totals should correspond with the amount received from Associations, specified in the Parent Committee's Balance Sheet.

It is further to be observed, that there are other causes of discrepancy, beside that of difference in time, which has the effect of swelling the amount acknowledged in the Association Balance Sheets beyond that which is exhibited in the Balance Sheet appended to the Report; inasmuch as Legacies, Benefactions, &c., although paid direct, are frequently claimed by an Association, the Benefactor having lived within the limits of such Association, though the payment was made direct to the Parent Society. As these Accounts have no reference to the Parent Committee's printed Balance Sheet, there has been no hesitation in transferring such amounts, as desired. The effect, however, of this has unavoidably been, in some instances, that the sums transferred have been twice acknowledged; the Committee's Balance Sheet having been made up before notice desiring such transfer was received at the Society's Office.

N.B. Benefactors of Ten Pounds and upward, whose Names have appeared in former Lists of the Associations, will now find them in the General List.
